THE "WEST-SIDE" SPEAKETH.

and the aid of sharp eye sight and a good constitution, we have been enabled may be drawn from many sources and to decipher a column or so of deinetable from different quarters of the Union, hash, which has been served up in the both as regards the Republican and West-Side, a weekly journal, which, bemod-add parties the two great polike ourself, "got a start in Yambfil," Intent organizations at present existbut which, unlike we self, has failed to ing in our country, and the principal improve its opport to les sufficiently to enable it to keep u that the present age set of political leaders shall devour the of journalistic pros useful family news; ther it will be new return to their tax-burdened constitment as a parrot knows of political econ-

"Dabbling in politics," of which the West-Side so contemptuously speaks, is a libel upon manhood. Who made polities a "filthy pool?"

Why is it that men "fall from their high moral stand-point upon entering the arena of National politics?" Why Departments at Washington, and some that received by every individual memthe tempter" when once inside the pale gratifying progress has been made in ber. Scratch the mud from your journalistic eyes and look us squarely in the face fall, and why politics to-day reeks as a "filthy pool."

It is because the virtuous, the refined. the sensible, the noble mothers, wires and daughters of this nation do not assist in the national house-keeping.

Women are not 'just as likely to fall into the same snare as men if they mix in politics," Women are the conservators of public and private morals. Where there is one bad woman there are at least twenty bad men; and where good women meet men on a plane of social equality the morals of each are uncontaminated by the vices into which either will naturally fall if left without the harmonizing elements which are necessary to the proper developments and restraining of

We have "thousands of ruined men and played out politicians" simply because men alone are unable to resist such temptations as are sure to exist in a one-sexed and unnatural state of soci-

Women alone would do no better than thing unlady-like and absurd," can ures from the Controller's own books. measure at our excellent fortune in thus wonder that some leaders of the woman the least to their exculpation. Woman Suffrage for the State Senate movement have false stories circulated minded men, who seek to impeach her tional existence. womanly motives, will have rotted in oblivion.

Such men naturally fear the increase of woman's political influence. If "God placed woman just where he meant to keep her," why need our brother worry and Englished to appear the large of the weight of the will succeed? And why does and Universal Honesty, and its success true of all political organizations who woman's Rights, Education, Temperance and Humanity, comes to us regularly. It is ably conducted by Mrs. A. J. Duniway, editor and proprietor. It is a first class family paper, and should receive a liberal support and find a place in every family on the coast. Its sentiments we fully endorse, and as a co-la-ments we fully endorse. man legislate to enforce His decrees? will be assured. Ah! Bro. West-Side, we pity you in your sore dilemma! Let us weep!

whose attention we have directed to the lating to the decrees of God.

IT'S NONE OF OUR FUNERAL.

In the spring of 1865 Henry Winter Davis, of Baltimore, in an elaborate letter to one of the leading Republican parter to one of the leading Republican parter to one of the Republican parter to one of the Republican parter to one of the leading Republican parter to one of the Bayou would be pleased to honor me with the North Republican parter to one of the Bayou would be pleased to honor me with the North Republican parter to one of the Bayou would be pleased to honor me with the North Republican parter to one of the Bay the right of suffrage or die a political death. This was said before one man in ment admitted the probability of enfran-lead now in the greatest political reform has not fallen upon another than my-this stock of cattle between the proved that Mr. Davis knew whereof he

Nothing but the enfranchisement of victory, and nothing but enfranchisement of women will ensure the next one, But Republican man's rights doctrine dies so hard that we strongly suspect s har gathering new life from the labolation, runcia bei to victory/ibnoyeds up by woman Buffrage libe great tree preserver of our national liberties of our national liberties. while her husband and a legar ware in a fight: "We never did see a fight before but we cared which whipped." CORRUPTION IN POLITICS.

