

PORTAGE BILL AND PROBLEMS

SENATORS SMITH AND PIERCE GO ON RECORD.

Former Favors Government Canal and No Repeat Unless It Can Be Assured, and Also Necessary Amendments to the Tax Law Immediately—Senator Pierce Non-committal, But Favors Early Adjournment.

The proposed repeal of the Portage road bill, introduced by Senator Chas. Johnson, of Wasco county, is the cause of a great deal of agitation throughout the state just at this time. It seems that in Portland there is strong pressure being brought in the interest of the repeal and in a great many cases the members of the legislature are ready to unite for the repeal; but in other parts of the state the sentiment is otherwise.

The carrying out of the provisions of the bill means a great deal for Eastern Oregon, and the opinions of the representatives from this county are of interest. Those who are in the city have given the following statement to the press in regard to the matter:

Favors Government Canal.

Senator C. J. Smith, in speaking of the question, stated that he had not had time to give the matter sufficient thought to go on record with a definite statement as to his possible action in case the question should arise in the special session. But there was a thought that came to him in thinking of it, and that was that if the portage bill repeal was to be used as an entry wedge for the introduction of outside legislation, he was opposed to its consideration at all. He was in favor of the tax law being put to rights as soon as possible so that the legislature could adjourn and have the session at an end.

"But if the portage bill has served its purpose," explained the senator, "and is of no further use to the state, it should be repealed, provided the federal government will take hold of the matter and build the canal. Eastern Oregon should be the last to favor the repeal of the bill, for its interests are at stake. The road means much to this part of the state, and after the effort that the Eastern Oregon delegation made to force the passage of the bill it should not be thrown aside until it is shown, and plainly shown, that its time of usefulness has passed and that the government will at once take hold of the construction of another canal.

"The government was forced into the construction of the Cascade locks, and the present bill was intended as an incentive to the government. If this purpose has been accomplished, then repeal the law; but if not, leave it alone, for the road will pay for itself in two years, and the good of Eastern Oregon demands the water route to the market."

Favors Early Adjournment.

Senator Walter M. Pierce was seen on the matter and his adjournment of the portage road, at least for the present. "You may say," said the senator earnestly, "that I am pledged to the governor to vote for an early adjournment. As soon as the tax law is out of the way and that defect remedied so that the taxes can be levied as usual, I stand pledged to vote for an adjournment.

"But suppose," he was asked, "that the majority of the legislature are not so pledged, suppose they take up the portage matter and the defect in the new execution law for the benefit of the Armstrong case, then what will be your policy in regards to the portage case?"

"When we come to the bridge we will cross it," said the legislator guardedly. "Just tell the people that Senator Pierce said that he was pledged to vote for an early adjournment, and that he had no ideas on the portage road or any other subject until the time came when they should be taken up, if that taking up should come."

TURKEY DRAWINGS.

Result of Guessing Contest a Matter of Considerable Interest.

The chief topic of interest in the downtown district this afternoon is the turkey drawing at T. C. Taylor's hardware store and at Schmidt's drug store.

At the former place the weight of the turkey was 13 pounds and 10 ounces. There were two numbers who guessed 13 pounds and eight ounces, but up to this time no one has called with the numbers. The lucky tickets were No. 47 and 248. It was decided by Mr. Taylor that both numbers would be given a turkey.

There were three numbers which came second, and were therefore entitled to a chance at the turkey store. These were No. 6, No. 234 and No. 123, which was held by Carl Stewart. The first two numbers have not as yet been claimed.

The chopper was won by No. 31, held by G. I. LaDow. At the drug store, where the monster turkey was kept, the guesses were somewhat wild, ranging all the way from 12 to 22 pounds. The weight of the turkey was 25 pounds and six ounces. The correct guesses were made by Lee Moorhouse and Mark Patton, who both guessed the correct weight of the bird. To settle the tie a coin was flipped and the lucky side fell to Mr. Moorhouse, who triumphantly bore the turkey home.

There were over 450 guesses at the hardware store, and 1,132 at the drug store.

WATER APPROPRIATION.

Supply Will Be Ditched From Umatilla to Castle Rock.

The water will be conveyed by a canal parallel with the Columbia river until it reaches the vicinity of Castle Rock, and will be used for irrigating the north side of the canal.

