

THE PHILIPS, DANFORTH AND CORRETT MANIFESTO.

In order the better to consider the different bearings of this wonderful document...

Article first, section one: "We, the undersigned, do hereby appeal to your honorable body, and desire respectfully to enter our protest against an extension of suffrage to women."

Just here we pause to inquire who is Almira Phelps, the "shrinker" author of this unmanly protest?

Article 4th: "Because we hold that an extension of suffrage would be adverse to the interests of the working women, with whom we heartily sympathize."

Article 5th: "Because this change must introduce a fruitful element of discord in the existing marriage relation, which would tend to the infinite detriment of children, and increase the already alarming prevalence of divorce throughout the land."

Article sixth: "Because no general law affecting the condition of all parties should be passed to meet exceptional cases."

Article seventh: "For these and many more reasons do we beg of your wisdom, etc."

We remember the famous protest of certain mistaken but over-zealous colored men, who during the great rebellion, becoming alarmed at the prospect of a speedy release from bondage...

Article second, section one: "Although we shrink from the notoriety of the public eye, yet we are too deeply and painfully impressed by the great perils which threaten our peace, etc."

Section two: "Because Holy Scripture inculcates a different and far higher sphere, apart from public life."

Then, good ladies, advocates of this "different and higher sphere," we conjure you to be consistent...

opinion don't, we pray you, "shrink" into print, but talk to your husbands about it at home!

Article third: "Because, as women, we find a full measure of duties, cares and responsibilities devolving upon us, and we are therefore 'unwilling to bear other and heavier burdens, and those unsuited to our physical organizations.'"

Article 4th: "Because we hold that an extension of suffrage would be adverse to the interests of the working women, with whom we heartily sympathize."

Article 5th: "Because this change must introduce a fruitful element of discord in the existing marriage relation, which would tend to the infinite detriment of children, and increase the already alarming prevalence of divorce throughout the land."

Article sixth: "Because no general law affecting the condition of all parties should be passed to meet exceptional cases."

Article seventh: "For these and many more reasons do we beg of your wisdom, etc."

We remember the famous protest of certain mistaken but over-zealous colored men, who during the great rebellion, becoming alarmed at the prospect of a speedy release from bondage...

Article second, section one: "Although we shrink from the notoriety of the public eye, yet we are too deeply and painfully impressed by the great perils which threaten our peace, etc."

Section two: "Because Holy Scripture inculcates a different and far higher sphere, apart from public life."

Then, good ladies, advocates of this "different and higher sphere," we conjure you to be consistent...

FASHIONS FOR GENTLEMEN.

Men care nothing at all for fashions! Of course they don't! Such inflated particularities as go to form the modern make-up of a fashionable woman are not to be tolerated by the strong-minded lords of the sidewalk...

Article 4th: "Because we hold that an extension of suffrage would be adverse to the interests of the working women, with whom we heartily sympathize."

Article 5th: "Because this change must introduce a fruitful element of discord in the existing marriage relation, which would tend to the infinite detriment of children, and increase the already alarming prevalence of divorce throughout the land."

Article sixth: "Because no general law affecting the condition of all parties should be passed to meet exceptional cases."

Article seventh: "For these and many more reasons do we beg of your wisdom, etc."

We remember the famous protest of certain mistaken but over-zealous colored men, who during the great rebellion, becoming alarmed at the prospect of a speedy release from bondage...

Article second, section one: "Although we shrink from the notoriety of the public eye, yet we are too deeply and painfully impressed by the great perils which threaten our peace, etc."

Section two: "Because Holy Scripture inculcates a different and far higher sphere, apart from public life."

Then, good ladies, advocates of this "different and higher sphere," we conjure you to be consistent...

FASHIONS FOR LADIES.

No fashion for ladies! The subject of dress may be, no matter whom you laugh or scoff at it, yet none can deny that there really should be a sensible manner of arraying the human form. How to dress beautifully, appropriately, economically and healthfully is a matter in which no person should be ashamed to take reasonable interest.

Article 4th: "Because we hold that an extension of suffrage would be adverse to the interests of the working women, with whom we heartily sympathize."

Article 5th: "Because this change must introduce a fruitful element of discord in the existing marriage relation, which would tend to the infinite detriment of children, and increase the already alarming prevalence of divorce throughout the land."

Article sixth: "Because no general law affecting the condition of all parties should be passed to meet exceptional cases."

Article seventh: "For these and many more reasons do we beg of your wisdom, etc."

We remember the famous protest of certain mistaken but over-zealous colored men, who during the great rebellion, becoming alarmed at the prospect of a speedy release from bondage...

Article second, section one: "Although we shrink from the notoriety of the public eye, yet we are too deeply and painfully impressed by the great perils which threaten our peace, etc."

