

Unswayed by fear, unflinching by favor, the East Oregonian will tell the truth, the whole truth, about county, state and national affairs. It is fair, absolutely fair, to those who differ from its views, as well as to its friends.

United States Marshal Henkel today received a subpoena from the United States district attorney's office at Cleveland, which he was directed to serve at once on Andrew Carnegie, who is wanted to testify before the grand jury at Cleveland in the case against Beckwith, Spear and others involved in the Chadwick case. The deputy hurried out in search of Carnegie.

Mrs. Chadwick slept well last night and arose at 7 feeling quite chipper and happy. After a light breakfast she was handed a telegram from Paris, presumably from her husband, Dr. Chadwick. She then devoted her attention to this morning's papers.

May Waive Examination.

Attorney Ryall, who represents Banker Newton, called at the Tombs at 10:30 in company with Philip Carpenter, counsel for Mrs. Chadwick, and held a conference with the prisoner. It is learned this morning that Mrs. Chadwick still favors waiving examination and returning to Cleveland for trial.

Creamer was convicted of a most brutal murder in Seattle, in 1898. One night he called at the home of John Meiler. The two men were friends and Creamer frequently called at the house. On this particular night Meiler was not at home and after being in the house a short time Creamer asked Mrs. Meiler for a glass of water.

She started to get him a drink when he struck her on the head with a hammer, crushing her skull. Then Creamer took Meiler's 15-month-old child and dashed its brains out. After placing the bodies of the woman and child beside each other he piled furniture over them. Then he poured kerosene oil over the pile and set it on fire. PORTAGE BOARD EXTENDS TIME

SEVEN DAYS OF GRACE.

Governor Chamberlain Says One More Effort Can Be Made to Raise the Funds Needed to Complete the Portage—Dr. Blalock Making Every Effort to Raise the Shortage—Walla Walla Ready to Pledge $5000.

A telegram from Governor Chamberlain, of Oregon, to Dr. N. G. Blalock, yesterday, informed the latter that an extension of time from five to seven days would be allowed the association in which to have the necessary funds subscribed towards building a portage railroad from The Dalles to Celilo, says the Walla Walla.

"We shall do whatever we can within that time," said Dr. Blalock yesterday, "to have the necessary amount subscribed and in the hands. I was told by Governor Chamberlain that if necessary 10 days might be allowed in which to raise $40,000 required."

"We can at any time guarantee the $5000 asked from this county. But we shall endeavor to have all the funds subscribed and in the hands, so that we may go to the Oregon state board and tell them we have the money in a place where there is no doubt about its availability as soon as the railroad is completed. They will not be able to point to the example of Walla Walla, Seattle or elsewhere then."

Money Will Be Safe.

"The money subscribed and placed in the bank is perfectly safe. It is as it were, placed in escrow until the plan is completed. The contract between the Open River association and the state board, and that with the contracting company each has the special proviso that the money subscribed will not be paid over until the portage railroad is completed."

If the plan fails, through, and the money is subscribed for execution, the money will revert to the subscriber, and the record of the subscribers and of the plans subscribed will be retained. Thus the subscriber is perfectly protected, no matter what happens to the road."

FAKIRS GALORE.

Twenty-five Hundred Are Headed for Portland.

Portland, Dec. 12.—A wild, weird story regarding street fakirs comes to Portland from St. Louis. During the World's Fair St. Louis was overrun with the fakirs. He hovered about the street corners in herds, the avenues were lined with him, he drifted in from everywhere, and a catalogue of the wares he sold would fill a large book.

Now they are preparing to come to Portland. The Lewis and Clark fair promises to make this city the street fakirs' Mecca during the next 10 months. The vanguard has already arrived. They have written to friends and loved ones left behind that Portland has an easy chief of police, and they urge the stay-at-homes to bestir themselves and move westward.

It is reported that a union of the fakirs has been formed at St. Louis, and that it is growing very rapidly. Already this organization is said to have a membership of 2500. The alliance is of the offensive and defensive kind.

Several of the officers of the union are now in the city "sizing up" the situation. They report to headquarters that things look very favorable in the land where rolls the Oregon. It is stated that the fakirs have almost completed a contract with one of the railroads running into this city for two special trains, which will be loaded to the guards with members of the Modern Street Fakirs' union.

More than nine hundred thousand shares were handled at this morning's session. The market is still feverish at noon.

It is also said the labor influence is used against the judge as he has sentenced several prominent labor leaders to jail for violating injunctions. Baker has gone to Washington to make an effort to have the order recalled.

Reasons for Removal.

Washington, Dec. 10.—Explaining the reasons for the removal of the department of justice states: "It is found that Bernalillo county, in which Albuquerque is situated, has political and official affairs in bad condition. Improper jury commissioners were appointed and selected jurors were tampered with. The Sunday law is not enforced against gambling and saloons. Baker is not doing what a judge should do to remedy evils."

Baker, however, is not deemed dishonest, or corrupt.

Lieutenant Under Charges.

Washington, Dec. 10.—Second Lieutenant Paul H. McDonald, of the 10th infantry, recently resigned, came to Washington to urge the acceptance of his resignation.

