

Published for the Proprietor by J. W. ...

Published for the Proprietor by J. W. ...

VOL. I. PORTLAND, OREGON, FRIDAY, JUNE 30, 1871. NO. 9.

ROMANCE GREY.

How many and what are the impressions concerning this remarkable man? We will remember the first time we saw a copy of his New York Tribune...

"BOYED FEMALE."

This is the sensation heading with which the New Oregon paper, who notice the near advent of the two most illustrious personages that have yet appeared to visit the New Northwest...

LETTERS FROM IOWA.

We have received the following characteristic letter from an omniscient relative who distinguished himself a number of years ago in the city of Portland by making railroad speeches...

FASHIONS FOR LADIES.

Black granadine is a very stylish material for summer dresses. Being stiff, it makes up beautifully in the present style, and being thin, it is cool for summer weather...

CORRESPONDENCE.

This department of the New Northwest is to be a general vehicle for exchange of ideas concerning any and all matters that may be legitimately discussed in our columns...

LETTERS FROM MARION COUNTY.

NEAR SALMON, June 26th, 1871. Mrs. A. J. DeWain - Respected Madam - Though personally unknown to me, you are yet known to me by reputation...

Mr. Elizabeth Cady Stanton.

Mr. Elizabeth Cady Stanton, one of the most remarkable women of the century - one in the possession probably of more points of mental greatness and moral goodness than any woman in the United States...

DEATH RATHER THAN HOUSEWORK.

The principal gossip in social circles in Brooklyn, N. Y., is the attempted divorce of a young married woman in the city...

Mr. Stanton's Own Story.

A visit to Seneca Falls, to provide for her maintenance, was the first step in her career. She found her husband's mind and equal to the defence of her sacred rights...

Five Minutes' Work.

"Here, Lizzie, I wish you would put a few stitches into my coat; it's getting so shabby." "It's a long job, but I'll do it for you, if you'll let me have my coat, and I'll do it for you, if you'll let me have my coat..."

STOCK-JOBBER A LEGITIMATE CALLING.

The New York Journal of Commerce thinks not, and supports its position by advancing the proposition that stock-jobbing is a legitimate calling...

STOCK-JOBBER A LEGITIMATE CALLING.

The New York Journal of Commerce thinks not, and supports its position by advancing the proposition that stock-jobbing is a legitimate calling...