Stock in Good Condition, The mild winter which so far has been experienced in Crook county has caused general rejoicing among the ranks of the stockmen. Little feeding has been done, and as a result prospects are bright for good markets in the spring. Not only in Crook county, but generally through out the interior portions of the state are reports coming that the stock interests are gaining daily by the prevailing fine weather.-Crook County Journal. CUTTER'S BLACK LEG VACCINE struck a telegraph pole which had
