Notice to Subscribers

We have ju t purchased a large number of copies of a book entitled, The American Farmers' Business Guide, which we will give FREE to our subscribers.

What the Book Is.

This book was prepared by an able lawyer who has had broad experience in farm matters, the object being to furnish the farmer appropriate and reliable forms for the transaction of all the ordinary matters of business connected with their occupation. It is no attempt to make every man his own lawyer, but simply to make men intelligent in their own affairs and enable them to enjoy the benefits of the very best information to be had in the transaction of every day affairs. Some of the first forms appearing in the book are:

Contract for Sale of Live Stock, Grain, etc." "Cultivation of Field for Share of Crop." "Agreement for Private Road." "Agreement for Line Fence."

'Agreement for Sale of Land."

Over one hundred forms are given in 19 chapters. under the following heads: Arguments, Assignments, Affidavits, Arbitration, Bill of Sale, Bonds, Bank Checks, Drafts, Guar antees, In forsements, Leases, Orders, Optional Agreements, Promissory Notes, Powers of Attorney, Receipts, Wills, and so forms for business letters.

These forms and letters have stood the test of the courts and have received the sanction of business men.

Every Farmer needs it for his own information and for the education of his sons.

The price of this book is $1.00.

It is well printed, in large, clear type, on good paper, and is substantially bound.

Our Offer

This work of 100 pages will be GIVEN FREE with the Weekly or Semi-Weekly East Oregonian to all subscribers who send in the money to renew their subscriptions on or before Nov. 15th. It will also be given free to every new subscriber.

We still have a few hundred sets of the beautiful Tonnesen art photos. To every new subscriber who subscribes for the Weekly East Oregonian at $1.50 per year or for the Semiweekly at $2.00 per year we will send post paid a set of 12 of these artistic pictures.
