

HOSPITAL SECRETS.
A Nurse Says: "Per-ri-na is a Tonic of Efficiency."

MRS. KATE TAYLOR.
Mrs. Kate Taylor, a graduated nurse of prominence, gives her experience with Peruna in an open letter. Her position in society and professional standing combine to give special prominence to her utterances.

CHICAGO, ILL., 47 Monroe St.—As far as I have observed, Peruna is the finest tonic any man or woman can use who is weak from the after-effects of any serious illness.

"I have seen it used in a number of convalescent cases, and have seen several other tonics used, but I found that those who used Peruna had the quickest relief.

"Peruna seems to restore vitality, increase bodily vigor and renew health strength in a wonderfully short time."—MRS. KATE TAYLOR.

State Commander Lady Maccaebes. The Lady Maccaebes of Athens announced the death of her husband, Mr. J. H. Lamborn, who died at the residence of the lady on Monday.

Bees Ready for Market. B. F. Ogle, of Athens, has returned from his beekeeping trip to the low spring. He reports everything looking fine in that vicinity. He also reports that the honey crop is abundant and several other hives are producing well.

SUNDAY SCHOOL IS IN A THRIVING CONDITION. Transaction in Beef Cattle—Residence of Mrs. James Davis Burned.

Here at Home. Pendleton Citizens Gladly Testify. It is testimony like the following that has placed the old Quaker Buggy so far above competitors.

Flat Irons wear out. So do Kingsbury Hats. But if taken a long time Ask your merchant.

R. ALEXANDER, Sole Agent.

ADMINISTRATRIX'S NOTICE. In the county court of the state of Oregon, in the county of Tillamook.

PISOS CURE FOR RHEUMATISM. It is a cure for all kinds of rheumatism, sciatica, neuralgia, etc.

MRS. RICHARDS HAS MOVED TO SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA.

Lady Maccaebes Entertain Their State Commander—Missouri Man Makes Investments—R. J. Boddy is Ill Again—Moving to California—Mrs. Taylor is Recovering.

Athena, July 13.—Mrs. Richards, of Athena, Ore., after visiting various places on the Pacific coast finally reached San Diego. She is so well pleased with the climate and surrounding conditions that she has decided to make this her home.

Earl Smead, a recent arrival from Missouri, has purchased the property of Charles Boehr with this city, with his wife and two daughters will make their future home here.

Dr. Warden, of San Francisco, was at Athena on Monday. He was called by R. J. Boddy on the sick list again but is reported better this morning.

Earl Smead will leave Sunday for the coast. He has employment in a hardware store.

The corn crop of Umatilla and the best crop of Union county, is being threshed in the city. The wheat has not yet begun to ripen and is not yet ready for the market.

Mr. J. D. Casey has no contract with the O. R. & N. for Delivery of Logs. R. H. Patton, who resides on Birch creek, a few miles from Pendleton, who is at present foreman for J. D. Casey in a sawmill on Five points creek, near Hilgard, is in town today.

Warren Chandler, of Elgin, passed down over the O. R. & N. today with three carloads of lumber to the North Powder, to the Portland market.

Threatened With Blood Poisoning. Bert Campbell is threatened with blood poisoning in his foot as the result of a wound received on the excursion last Sunday. He is confined to his room.

NEARLY COMPLETED

ST. ANTHONY'S HOSPITAL. The work on the new hospital is progressing as fast as can be expected under the circumstances.

Experts Return Home to Clackamas From Bingham Springs. Earl H. Wilson and Amund Oldenburg, two experts sent in charge of the consignment of fish from the Clackamas hatchery to Bingham Springs, returned home last night.

Mr. Wilson says the black spotted trout at a length of 8 and 9 inches and the rainbow 10 inches and are the gamiest fish in the West except the Montana grayling, which stands at the head of the list.

There will be an elevator in the center of the structure opening into the main floor. At the center of the building is a shaft for the elevator.