Accompanying the papers was a map over seven feet in length, which was copied by Mr. Hendley, of the recorder's office, into the record book of the office.

It's shameful when youth fails to show proper respect for old age, but just the contrary in the case of King's New Life Pills. They cut off maladies no matter how severe and irrespective of old age. Dyspepsia, indigestion, Fever, Constipation, all yield to this perfect Pill. 25c at Tallman & Co's.

PROTRACTED ILLNESS.

Not Worse Than the Average of Such Cases. According to the Physicians.

O. F. Thompson returned to his home at Echo this afternoon, after some days spent in the city at the bedside of his daughter who is at the hospital seriously ill with typhoid fever. Mrs. Thompson, who has also been in the city, will remain near her daughter until all danger is passed.

The time of the change in the disease has not yet come, but it is the opinion of the physicians in charge that the young lady is not in greater danger than is usually the case in typhoid.

Wanted.

We would like to ask, through the columns of your paper, if there is any person who has used Green's August Flower for the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and liver troubles that has not been cured—and we also mean their results, such as our stomach, fermentation of food, habitual constiveness, nervous dyspepsia, headaches, dependent feelings, sleeplessness—in fact, any trouble connected with the stomach or liver? This medicine has been sold for many years in all civilized countries, and we wish to correspond with you and send you one of our books free of cost. If you never tried August Flower, try a 25 cent bottle first. We have never known of its failing. If so, something more serious is the matter with you. The 25 cent size has just been introduced this year. Regular size, 75 cents. Tallman & Co.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured.

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Deafness is caused by the inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a running, itching, burning, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, deafness will be permanent. Deafness is cured by the use of the Mucous Lining of the Eustachian Tube. This is the only way to cure deafness. It is a simple, safe, and effective remedy. It is sold by druggists, 75c. Hall's Family Pills are the best.

CITY AFFAIRS OF IMPORTANCE

WILL NOT REDUCE EITHER STREET OR POLICE FORCE.

Street Account Expensive, But Necessary—Possibility of Electric Circuit Next Year for Both Night and Day Service, and for Reduction in Price of Arc Lights—Crushed Rock and Drainage.

At the council meeting last evening there was but little of importance outside of the salary list that came up for discussion. A liquor license was issued to E. J. Bacon, the proprietor of the Last Chance, on Main street. The salary list was submitted and allowed.

A great deal of discussion was indulged in on the condition of the streets and the advisability of cutting down the expense of the city government for the remainder of the year. A motion was made that the street commissioner do night police duty in addition to his regular duties as street commissioner, but after a lengthy discussion the motion was lost. It has been the custom for several years to cut out all of the expense possible in the winter months and the street commissioner is generally the one who gets the axe. However, it was the opinion of the majority of the council that it would not be advisable either to decrease the police force or to do away with the position of street commissioner.

The condition of the streets at this time was discussed, but no action was taken, though it was thought that a coat of crushed rock and some provision for drainage would go a long way toward the betterment of the streets. Expensive Street Account. The street account has been a pretty expensive one this year, though not more so than was necessary for the good of the city. The net expenditures of the street department for the year have been $7,916.24. Of this amount $3,000 has been the sprinkling account, and the rest has been for general improvements. The expense has been offset by the sum of $864.43 received through the street commissioner for work done in the city, and charged to the property owners.

Possibility of Cheaper Lights.

Dr. F. W. Vincent was present at the meeting of the council, and as representative of the Northwestern Gas and Electric Company, and wished some action taken in regard to the renewal of the lighting contract of the city. He stated that if the company put in the plant they intended to, they would, inside of a year, give the city a day and night circuit, both for lighting and power, and that as far as the city was concerned they would be able to give the municipality one-third more lights at the same price as the number now used. The matter was referred to the committee on streets, who will confer with Mr. Vincent and arrange for a new contract, which will be submitted to the council for its approval in the near future. The council then adjourned.

BERT RHODES RECOVERING.

Shot Through the Head from Behind and Lives to Tell Tale. Bert, or "Dusty" Rhodes, well known in this city and La Grande, where he has worked for the past three or four years, who was shot through the head in a fight with a man about a week ago, is recovering, and the doctors pronounce his case the most remarkable on record in that city.

