The most pronounced development in the local market at this time is a demand for horseradish, which the dealers are not yet able to supply, but this city for five nights will be rehope to be able to in a few days. It will come from Portland, which is said to produce the finest horseradish ever raised in the Northwest, because, as one grocer said, "They know how. that is all there is about it. It might just as well be raised here."