Warren Chandler, of Elgin, passed down over the O. R. & N. today with three carloads of lumber to the North Powder, to the Portland market.

Threatened With Blood Poisoning. Bert Campbell is threatened with blood poisoning in his foot as the result of a wound received on the excursion last Sunday. He is confined to his room.

Warren Chandler, of Elgin, passed down over the O. R. & N. today with three carloads of lumber to the North Powder, to the Portland market.

Threatened With Blood Poisoning. Bert Campbell is threatened with blood poisoning in his foot as the result of a wound received on the excursion last Sunday. He is confined to his room.

Warren Chandler, of Elgin, passed down over the O. R. & N. today with three carloads of lumber to the North Powder, to the Portland market.

NEARLY COMPLETED

ST. ANTHONY'S HOSPITAL. The work on the new hospital is progressing as fast as can be expected under the circumstances.

Experts Return Home to Clackamas From Bingham Springs. Earl H. Wilson and Amund Oldenburg, two experts sent in charge of the consignment of fish from the Clackamas hatchery to Bingham Springs, returned home last night.

Mr. Wilson says the black spotted trout at a length of 8 and 9 inches and the rainbow 10 inches and are the gamiest fish in the West except the Montana grayling, which stands at the head of the list.

There will be an elevator in the center of the structure opening into the main floor. At the center of the building is a shaft for the elevator.

Warren Chandler, of Elgin, passed down over the O. R. & N. today with three carloads of lumber to the North Powder, to the Portland market.

Threatened With Blood Poisoning. Bert Campbell is threatened with blood poisoning in his foot as the result of a wound received on the excursion last Sunday. He is confined to his room.

Warren Chandler, of Elgin, passed down over the O. R. & N. today with three carloads of lumber to the North Powder, to the Portland market.

Threatened With Blood Poisoning. Bert Campbell is threatened with blood poisoning in his foot as the result of a wound received on the excursion last Sunday. He is confined to his room.

Warren Chandler, of Elgin, passed down over the O. R. & N. today with three carloads of lumber to the North Powder, to the Portland market.

POSTMASTER FOR HEPPNER.

W. W. Smead Receives the Appointment to Succeed Dr. Vaughn. Heppner, July 15.—The president yesterday evening appointed Wallace W. Smead postmaster at this place, to succeed Dr. Vaughn, deceased.

Wallace W. Smead was born in Col. Adams, a son of the emigrant with his parents to Oregon in 1858, settling in the Willamette valley. He worked on a farm with his parents until 1880 when he came to Morrow county, and farmed 11 years near Heppner.

In 1891 he accepted a position with the Morrow Cattle and Trust Company, which he yet holds, moving to Heppner in that year. He has ever been an earnest worker in republican politics during all these years.

He was chairman of the Morrow County Republican convention at Heppner, 1894, 1896 and 1902, and at present is chairman of the Morrow County Central Committee.

MONTEZUMA FOR SALE. The "Oregon Wonder" Will Change Hands to a New Judge. Montezuma, the big sorrel stallion that has been exhibited all over the Northwest, will be sold at auction this afternoon.

Turner Oliver, the attorney at La Grande, is the only bidder and the horse was knocked down to him by J. A. Blakely for the figure he offered.

Joe Bailey Subject to Halicantations Since He Lost His Eye. Joe Bailey, who suffered the loss of one of his eyes from a spark flying into him from a piece of hot steel that was welding some time ago, was taken to Portland this morning by C. P. Davis, where he will be placed under the care of a specialist.

Wool to Boston. Six Carloads From the Furnish Warehouse Today. The furnish warehouse is shipping the last of its wool as fast as it can get it loaded, as a result of the wool business this week and have all clear for wool and other grain as fast as it comes.

Wool to Boston. Six Carloads From the Furnish Warehouse Today. The furnish warehouse is shipping the last of its wool as fast as it can get it loaded, as a result of the wool business this week and have all clear for wool and other grain as fast as it comes.

