POULTRY IS SCARCE
DEALERS MAY IMPORT FOR CHRISTMAS TRADE.
Fat Hogs Plentiful, as Well as Other Kinds of Local Meats—Produce and Fruits of the Season Ample, and the Quality Uniform.

The turkey market at Christmas bids fair to be very brisk owing to a scarcity of the fowls. At the present time there are none of the birds on the local market, and there are practically no offers being made. The demand for turkeys during Thanksgiving week it is feared, took most of the Umattilla supply, and local market men and growers may be obliged to import fowls for the coming holiday trade.

Still Hauling Wheat.
W. Wyrick, one of the best known wheat raisers, has a force of six teams with four horses in each, still hauling wheat. There is still 8000 bushels out at the Wyrick farm to be delivered at Echo warehouses.—Echo News.

Receipts of Recorder's Office.
The county recorder reports business of his office for the past quarter as follows: September, $27,25; October, $23, November, $330. November's receipts are the heaviest in many months.—Union Republican.

There are but very few desirable vacant lots left in the residence portion of Pendleton. These we have just listed and the prices are very reasonable. We have a new list of residences for sale. Come and see us, and look over our list.

HUB STORE ROBBED.
Took Overcoats and Suits and Cash—Were Discriminating, and Evidently Tried to Take Clothing That Would Be a Fit—Hole in a Door, Broke a Panel and Apparently Took Their Time to It—Coats Were All of One Size.

The Hub clothing store, at Johnson and Court streets, was entered late Saturday night and robbed of half a dozen suits, several overcoats and $3.50 in cash. The burglars evidently took their time in selecting the clothing, for several suits were on the floor where they were thrown after the robbers had tried them on. The store was entered through the rear door. With the aid of a huge auger a hole was bored through the lower panel of the door and the thin board was then broken out. The robbers left the auger lying on the floor. The door was bolted in three places, but these fastenings were unfastened.

"The coats taken," said W. Markille, the manager of the Hub, "were 18-inch size, measurement, indicating that the man who took them was more than medium build. I think I would be able to recognize the clothing if I saw it."

Catholic Affairs at The Dalles.
A letter from Bishop O'Reilly received this morning has somewhat changed the complexion of matters connected with St. Peter's Catholic church in this city. To Start a Monastery.
A monastery of the Benedictine Brotherhood of the Catholic church may soon be established in Central Idaho. Two Benedictine fathers from Conception, Mo., are expected in a few days for the purpose. The institution, which will be started on a small scale, will be under the direction of Bishop Glorieux and will be located in the town of Cottonwood.

Next Friday, December 16, James Connors will be swung off into eternity by Warden Ackley, to expiate the crime of killing Deputy Sheriff Sweet of Bingham county, at Blackfoot, so far. COLLINS-COLLINS
DIVORCED SIX WEEKS AGO AND NOW REMARRIED.
Unexpected and Happy Finale to a Chapter of Domestic Infelicity—For the Sake of the Children Harmony is Restored and a Household Reorganized—Judge Fitz Gerald Officially at the Second Marriage.

One look into the eyes of the man whom a month ago she called husband, one endearing word from his lips as in the happy long ago when she gave him her hand, and Belinda E. Collins forgot the heartaches and anguish that his acts had caused her. All was forgiven and Saturday night, when Justice of the Peace Thomas Fitz Gerald pronounced the words that reunited her with Henry J. Collins, Belinda blushed with happiness as she did on that first wedding day, many years ago.

Six weeks ago Mrs. Collins filed a suit for divorce in the state circuit court, alleging cruel and inhuman treatment on the part of her husband. A fortnight later State Circuit Judge W. R. Ellis issued the decree that freed her from the bonds that had proved so galling. Never again, said the freed woman, would she be tempted by the love of man.

But Henry J. sorrowed and was beseeched. His heart yearned for the love of her who was the mother of his children and for years had been his helpmeet and his refuge in the days of adversity.

"For our children's sake, Belinda," he pleaded. "Think of those happy days when we were both young and the love played at our feet." Belinda did think, her hand stole gently into his, and the county clerk recorded another chapter in the story of the Collinses.