He has been placed under arrest on charges preferred by the regimental commander at Fort Lawton, Wash. The charges allege various irregularities in financial transactions, including the duplicating of pay accounts. McDonald had been sent to Fort Lawton, Ky., at $15,000,000 to conduct its municipal affairs in 1905.

There are in the neighborhood of 4,000,000 inhabitants in New York City at this moment, allowing liberally for the gain which has been made since the census of 1900, which gave the city a population of 2,437,000. No other people in the world pay anything like this sum, per capita, for the expenses of their government.

LOANED HIS WHOLE FORTUNE

Reynolds' Bank Also Wrecked by the Woman With "the Remarkable Eyes."

$5,750,000 FOUND TO BE WORTHLESS PAPER.

Physicians Claim Mrs. Chadwick Is in Perfect Health—Is Somewhat Perturbed When She Reads the Accounts of the Discovery of Her Double Dealing—She Will Not Return to Cleveland if Released on Bond, But There Is Little Likelihood of Securing Bondsmen.

New York, Dec. 10.—Mrs. Chadwick is still languishing in the Tombs this morning, but before the day is over her lawyer, Philip Carpenter, is expected to deposit $15,000 bail, which will give the woman her freedom.

After breakfast this morning she read in the morning paper accounts of the discovery that the $5,000,000 securities held by Banker Reynolds, the worthless. This was the first she knew this fact had been made public. After reading the papers she paced her cell.

Mrs. Chadwick has quite regained her remarkable nerve. Dr. Levin, the city physician, declared this morning that the woman is perfectly sound, physically. To the guard before her cell this morning she said, "Well, this is the last day of this torture, thank heaven."

It is practically certain Mrs. Chadwick will not go to Cleveland if she secures bail, and she is under orders from Commissioner Shields to appear before him a week from today.

It is learned today that two lawyers, one from Chicago and one from Philadelphia had an interview with the prisoner last night. In case she is released on bail secret service men will keep close watch on her movements.

$5,750,000 Worthless Securities.

Cleveland, Dec. 10.—The mysterious "securities" held in trust by Banker Reynolds for Mrs. Chadwick, which were announced as worthless yesterday, consists of the following note: For $5,000,000, signed by Andrew Carnegie and a certificate of trust, which states that Carnegie has in his possession stocks and bonds amounting to $5,000,000, held in trust for Mrs. Chadwick. This paper also bears the signature of J. Edgar Hoover, secretary of the department of justice. These papers represent the principal basis on which Mrs. Chadwick conducted her financial system.

The note for $5,000,000 is believed to have been written and signed by the same person who executed the notes for $5,000,000 and $250,000 held by the Oberlin bank. The note for $5,000,000 was executed in 1902.

All these securities were likely to be placed in evidence at the Cuyahoga county grand jury investigation here today. Banker Reynolds is said to have loaned Mrs. Chadwick his entire fortune.

At 11 Mr. Carpenter had not obtained the bail, and seemed to have lost confidence that the cash will be forthcoming.

Receiver for Securities.

Cleveland, Dec. 10.—H. W. Bell was this morning appointed receiver of the $5,750,000 securities held by Banker Reynolds.

RIGHT OF WAY SUITS.

Columbia River and Oregon Central Making Progress.

London, Dec. 9.—With settlement or dismissal of the right of way suits in the circuit court here, the right of way for the Columbia River and Oregon Central railway from Arlington to Congress has been completed. Two were settled and dismissed. The suit of G. J. E. Barnett will be tried in Sherman county, a change of venue having been granted. Permission was granted the company, however, to run through Barnett's place, damages to be settled later.

The Arlington right of way is still unsettled, but indications are that settlement will soon be made and the road completed without any further obstructions.

To Corner Salmon Output.

Portland, O., Dec. 10.—Owing to the well-defined report that John Cuddey, the Chicago packer, is endeavoring to secure entire control of the salmon industry in this section, keen interest is manifested in the sale today of the property of the defunct Pacific Packing and Navigation company. Should Cuddey be successful in securing the property, it is believed that he will also take over the property of the North American Fish-merchants, Ltd., and thus control the entire salmon trade of the Pacific coast.

EAGLE VALLEY ROAD.

Will Be Run Into the Cornucopia Mining District.

Baker City, Dec. 9.—W. L. Vinson and associates are pressing the preliminary work for the construction of the railroad from this city to Eagle Valley. A number of eastern capitalists are interested in this road. They are experienced railroad men, connected with the New York Central railroad. They have gone over the proposed route and are satisfied that the local traffic which the road will make it a paying investment, not counting the increase in business which will naturally follow by reason of the rapid development of the country with the completion of the road.

One of the most important factors connected with the building of this road will be opening to the world the famous Cornucopia mining district, which has lain dormant for the past 15 years for want of railroad transportation.

The promoters of this new road hope to be able to begin construction work within the next 10 days. A large portion of the grading can be cleared this winter, as it is through a section of country where cold weather will not be a hindrance to the work.

As a part of the estimates there is submitted as an appendix a letter from the Honolulu chamber of commerce addressed to the governor soliciting his assistance in the matter of making Honolulu a "clean port" as against tropical diseases and declaring that to this end Honolulu should be made disease proof.

There is also attached a letter from the Merchants' Association of Honolulu calling attention to a serious depression in the wholesale and retail business of Hawaii,