A FAVORABLE WEEK

EVERYTHING BENEFITED, EXCEPT TOO COOL FOR CORN. The weather during the past week was favorable for the growing crops, as well as for hay, except that it was too cool for corn, and this crop is making slow advancement.

General Average for Fruit is Excellent—Root Crops and Gardens Doing Finely—Pastures Good Except in Some Southern Sections, Where it is Too Dry. The weather during the past week was favorable for the growing crops, as well as for hay, except that it was too cool for corn, and this crop is making slow advancement.

Colombia River Valley. Dufur, Wasco county, Alex Strachan.—Fore part of week dry and cool; latter part warm; considerable hay cut and secured in good condition; prospects for fair yield and good quality; fruit promises a bountiful crop.

Union County, John W. Minnick.—Splendid growing weather; saying well; in a few days, crop generally light; fall sown grain has short straw; spring grain is recovering fast from effects of drought; fruit promising; potatoes good; appearance, range is good.

Lakeview, Lake county, W. E. Wheeler.—Work ended cool, with dry weather; grain and hay well; making good crops; hay commenced in some localities; berries are plentiful, but fruit in general will be below the average.

Harvesters are here. Many Wait for Higher Wages—$1.50 for Header Box Drivers—Kick on Dust. Walla Walla, July 15.—Five hundred harvest hands are in Walla Walla and vicinity now. Before the season begins, it is estimated at least 1200 harvesters will come into the city hunting work.

Organizing Against Thieves. Grant County Citizens Take Steps to Stop Cattle Rustling. The following preamble and call for a meeting is being circulated in the Long Creek district.

Boy Badly Crushed. Walla Walla, July 15.—Ray Anderson, son of Edward Anderson, of this city, was crushed between two flat cars on the Oregon coast line at Battlemore Canyon, nine miles below Walla Walla today. The boy, who is 11 years of age, was working for J. J. Mangan on a road masher, and was passing between the cars for some purpose when he was caught without warning.

On the Cattle Range. Jim Smith, of Pendleton, who has been in Douglas county since last fall, passed through town Wednesday with 140 head of cattle which he expects to range near Dale this summer.—Long Creek Light.

WEDNESDAY'S LOCALS

James Brophy, of Echo, is in the city on a short visit. D. K. Matthews, of Echo, is in the city on a business trip.

Mrs. J. H. Lamborn, who died at the residence of the lady on Monday. She was 75 years of age and was a native of New York.

Mr. J. D. Casey has no contract with the O. R. & N. for Delivery of Logs. R. H. Patton, who resides on Birch creek, a few miles from Pendleton, who is at present foreman for J. D. Casey in a sawmill on Five points creek, near Hilgard, is in town today.

Warren Chandler, of Elgin, passed down over the O. R. & N. today with three carloads of lumber to the North Powder, to the Portland market.

Threatened With Blood Poisoning. Bert Campbell is threatened with blood poisoning in his foot as the result of a wound received on the excursion last Sunday. He is confined to his room.

Warren Chandler, of Elgin, passed down over the O. R. & N. today with three carloads of lumber to the North Powder, to the Portland market.

Threatened With Blood Poisoning. Bert Campbell is threatened with blood poisoning in his foot as the result of a wound received on the excursion last Sunday. He is confined to his room.

Warren Chandler, of Elgin, passed down over the O. R. & N. today with three carloads of lumber to the North Powder, to the Portland market.

Threatened With Blood Poisoning. Bert Campbell is threatened with blood poisoning in his foot as the result of a wound received on the excursion last Sunday. He is confined to his room.

RIDGE AND VICINITY

TREATING CANCER BY X-RAY WITH SUCCESS. Sheepmen Are in the Mountains With Their Flocks—Two Bee Trees Discovered and Opened—Crops Are Looking Fine—Buying Cattle for the Seattle Market.