Section two: "Because Holy Scripture inculcates a different and far higher sphere, apart from public life."

Then, good ladies, advocates of this "different and higher sphere," we conjure you to be consistent...

THE UNWRITTEN HEROISM OF FASHION-RIDEN WOMEN.

One thing must be conceded to women, namely, the grit to endure any amount of inconvenience, or even positive pain, for the sake of dress. Now with our heads and feet, with our eyes, ears, nose, and mouth, and with our hands and feet, we are to be dressed in a way that will do us more harm than good...

Article 4th: "Because we hold that an extension of suffrage would be adverse to the interests of the working women, with whom we heartily sympathize."

Article 5th: "Because this change must introduce a fruitful element of discord in the existing marriage relation, which would tend to the infinite detriment of children, and increase the already alarming prevalence of divorce throughout the land."

Article sixth: "Because no general law affecting the condition of all parties should be passed to meet exceptional cases."

Article seventh: "For these and many more reasons do we beg of your wisdom, etc."

We remember the famous protest of certain mistaken but over-zealous colored men, who during the great rebellion, becoming alarmed at the prospect of a speedy release from bondage...

Article second, section one: "Although we shrink from the notoriety of the public eye, yet we are too deeply and painfully impressed by the great perils which threaten our peace, etc."

Section two: "Because Holy Scripture inculcates a different and far higher sphere, apart from public life."

Then, good ladies, advocates of this "different and higher sphere," we conjure you to be consistent...

THE STUDENT'S REPOSITORY.

This copy and thoroughly progressive little publication, Masters Gibbs and Lyon, editors, deserves particular attention. We gladly accept the invitation to "exchange."

Article 4th: "Because we hold that an extension of suffrage would be adverse to the interests of the working women, with whom we heartily sympathize."

Article 5th: "Because this change must introduce a fruitful element of discord in the existing marriage relation, which would tend to the infinite detriment of children, and increase the already alarming prevalence of divorce throughout the land."

Article sixth: "Because no general law affecting the condition of all parties should be passed to meet exceptional cases."

Article seventh: "For these and many more reasons do we beg of your wisdom, etc."

We remember the famous protest of certain mistaken but over-zealous colored men, who during the great rebellion, becoming alarmed at the prospect of a speedy release from bondage...

Article second, section one: "Although we shrink from the notoriety of the public eye, yet we are too deeply and painfully impressed by the great perils which threaten our peace, etc."

Section two: "Because Holy Scripture inculcates a different and far higher sphere, apart from public life."

Then, good ladies, advocates of this "different and higher sphere," we conjure you to be consistent...

HYMN FOR THE CELEBRATION OF ITALIAN UNITY.

Julia Ward Howe, whose historical Hymn of the Republic found such glad response in the heart of every patriot, has given another evidence of her high genius in the following hymn on the celebration of Italian unity.

Article 4th: "Because we hold that an extension of suffrage would be adverse to the interests of the working women, with whom we heartily sympathize."

Article 5th: "Because this change must introduce a fruitful element of discord in the existing marriage relation, which would tend to the infinite detriment of children, and increase the already alarming prevalence of divorce throughout the land."

Article sixth: "Because no general law affecting the condition of all parties should be passed to meet exceptional cases."

Article seventh: "For these and many more reasons do we beg of your wisdom, etc."

We remember the famous protest of certain mistaken but over-zealous colored men, who during the great rebellion, becoming alarmed at the prospect of a speedy release from bondage...

Article second, section one: "Although we shrink from the notoriety of the public eye, yet we are too deeply and painfully impressed by the great perils which threaten our peace, etc."

Section two: "Because Holy Scripture inculcates a different and far higher sphere, apart from public life."

Then, good ladies, advocates of this "different and higher sphere," we conjure you to be consistent...

CORRESPONDENCE.

This department of the NEW NORTHWEST is to be a general vehicle for exchange of ideas concerning any and all matters that may be legitimately discussed in our columns.

Article 4th: "Because we hold that an extension of suffrage would be adverse to the interests of the working women, with whom we heartily sympathize."

Article 5th: "Because this change must introduce a fruitful element of discord in the existing marriage relation, which would tend to the infinite detriment of children, and increase the already alarming prevalence of divorce throughout the land."

Article sixth: "Because no general law affecting the condition of all parties should be passed to meet exceptional cases."

Article seventh: "For these and many more reasons do we beg of your wisdom, etc."

We remember the famous protest of certain mistaken but over-zealous colored men, who during the great rebellion, becoming alarmed at the prospect of a speedy release from bondage...

Article second, section one: "Although we shrink from the notoriety of the public eye, yet we are too deeply and painfully impressed by the great perils which threaten our peace, etc."