The long continuance in power of any political power-particularly in localities where its members form a large preponderance of the voting population-naturally and almost inevitably By dint of indiscricing perseverance, tends to corruption in office. This fact whims" of women, with a long state legislators frequently go their sex, are seeking to disprove the back to their homes rich from the capcalumny that is rife among men con- ital whence they started poor; even the children is in reality left in a far tion to oppose them by the direct power The feet of childhood pass from wakeful how cerning their frivolity and use lessness as Judges on the bench have been known more helpless condition than the mother of legislation, you can rely upon my To find repose amid the flowery realms a class of humanity; and by thus prat- to rise from poverty to sudden opu- who is so bereaved. Therefore it is necing evinces clearly that it knows about lence, while receiving salaries barely essary that the mother, as well as the such measures as would tend to right the intervening time, so thickly strewn as much concerning the woman move- adequate to defray the expenses of their father, have a life assurance policy, or, them. Yours for Equal Rights, sumptuous style of living. And thus what is equivalent, an interest in a mumight we go on enumerating almost tual relief association, which, by the indefinitely.

of polities? Hold on, Bro. West-Side! reducing the public debt. So far, good. But corruption still stalks through every avenue of our Government, and while we tell you why our politicians its demoralizing influence, sent forth expensive modes of life asssurance are from the headquarters of the nation, is felt throughout the length and breadth is particularly dishonest we do not der sixty may become a member. believe; but we do think it was a sad President.

But the latest and perhaps grandest revelation of fraud yet discovered is now being brought to light in New patisfied unless "engaged in doing some-court-house: In support of these charges the Times gives dates and figcannot be said of all their leaders." public thieves and dares them to take yard. the matter into the courts. So far the The Independent Political party of Now, we courteously ask this would-be city officials have declined to do so, and Sir Oracle if it is any more a matter of have made no explanation that tends in nominated this popular champion of the would be well to say notice.

wondered at that many leaders in the gigantic frauds can be perpetrated in must be brief. She designs, however, our country is at once surprising and to return overland, and will lecture at Emily Pitts Stevens' name will be remembered and lauded in the annals of leeches of both parties who are now pia, W. T., Saturday evening, August history long after those of the narrow-sapping the very foundation of our na-

The allur'on of our friend to the "com- trusted. The necessity is urgent for a ties of the day can this work be en- turn.

N. B. A lady visiting our office, THE NEXT GREAT POLITICAL IS-SUE.

West-Side's article, begs leave, through Vallandigham, the great Mogul of the the columns of the New Northwest, Democratic party, tried three hours to to conjure the writer of the same to in- prevail upon his friends in political cau- the compliments of our editor brother. wonderful. sure his life. She says he surely can't cus to insert a woman suffrage plank in live long after evincing such an aston- the "new departure" platform, and, we ishing degree of acute perception as doubt not, would have succeeded had it characterizes his closing paragraph re- not been that the party is so "eminently To the Officers and Members of the San this conservative that it has to be whipped into recognition of all progressive ideas." Now, if that party is so "eminently con-

the negro insured the last Republican accepted the vote of the negro through a personal inclination and individual in in silver for each calf branded, and this parties is the spoils of office. They are and fall lightly, if at all, upon the rich year.

of national honor.

essary for it fo was a its form to their tax-burdened consistessary for it fo was a its form remounse man's rights politics and establish isself upon the plane of common sense.

This journal prates of the solling form of the which is journal prates of the solling form of the white the fundamental principles of our Government are ignored by the system of class legislation which for the family that is liable at any moment to be deprived of one of the whitest of the household. The father payment of an inconsiderable sum year-LETTER FROM REV. JOHN SPENCER. The present Administration came ly, secures to the heirs of the assured a into power with the promise of inaug- sum of ready money, at the time when, urating a system of rigid economy, in- of all other times, such sum is most need-

> The plan is cheap and safe, and insures to people of moderate means an opportunity to secure benefits while the more beyond their reach. Under the mutual relief association of the land. That President Grant plan any person over eighteen and un-

The annual payments range from three mistake which our Republican friends to nine dollars, according to the age of late for a pleasant visit. I was premistake which our Republican friends to mine donars, according to the age of pared for something of the kind, but With grass and blooming flowers, between from his legitimate sphere of duty and society. Thus: Persons under 30 years not near so much. What havoc death made of him but an indifferent Exec. at the time of joining pay a fee of $3 00, can make in two score years! How While inites of dreary distance intervene utive. To an impartial observer of af- and an annual payment of $3 00 each important to work while it is day! censed.