Ridge, July 12.—Mr. and Mrs. William Fletcher, of Nye, are at present living in Walla Walla, where Mr. Fletcher is taking X-ray treatment for his cancer, which is going nicely, with strong indications of a cure.

Virgil Smith, has made a trip to Heppner, and worked a few days. He and Bert Simonton are now at work down Butler creek.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Stevens, and Miss Grace Stevens, of Milton, are in the city the guests of friends.

W. C. Kennedy, a prominent dairy and butter man of Ukiah, was in the city yesterday transacting business and visiting his many friends.

H. Koepe, formerly of this city, who has been a resident of Tropico, Cal., for several years, has moved with his family to Elmhurst, Wash.

H. C. Adams, of Weston, and one of the representatives to the legislature for this county, went to Portland this morning to attend the meeting of the republican state central committee.

Miss Stella Arp has gone to her home in the country near this city for the summer vacation. Miss Arp was one of the graduates of the Montmorency normal school, and was one of this year's session, and has been the guest of friends in this city for some time.

Lee Street Bridge. Will Be Reopened, Ready for Travel in About Five Days. The repairs on the Lee street bridge, which were ordered by the council a short time ago, are about completed, and the bridge will be reopened, ready for travel, in about five days from this time.

FRUIT CROP GOOD

STATE BOARD OF HORTICULTURE MEETING. CULTURE HOLDS MEETING. Reports From All Over the State Are Encouraging—Full Crop of Prunes in Eastern Oregon—Rains Hinder Berry Picking.

Portland, July 15.—Quarterly reports of horticultural commissioner of the state board, submitted at the meeting of the state board of horticulture Tuesday evening, show that the fruit crop prospects, all things considered, are fully up to the average in all portions of the state.

Prunes. The weather is generally said to be especially heavy. The meeting of the executive committee was for the purpose of auditing the report and accounts and transacting purely routine business.

Harvesters are here. Many Wait for Higher Wages—$1.50 for Header Box Drivers—Kick on Dust. Walla Walla, July 15.—Five hundred harvest hands are in Walla Walla and vicinity now. Before the season begins, it is estimated at least 1200 harvesters will come into the city hunting work.

Organizing Against Thieves. Grant County Citizens Take Steps to Stop Cattle Rustling. The following preamble and call for a meeting is being circulated in the Long Creek district.

Boy Badly Crushed. Walla Walla, July 15.—Ray Anderson, son of Edward Anderson, of this city, was crushed between two flat cars on the Oregon coast line at Battlemore Canyon, nine miles below Walla Walla today. The boy, who is 11 years of age, was working for J. J. Mangan on a road masher, and was passing between the cars for some purpose when he was caught without warning.

On the Cattle Range. Jim Smith, of Pendleton, who has been in Douglas county since last fall, passed through town Wednesday with 140 head of cattle which he expects to range near Dale this summer.—Long Creek Light.

Water on the river Mr. Roberts made a casual inspection of the fruit conditions and estimates there will be a large crop of apples this year. There has been a steady increase of fruit peas along the river and fruit so far appears in a healthy condition.

Water on the river Mr. Roberts made a casual inspection of the fruit conditions and estimates there will be a large crop of apples this year. There has been a steady increase of fruit peas along the river and fruit so far appears in a healthy condition.

AYER'S Hair Vigor. Bald? Scalp shiny and thin? Then it's probably too late. You neglected dandruff. If you had only taken our Ayer's Hair Vigor, you would have cured the dandruff, saved your hair, and added much to it. If not entirely bald, now is your opportunity. Improve it. I have used Ayer's Hair Vigor for over 20 years and it has done for me what no other hair cure could. It makes the hair grow thick and healthy, and keeps it from falling out. It is the best hair cure ever made. Price 25 cents per bottle. Sold by all druggists. J. C. AYER & CO., Lowell, Mass.