Section two: "Because Holy Scripture inculcates a different and far higher sphere, apart from public life."

WOMAN SUFFRAGE IN WYOMING.

The following note accompanying contribution are sent from Eugene City. Many thanks for kind words.

Article 4th: "Because we hold that an extension of suffrage would be adverse to the interests of the working women, with whom we heartily sympathize."

Article 5th: "Because this change must introduce a fruitful element of discord in the existing marriage relation, which would tend to the infinite detriment of children, and increase the already alarming prevalence of divorce throughout the land."

Article sixth: "Because no general law affecting the condition of all parties should be passed to meet exceptional cases."

Article seventh: "For these and many more reasons do we beg of your wisdom, etc."

We remember the famous protest of certain mistaken but over-zealous colored men, who during the great rebellion, becoming alarmed at the prospect of a speedy release from bondage...

Article second, section one: "Although we shrink from the notoriety of the public eye, yet we are too deeply and painfully impressed by the great perils which threaten our peace, etc."

Section two: "Because Holy Scripture inculcates a different and far higher sphere, apart from public life."

Then, good ladies, advocates of this "different and higher sphere," we conjure you to be consistent...

A BABY IN THE WAY.

A very suggestive incident, and one which should have been unexpected, occurred in the city of Eugene, Oregon, on the morning of the 4th inst.

Article 4th: "Because we hold that an extension of suffrage would be adverse to the interests of the working women, with whom we heartily sympathize."

Article 5th: "Because this change must introduce a fruitful element of discord in the existing marriage relation, which would tend to the infinite detriment of children, and increase the already alarming prevalence of divorce throughout the land."

Article sixth: "Because no general law affecting the condition of all parties should be passed to meet exceptional cases."

Article seventh: "For these and many more reasons do we beg of your wisdom, etc."

We remember the famous protest of certain mistaken but over-zealous colored men, who during the great rebellion, becoming alarmed at the prospect of a speedy release from bondage...

Article second, section one: "Although we shrink from the notoriety of the public eye, yet we are too deeply and painfully impressed by the great perils which threaten our peace, etc."

Section two: "Because Holy Scripture inculcates a different and far higher sphere, apart from public life."

Then, good ladies, advocates of this "different and higher sphere," we conjure you to be consistent...

WOMAN SUFFRAGE.

Mrs. Laura Cullings Johnson, in a Washington letter to the Indiana Fair, commenting on the refusal of the House of Representatives to Mrs. Wood...

Article 4th: "Because we hold that an extension of suffrage would be adverse to the interests of the working women, with whom we heartily sympathize."

Article 5th: "Because this change must introduce a fruitful element of discord in the existing marriage relation, which would tend to the infinite detriment of children, and increase the already alarming prevalence of divorce throughout the land."

Article sixth: "Because no general law affecting the condition of all parties should be passed to meet exceptional cases."

Article seventh: "For these and many more reasons do we beg of your wisdom, etc."

We remember the famous protest of certain mistaken but over-zealous colored men, who during the great rebellion, becoming alarmed at the prospect of a speedy release from bondage...

Article second, section one: "Although we shrink from the notoriety of the public eye, yet we are too deeply and painfully impressed by the great perils which threaten our peace, etc."

Section two: "Because Holy Scripture inculcates a different and far higher sphere, apart from public life."

Then, good ladies, advocates of this "different and higher sphere," we conjure you to be consistent...

THE MOUNTAIN HEART'S EASE.

By scattered rocks and ferns water shaded, In mountain glades and in the dale, I have found a place where the spirit finds its ease...

Article 4th: "Because we hold that an extension of suffrage would be adverse to the interests of the working women, with whom we heartily sympathize."

Article 5th: "Because this change must introduce a fruitful element of discord in the existing marriage relation, which would tend to the infinite detriment of children, and increase the already alarming prevalence of divorce throughout the land."

Article sixth: "Because no general law affecting the condition of all parties should be passed to meet exceptional cases."

Article seventh: "For these and many more reasons do we beg of your wisdom, etc."

We remember the famous protest of certain mistaken but over-zealous colored men, who during the great rebellion, becoming alarmed at the prospect of a speedy release from bondage...

Article second, section one: "Although we shrink from the notoriety of the public eye, yet we are too deeply and painfully impressed by the great perils which threaten our peace, etc."

Section two: "Because Holy Scripture inculcates a different and far higher sphere, apart from public life."

Then, good ladies, advocates of this "different and higher sphere," we conjure you to be consistent...

Mrs. F. H. B., Eugene: Puffings and

low; and we doubt not that the wife of

low; and we doubt not that the wife of

low; and we doubt not that the wife of