MRS. LAURA DeFORCE GORDON.

has published statements of secret actended by small but intelligent and ap-returning to Portland in about ten days.

ment we give it a cordial welcome.

of the Weekly Echo, a lively temperance being without fruit.

MRS. GORDON'S LETTER OF AC-CEPTATION.

else have strangled it, learns no lesson For the information of those who do increase cannot be less than $15,00, clear that it will prolong the struggle till the Democracy enteres like vital breath and, gathering new life from the land procrastinates, intending afitates and procrastinates, intending after a while to endorse woman suffrage, tion and intrigue are practiced by political tion. ter a while to endorse woman suffrage, tion and intrigue are practiced by polit-provided it can no longer succeed as a political organization without it. Kept him rich. And no man better de-serves his good fortune, which is simply the result of his industry and good manlaws are permitted to rest upon our stat-Justice is but a feather's weight with ute books, with scarcely an effort made houest, and few as kind-hearted, charithe Republican party when placed in by our masculine law-makers to remove table and willing to relieve the suffering. the scale against Expediency. The only them; while the penalties for evil doing as Mr. Lastite Dupre. issue at present between the two great fall heavily upon the poor and obscure, The New Northwest is $3.00 per were engaged in a great national lawsuit- and influential; while our homes are bribery, corruption, fraud and intrigue impoverished and made desolate by the being the order of the day. Justice may curse of intemperance that stalks almost ery out for shame, while Virtue weeps unchecked through our land; while the "Tis my mother's grave. Since when a child and Liberty bewails the departed glory sacred ordinance of marriage is descerat- With childish fear and grief, I saw her laid ed by wanton infidelity and licentious- Within the damp, cold ground, and heard the How long, as a nation, are we to en-ness, followed by indiscriminate homi-of earth, with rattling and discordant sounds, dure all this? Certainly the times are cide or suicide, or both; while land mo- Which seemed to harrow up my grief afresh, rife for a new political organization; one nopolies check the development of agri- Enclose the sacred dust of her to whom which shall be established on a basis of cultural resources and industrial enter- I owe the gift of life, I have not seen the fundamental principles of equality, prises, and threaten to centralize power. Was drawn, mid them to spend the flecting justice and fraternity, which shall ignore alike the aristocracy of sex, the hands of the few, leaving poverty and of childhood and of youth. nore alike the aristocracy of sex, the corruption of political intrigues and the demoralizing influence of corrupt corporations.

My manhood's day want the inheritance of the mony; while ignorance is allowed to increase despite our free schools; while an unjust dispersion of the mony; while ignorance is allowed to increase despite our free schools; while an unjust dispersion of the mony; while ignorance is allowed to increase despite our free schools; while an unjust dispersion of the mony; while ignorance is allowed to increase despite our free schools; while an unjust dispersion of the mony; while ignorance is allowed to increase despite our free schools; while an unjust dispersion of the mony; while ignorance is allowed to increase despite our free schools; while an unjust dispersion of the mony; while ignorance is allowed to increase despite our free schools; while an unjust dispersion of the mony; while ignorance is allowed to increase despite our free schools; while an unjust dispersion of the mony; while ignorance is allowed to increase despite our free schools; while an unjust dispersion of the mony; while ignorance is allowed to increase despite our free schools; while an unjust dispersion of the mony; while ignorance is allowed to increase despite our free schools; while an unjust dispersion of the mony; while ignorance is allowed to increase despite our free schools. crimination on account of sex is made And bove thy grave to shed the fiftal tears of journalistic proposed was und fishes of public emolument this West-Nide 1 an interest paper, but it always has a dirty face and mud-be-spattered parallel as the spattered MUTUAL RELIEF ASSOCIATION.

