

Unswayed by fear, unflinching by favor, the East Oregonian will tell the truth, the whole truth, about county, state and national affairs. It is fair, absolutely fair, to those who differ from its views, as well as to its friends.

The East Oregonian of Pendleton, Oregon, is published in the heart of the wonderful inland Empire. You will find that it is readable, reliable and progressive, and will give you the news reliably, accurately and fully.

RUSSIANS ORDER WOMEN AND CHILDREN FROM PORT ARTHUR

Stoessel Says Food and Water Supply Must Be Saved for the Defending Garrison.

Japanese Attack on Rich Hill Was Repulsed by the Russians—Stoessel Issues a Thanksgiving Proclamation for the Scant Victory—Food Is Scarce and Water Supply Will Not Last Long—Explosion of Ground Mines Under Japanese Attacking Forces Caused Terrible Loss—Japanese Are Still Concentrating Around Mukden.

Port Arthur Not Suffering.—St. Petersburg, Oct. 3.—News from Port Arthur states that forage is scarce but ammunition is plentiful. Clothing is lacking, but store cloth is being made into garments by the women. The sanitary conditions are good, from a Russian point of view. There are now 29 trained nurses for every 1000 sick and wounded. There are but 100 women and children not belonging to the military forces, now in town. As the effluvia from the dead left on the field had been blowing into the town, the Russians ordered the Chinese to collect the bodies and throw them into the sea.

Stoessel's Thanksgiving.—Tokyo, Oct. 3.—The Russians estimate the total Japanese losses in three days fighting at Port Arthur from September 19 to 22, at 29,000 men. An official report from Stoessel says the fighting was of an extremely severe character. After the retirement of the Japanese, Stoessel issued the following proclamation: "Gloria, thanks to God! Glory to our nation! Glory to the Russian arms! Paganry, heroes all. Thanks to our valiant volunteers, who routed the enemy from the trenches, destroying them. God has permitted us to recapture the enemy's forts. To the Japanese driven from trenches. Stoessel's report of the fight referred to was the attack on High Hill, which had been captured by the Japanese. Stoessel called for volunteers when soldiers and officers carrying hand grenades, attacked the Japanese temporary fortifications, and drove the enemy from all his positions. Several mines were exploded during the battle, causing severe loss.

Japs Use Repaired Railway.—Rome, Oct. 3.—A message from Liao ang says trains are now running direct to Field Marshall Oyama's headquarters, maintaining his troops and facilitating the forwarding of supplies. By next week the Japanese army at Tenta will have reached a full complement.

Russians Repulsed by Kuroki.—St. Petersburg, Oct. 3.—General Mischenko's cavalry with 22 guns, on October 2 attacked Kuroki's left flank and after severe fighting the Russians retired. Their casualties were heavy.

PAYNE IS VERY LOW.—Dr. Magruder Says He May Possibly Full Through.

Doctor Hopes for a Slight Hope.—The president called at his apartments at 10 and upon leaving announced to the newspaper men that his condition is considerably improved. Dr. Magruder said he expected to be discharged in about 24 hours.

Peace Congress in Session.—Boston, Oct. 3.—The International Peace Congress began its sessions at Tremont Temple this afternoon. Six hundred delegates, representing nine foreign countries and nearly every state in the union, are present. A feature of today's session was the address of Secretary of State John Hay. The meeting will continue throughout the week.

Dowling Loses $55,000.—Chicago, Oct. 3.—Judge Tuttle today decided that John Alexander Dowling must give up $55,000 bequeathed to him by Frederick Sutton, while he was in Zion hospital where he died in 1902. The judge held that Sutton was of sound mind when he made the will.

Pullman Shops Open.—Chicago, Oct. 3.—The Pullman car works opened today this morning and about 1000 employees after several weeks' shut-down. The men applied individually, as there is no recognition of a strike. Five thousand will be taken back gradually. It is believed to be the end of the unions' sway in the shops.