Rhodes was shot through the head, from behind, the ball entering in the neck, at the base of the skull, passing through the head, and coming out in the forehead. The man who did the shooting stepped up behind Rhodes, while he was looking over his neck over the cash register, and fired, the ball taking the condition of Rhodes' neck at the time that saved him from instant death. Rhodes has left the hospital and is on the road to recovery, unless complications set in to hinder.

A. Kunkel, who has been in Alberta, Canada, for the past month, is expected to return to his home in this city the last of this week, or the first of next. Mr. Kunkel went to Alberta to look over the country to investigate the inducements offered there to settlers by the government. He writes that it is now 25 degrees below zero, and too cold to be outside much. However, the cattle in that country are wintered in the open, and are fed nothing more than the grass that stands above the snow, which latter is from one to two feet deep.

LUMBER IN THE ORIENT.

Oregon Miller Excels Anything in China. Consul Miller of Niuchwang, China, in a report to the department of commerce and labor on the commercial conditions in Niuchwang and Manchuria, as far as lumber is concerned, says: "Most of the timber and lumber coming into Manchuria is for the Russian government. As this comes in free of duty, it does not appear in the customs returns. Considerably has come to Duluy, Port Arthur, and Niuchwang, from America during the first half of the year, but the competition from Siberia and the Yalu is likely to drive out most of the American lumber.

That from Siberia and the Yalu is fairly good for general building purposes, but what I have two weeks, not the equal of Oregon pine, especially for bridge timbers."

Grant County Sheep in the East.

Henry Gregg, who returned recently from Minneapolis where about 4,800 of Grant county sheep are being fed by Lacey and Oliver, says that the stock is taking on fat rapidly. Feed is expensive, hay selling at $7 and screen wheat at $12 per ton. The price of oat grade of sheep is ordinarily from $5 to $5.50 per 100, on foot. The stock is composed almost entirely of lambs, which average 70 pounds when unloaded from the cars. By the time they are ready to market they will weigh about 100 pounds, thus bringing from $5 to $5.50 per head. The stock is being looked after by George Oliver and Frank Lacey.

Hay Selling at $10.

Perhaps there has never been as serious a situation in the hay question as that is before the stockmen of Eastern Oregon. The Haines Mercantile Company who are authority on hay having purchased 3,000 tons, and have inquired daily for hay and the feeders have already paid as high as $10 per ton in the stack for common wild hay. The people of this valley have been specially favored with good crops and it is hoped they may have enough to ride up with their less fortunate brethren.—Haines Record.

STUDYING OREGON GEOLOGICAL SURVEY IN PORTION OF STATE.

Bulletins on Artesian Water and Petroleum Supply of Southeastern Counties—Bulletin Ready for Distribution. During the summer of 1902 Professor Israel C. Russell, with two assistants, who were students of the University of Michigan, made a rapid reconnaissance through portions of Southwestern Idaho and Southeastern Oregon. His purpose was to ascertain in what localities, if any, the geological conditions were favorable for obtaining flowing water by drilling wells. A preliminary report on the artesian basins discovered was published by the United States geological survey in water supply and irrigation paper No. 18.

A bulletin has since been prepared on the general geology of the region traversed. It will be of particular interest to the people of Idaho and Oregon. In certain instances it also serves to supplement the report on artesian conditions. This bulletin, which is No. 217, is entitled, "Notes on the geology of Southwestern Idaho and Southeastern Oregon." It is now ready for distribution and may be obtained by application to the director of the United States geological survey, Washington, D. C.

The route followed by Professor Russell's party was planned so as to traverse as many as possible of the valleys of Southwestern Idaho and Southeastern Oregon, where rich agricultural land is plentiful and where artesian conditions are most likely to be present.

Portions of Canyon and Owyhee counties, Idaho, and of Malheur and arroyo counties, Oregon, were examined, but nothing like an exhaustive geological survey of the region was attempted. The discovery of water supplies was the main end of the reconnaissance, and the study of geological conditions was merely an incident.

Pressed as he was for time, however, Professor Russell was nevertheless able to make some extremely interesting observations regarding the geology of the district visited. The most interesting feature of the report refers to his study of the volcanic phenomena. A chapter on petroleum, which closes the bulletin, is also of great interest.

Search for petroleum has been carried on in the valley of Snake river in Southwestern Idaho and adjacent portions of Oregon, but these attempts have proved failures so far as the discovery of the material sought is concerned.
