INTERIOR NOTES.

New Bank at Prairie City—Winter in Grant County.

Winter seems to have struck this part of the county for good, as the thermometer has reached close to the zero point.

Stockmen in the upper Middle Fork country are not very well supplied with hay, as the June frost greatly damaged the summer crop. The Austin ranch produced 50 tons this season to 150 tons last season. Hay is selling at $29 per ton.

The semi-annual convention of the Degree of honor lodge for Grant county will be held in this city next Friday, commencing at 10 o'clock and continuing through the day. The convention will be presided over by Mrs. Margaret E. Herrin of Portland.

Conductor A. P. Nash is critically ill at his home on Jackson street. He has been indisposed for several weeks but in the last few days his illness has become serious. Extra Conductor Fred Waffle, of La Grande, is on his run.

Dr. P. A. Charlton, veterinarian, who formerly resided in Pendleton, but who is now located in La Grande, was in the city Saturday evening visiting old friends. He is well pleased with his new location and is prospering nicely.

Mrs. M. Behrenz arrived Saturday night from Portland and will visit with her husband until after the holidays. Mrs. Behrenz is a well known soprano of the metropolis, and her stay in this city will be greatly enjoyed by Pendleton people. Mr. Behrenz is vice admiral for the International Freight Association and is one of the most popular railroad employes in the city.

Frank H. Blair, of Weston, was in Pendleton Sunday.

Miss Alta Sharp, of Athena, spent Sunday in Pendleton.

H. B. Kershaw, of Walla Walla, was in Pendleton Saturday.

Master Charles Johnson, of Baker City, spent Saturday here the guest of Mrs. John Vert.

A marriage license has been issued to Edward L. Howland and Lulu Wimpill, both of Umatilla county.

Mrs. A. C. Courtney, of Adams, departed last night for a visit with relatives and friends in East Burnside, Ky.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ennis, of Walla Walla, were in Pendleton Sunday on their way home from St. Louis.

George H. Foster of Baker City, came down Saturday evening to attend the funeral of his brother-in-law J. H. Standage of Milton, which took place Sunday.

L. B. Reeder, formerly one of the leading attorneys of this city, now located in Portland, is in the city today, greeting his host of friends. He is well pleased with his new home.

Mrs. M. Noble, accompanied by her daughter, Maggie, is in the city a few days on their return from Portland to their home in La Grande. They are old friends of Rev. and Mrs. W. L. Van Nuss.

Attorney T. G. Green, of Baker City, was in Pendleton Saturday on business before the supreme court. Mr. Green was counsel for the defense in the celebrated Pleas Armstrong murder case.

E. L. Eckley, editor and proprietor of the La Grande Chronicle, is in the city on business connected with his paper. He says the past season has been a very prosperous one for all classes of people in Grand Ronde valley.

FATAL SHOOTING STIRS HEPNER

DEE MATLOCK UNDER ARREST—REST PENDING INQUEST.

Trouble Said to Have Started on the Street and Culminated in the Recorder's Office During a Trial—All Parties Well Known in Pendleton—Natter Formerly Lived in Pendleton—Matlock is a Son of Cass Matlock—Heppner Shocked by the Matter—District Attorney and Corner Are Investigating.

(Special to the East Oregonian.) Heppner, Or., Nov. 14.—Frank Natter is dead with a bullet through his brain, Policeman Cresswell is seriously injured, and Dee Matlock is under arrest as the result of a shooting affair that occurred in the recorder's court Saturday evening.

Natter died at the hospital, struck by a bullet fired at the hand of the policeman. It is said, and the latter received his wounds from the gun of Matlock. The exact cause of the shooting is a question which the coroner's jury and the district attorney are endeavoring to solve.

It is alleged that Natter had trouble with Cresswell Saturday that led to his arrest. During the examination of the recorder's court the shooting took place. Just who fired the first shot is where the testimony conflicts. It is alleged that Matlock fired at the officer, striking him twice in the region of the throat.

Cresswell returned the fire and Natter fell dead with three bullets in him. Two of the wounds are in his head and the third through the body. It is reported this afternoon that Cresswell's chances for recovery are good.

Former State Circuit Judge J. J. Halleray and Colonel James H. Halley, of Pendleton, have been retained by Matlock and are here today attending the inquest over the body of Natter.

Frank Natter was the only son of John Natter, and was about 25 years of age. He was married three months ago to Miss Stella Rhea, daughter of C. A. Rhea, of Heppner.

Natter ran the saloon connected with the brewery. He was popular in Heppner for genial qualities, and also for the skill he attained in athletics. During the years when bicycle racing was the vogue, Natter was one of the fastest riders in the Northwest, and in later years he was known as one of the best football players of the region.

Natter was born in Pendleton, where his father lived before going to Heppner, the elder Natter operating a brewery here.

Dee Matlock, who is under arrest for shooting Cresswell, is a son of Cass Matlock and a nephew of Mayor W. F. Matlock of this city. He has been reared in Morrow and Umatilla counties and is a well known young man.

The community is shocked by the affair and little will be given out until after the investigation by the coroner and district attorney.

PETER CHRISTOPHER DEAD.

Old Settler Passed Away From His Farm Near Adams.

Peter Christopher, aged 83 years, died Sunday at 10 p. m. on his farm, 12 miles northeast of Pendleton and five and a half miles west of Adams, from an obscure liver disease. There were present at the death his children as follows: His sons, J. H., of Pullman, Wash., and I. A., of Adams; his daughters, Mrs. Amelia Davis, who lives four miles north of Pendleton; Mrs. Amanda Larson, of Pullman, Wash., and Miss Johanna, whose home has been with her father. Another daughter, Mrs. Eva Johnson, of Seattle, could not be present.

Mr. Christopher was a native of Finland, but was raised in Norway and was married there. With his wife he came to Michigan in 1845, and from there to Umatilla county in 1877. Mr. and Mrs. Christopher completed from 1877 upon their Adams farm until Mrs. Christopher's death, a year ago, and Mr. Christopher made his home there, with his youngest daughter, until his death.

Mr. Christopher was a Lutheran, and the funeral will be under the auspices of that church at the home, Wednesday next, and the interment will be in the cemetery west of Adams.

GROCERIES AND CROCKERY We could talk about this department an hour and when we got through you would not know much about it because you hadn't seen the goods. So come and talk to the GROCERY man, get his prices, taste his goods and then remember this: on each dollar that you buy you'll save something sure—the more you buy the more you'll save. Just a small trial order that's the way many begin, but end by their buying everything of us that we keep. We've been here a long time, expect to stay here always and then you know making money is not EVERYTHING, we want the good will of every man and woman in this county and some others.