Major Alvord Drops Dead.—St. Louis, Oct. 3.—Major Henry E. Alvord, chief of the dairy division of the United States department of agriculture, dropped dead at the World's Fair Saturday evening from an attack of apoplexy. He was attending the international pure food congress.

Bandits Would Destroy Bridges.—San Bernardino, Oct. 3.—There is no hope to the bandits dynamiting the Santa Fe bridge Saturday night. Officials are satisfied it is a determined plan to destroy the railroad property.

ONE THOUSAND INDIANS DRUNK

San Juan Island Experiences a Reign of Terror and Calls for Help.

REVENUE CUTTER GRANT EXPECTED TO INTERFERE.—Request is Made That the Indians Be Forced Back Across the Canadian Border, Where They Belong—Many Whites Are Fleeing From Their Homes in Anticipation of Serious Trouble—Indians Said to Be Subjects of Great Britain.

Buffalo Altruists Took Brink.—Buffalo, Oct. 3.—Attorney Holman, for the Wood & Brooks Piano Keyboard Company, testified before a special committee that in 1902 he paid Altruist Moore $250 to be divided among the members of the Altruistic sewer committee for the passage of a special sewer ordinance.

SARGENT HELPS THE WEST.—Commissioner of Immigration Will Recommend Information Bureaus at Ports of Entry.

SENATOR HOAR'S FUNERAL.—Eulogy Pronounced by Rev. Edward Everett Hale.

Floods Stop Trains.—El Paso, Oct. 3.—High water on the Rio Grande and its tributaries has washed out bridges and tracks on the Santa Fe until all trains are delayed.

PORTLAND MAN KILLS A RIVAL

MURDERER WAS A JEALOUS INVENTOR.

His Victim Had Invented an Umbrella Rack Similar to One on Which Grillon Had Spent Many Years of His Life and Much Money—Feeling That His Rival Had Stolen the Fruits of His Genius, Grillon Became Infuriated and Rushed into the Victim's Store Inflicting Fatal Injuries, Afterward Killing Himself.

Warship Off Shanghai.—Shanghai, Oct. 3.—A Russian warship, supposed to be the Bayan, is reported anchored off Gutzwiller Island. Hanchow Bay. The ship has come to bring her to Shanghai.

OREGON LIQUOR MAKERS.—Twenty-seven manufacturers of malt drinks in the state.

Red Bluff, Cal., Oct. 3.—Senator Fairbanks rode into California in a car filled with flowers, presented to the candidate during his stay in Oregon Sunday afternoon. He spoke here on republican policies to a big crowd and was spirited away.

English Train Wrecked.—London, Oct. 3.—Fifty-six were injured in a train wreck this morning near London. It was the through express from London to Llanglydwy, Wales, and was making high speed. There were no deaths.

DEATH RELIEVES SENATOR HOAR

The Great Statesman Passes Peacefully Away After Several Months of Suffering.

Was Greatly Weakened by Illness and the End Came Without a Struggle—George F. Hoar Was 78 Years of Age and Had Been in Public Life for 52 Years—Was First Elected to Massachusetts Legislature in 1852—Served Four Terms in Congress and Was in the United States Senate Continuously From 1877.

Worcester, Mass., Sept. 30.—So peacefully, so calmly, so stealthily did the spirit of Senator George F. Hoar pass into the beyond this morning at 1:25, that had not the watchers been patiently listening to the fluttering heart throbs it would have been difficult to say when life ended and death came.

Funeral on Monday.—Worcester, Mass., Sept. 30.—The funeral services for Senator George F. Hoar, who died quietly at 1:25 this morning, will be held in the Church of the Unity in this city on Monday at 2:30.

Biographical.—Senator George Frisbie Hoar was born in Concord, Mass., on August 29, 1826, and was 78 years old last night. His father was a member of the Massachusetts legislature and George F. was educated at Concord academy and at Harvard, from which latter place he graduated in 1844.

