PATROLMAN SCHANEAMAN IS SHOT DOWN IN GOLD BLOOD IN SEATTLE

While He is Arresting one Bandit the Pal Places a Revolver to the Officer's Temple and Blows Out His Brains. Murderer Will Be Lynched if Caught.

Seattle, Sept. 14.—It now develops that Patrolman Schaneaman, who was brutally murdered at midnight last night, was not shot by William Thomas, the bandit, who was supposed to have fired upon him from a bush, but the murder was committed by Lattor, a pal now at liberty. He is vigorously being hunted by the police and every detective in the city.

The pal came up and held the gun to Schaneaman's head and held the fatal shot. Schaneaman's murderer will be lynched if caught, as the officer was the most popular member of the police force.

GOTTON TO ATTEMPT THE DARDANELLES

All Posts Have Been Fortified by Orders of the Sultan, and Mines Are Laid.

Vienna, Sept. 12.—The Volksblatt today states that it is reported in military circles in Constantinople, that the British admiral, Lord Curzon, is attempting to force a passage through the Straits of Dardanelles as the result of the trade which has been closed, ordering the fortification of the posts along the straits, and have them put in a state of defense and have mines laid.

WRECK A MYSTERY.

Tugboat Heath Sinks Without a Moment's Warning. New York, Sept. 12.—The tugboat Heath, which was on a mission to the bottom at the pier of the Savannah Steamship Company, at 6 o'clock this morning, it is believed that the tugboat was struck by a wave which was pulling at the line in the tide. There was no sign of life aboard, the crew supposed to be asleep. The sank so suddenly that men standing on the pier did not notice any trouble. It is supposed she sprung a leak in the night.

SALEM PAPER ADVISES FARMERS TO HOLD WHEAT. Says Price is Kept Down by the Portland Warehousemen—Farmers Should Hold and Combine to Keep Up Prices.

The Salem Journal has taken a stand against the Portland warehouse trust, which virtually controls the wheat market of Oregon. It advises the farmers to combine and hold their wheat for higher prices. It takes the ground that the wheat sold early by farmers is used as a club to keep prices down. It has the following to say upon the subject: "The Salem Journal has asked all the grain farmers who are its readers to consider the situation as to the market prices for grain."

FACTORY WILL OPEN

LA GRANDE SUGAR MILLS TO BEGIN SEPT. 21. Output This Year Will Reach 5,000,000 of Sugar—Best Crop Light, But of Good Quality—Per Cent of Sugar Very High—Yield Will Probably Be 15 Tons Per Acre.

La Grande, Sept. 11.—The sugar factory will start for the season's run on the 21st. The estimated yield of the beet crop this year is over average in quality, and many of the fields will yield 15 tons of beets per acre. The tonnage of beets now in sight will reach 15,000 tons, which should yield between four and five million pounds of refined sugar. The factory will employ about 125 men and boys, and the field belonging to the factory will employ as many as 450 people, during the beet harvest period. All this labor will be local, while labor as far as it is possible to secure it. The supply of white labor is usually scarce, and to provide for any emergency, the company has contracted for 100 Japanese laborers, in operation by the National Tehantepec Railroad. It is developing a new oil field on the Isthmus of Tehantepec. Two good production wells have been struck by the locomotives on the National Tehantepec road are using that product for fuel. Other wells are to be bored, and the production entered into on a large scale.

EDWIN MOORE IS OUT ON BAIL

HE HAS RAPIDLY GAINED NOTORIETY. He First Attempts to Elope With a Professor's Wife at Cornell University—Shortly After He is Married His Wife Attempts Suicide by the Morphine Route.

Chicago, Sept. 12.—Edwin Moore, a wealthy young Californian, has been released from jail after three months' custody under suit for divorce and alimony brought by his wife, who was formerly Miss Dorothy Bowen, daughter of a Los Angeles divine. Moore's release was effected by J. C. Robinson, who came here from Los Angeles and deposited $10,000 with a trust company as a guarantee that any claims won by his wife would be paid.

Moore was arrested when he started to sail for Europe on June 17. Moore first gained notoriety when a student at Cornell, when it was found that he was starting from New York with a college professor's wife. He was expelled and the professor obtained a divorce. He married Miss Bowen in San Francisco had hardly begun when he brought a young woman into his wife's apartments. The bride was said to have attempted to use a knife and was later dragged, senseless from morphine, from a bath tub.

Moore is known over the entire Pacific Coast, where his extrava-gance has attracted much attention.

Hurricane Coming. Washington, Sept. 12.—The weather bureau today issued a hurricane warning to the coast of Florida. All vessels in the Gulf ports are warned not to venture out.
