When Oregon Was an infant.

In looking over a collection of family papers in possession of the editor of the Guard, he finds a bill made out at Oregon City, November 8, 1850, a little over half a century ago. One litem reads, "To 5 barrels of flour, $80." People now would think $4 for a $50-pound sack of flour pretty steep. Probably they did then, too.—Eugene Guard.

Suffered Eight Months

I can heartily recommend Acker's Tablets for Dyspepsia and Stomach Troubles. I have been suffering for eight to find any that since Feb. 1, 1901; that he left months and tried many remadies without any relief, until I got Acker's Dyspepsia Tablets, which I seeing delivered today by Mr. Fulton, representing the publishers, R.