DEPUTY CHRISTIE RUSHING WORK ON CONDON ROAD.

IS NO LONGER STATE LIVESTOCK INSPECTOR.

MURDERER CAPTURED.—Walla Walla, Sept. 30.—Joseph Pasquale, the Italian who murdered his countryman, Dominik De Valer, at this place last Friday night, was captured by Sheriff Painter, of this county, and the sheriff of Columbia county, Washington, through the efforts of the Blue Mountain, last evening, after an exciting chase.

DRIVE SHEEP ACROSS.—Four Thousand Head Brought to Pendleton for Shipment.

SALEM GIRL SUICIDES.—Mildred Bryant Talbot Strydom's Case She Is Too Young to Wed.

CHARGES DISCRIMINATION.—Washington, Oct. 3.—The American Federation of Labor has filed a formal protest with the Interstate commerce commission against the transportation Passenger Association and other associations, charging them with discrimination against the federation in the refusal to make a reduction in fare to the national meeting of the federation in San Francisco, scheduled for November 14.

Rockwell Hoar for Congress.—Worcester, Mass., Oct. 3.—The third congressional republican convention this morning nominated Rockwell Hoar for congress.

Rug Factory Burned.—Cragden, N. J., Oct. 3.—The Irish linen rug factory was destroyed by fire today. Loss, $400,000.

UMATILLA AGENT HAS BEEN NAMED

John J. McKoin, Now of the Siletz Reservation, Comes to Umatilla Indians.

APPOINTMENT IS A BLOW TO ROBINSON FRIENDS.—Present Chief Clerk at the Agency is Said to Have Been Stated for the Position and His Failure to Secure Appointment is One of the Myriads of Policies—McKoin is a Veteran of the Indian Service, Having Come From Fort Mojave, Arizona, to the Siletz Agency.

CHINESE WOMAN KILLED.—Merchant's Wife at Marysville, Cal., Drugged by Abductors.

FRANCES PARKHURST DROWNED HERSELF IN LAKE MICHIGAN.—Chicago, Sept. 30.—Frances Parkhurst, aged 15, who was missing last night from Frye Hall, at Lake Forest University, and for whom hundreds of students and citizens and soldiers searched all night, is dead.

POSTMASTER GENERAL ILL.—Condition of General Payne is Critical and Today is Very Serious.

TWO FATALLY INJURED.—Cleveland, Sept. 30.—An explosion of natural gas wrecked the plant of the East Ohio Gas Company, early this morning and two workmen are presumably fatally injured.

DEPUTY CHRISTIE RUSHING WORK ON CONDON ROAD.—IS NO LONGER STATE LIVESTOCK INSPECTOR.

MURDERER CAPTURED.—Walla Walla, Sept. 30.—Joseph Pasquale, the Italian who murdered his countryman, Dominik De Valer, at this place last Friday night, was captured by Sheriff Painter, of this county, and the sheriff of Columbia county, Washington, through the efforts of the Blue Mountain, last evening, after an exciting chase.

DRIVE SHEEP ACROSS.—Four Thousand Head Brought to Pendleton for Shipment.

SALEM GIRL SUICIDES.—Mildred Bryant Talbot Strydom's Case She Is Too Young to Wed.

CHARGES DISCRIMINATION.—Washington, Oct. 3.—The American Federation of Labor has filed a formal protest with the Interstate commerce commission against the transportation Passenger Association and other associations, charging them with discrimination against the federation in the refusal to make a reduction in fare to the national meeting of the federation in San Francisco, scheduled for November 14.

Rockwell Hoar for Congress.—Worcester, Mass., Oct. 3.—The third congressional republican convention this morning nominated Rockwell Hoar for congress.

Rug Factory Burned.—Cragden, N. J., Oct. 3.—The Irish linen rug factory was destroyed by fire today. Loss, $400,000.