The time has gone by when persons of efficient woman the inferior salary, and The pearly gate that leads to memory store. The pearly gate that leads to memory store years.

LAURA DEFORCE GORDON.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., July 27, 1871. failed to make a beginning.

have had nothing in our experience And so I called and called again thy name; much out of the common order—some From those mule lips of thine no answer can sea-sickness, considerable railroad fa- To my appealing cries; and as they heaved tigue, and a moderate degree of health. The sod above thy form my grief burst forth We have had some happy reunions and in floods of tears and passioned words, until pleasant memories. But we are not in my despair they led me from the place dened everywhere with reports of the fairs, it would seem a very poor way of instituting retreuchment and reform to $4.00; over 35 and under 40, $5.00; and the best and throbs for mother's about Temperance. In several towns Upon this green and narrow mound, accept large and valuable presents from so on. These annual payments are not the hotels do not sell intoxicating Above thy loved remains. political corruptionists, who expect in raised above the first payment made drinks. The quiet and order are quite return—and, we doubt not, often re- when joining. Upon the death of any apparent, What an insult to sense and While here in thought I linger, lone and sail, ceive—substantial favors and political member of a class each survivor pays delicacy the whole license system must No word of thine comes ringing to my ear, preferment at the hands of our worthy the sum of $1 00 to the heirs of the deto poison the citizens. Then the guards With bliss cestate and with peace profound. intended to control the business are Ah, yes! I know that thou art here The lectures of this gifted, logical and mostly to be managed by those who York city. The New York Times, one womanly woman, at Oro Fino Hall on have no special interest in putting of the leading newspapers of that city, Friday and Saturday evenings, were at-

These two points are essential to effibear, we trust, with our garrulous conIt defies successful controller's own books. measure at our excellent fortune in thus ciency: All who sustain damage should the controller's own books. measure at our excellent fortune in thus ciency: All who sustain damage should temporary, especially as he says "she bears a good moral reputation, which bears a good moral reputation, which property devoted to vile uses ought to be bound for the consequences. These

I think it would be well to say noth-We have no desire to enlarge upon from that county, are calling upon her ling about a prohibitory liquor law at against their reputation than it is to be this disgusting transaction. That such to return; hence her sojourn with us nest effort go for something like the Ohio law. I trust the people would culation against their public and private character, which cannot be gainsayed?

Engly Pitts Stevens page will be remedy—which shall address her without delay, care of this local and effective remedy—which shall address her without delay, care of this Legislation, when in advance of the people, is useless. To do its work it must be the voice of the people.

I am pleased with Oregon better than To neither of the great political par- She will probably lecture here on her rehills here look higher and more repul-Ing reign of Petticoats" leaves us to fear that at home he is sadily hen-pecked.

Such men naturally fear the increase of such sive than formerly. The roads are bad. ments we fully endorse, and as a co-la. oats look much bleached. The wheat borer in the great moral reform move- erop is good in most places. The same is true of oats. The corn looks well. The above is clipped from the columns Apples are scarce, many and great trees lowing is from the Opelousas Journal:

"It is said that Mr. Lastite Dupre, of parish, owns about 20,000 head of her hair, they would look well, Joaquin Co. W. S. Association, Stock-eattle, ranging over the greater part of ton, Cal.—Friends:—

Outh-western Louisiana, from Bayou and says she, "I feel awful depressed to-The letter of your worthy Secretary Teche on the east to the Sabine river on day, the west, and from Bayou Chicot on the must of necessity accede to the negro tionally accepts, what is it good for as a fidence, and the high compliment paid is a colored man, who has been in his party except to endorse the measures of me by the proflered nomination, were I employ for many years, and in whose its political opponents? Cannot the to decline accepting it, though I cannot fidence. The colored man is said to be fifty in the party ranks had for a moDemocratic party see that by taking the but regret that at this time your choice worth about fifteen thousand dollars,

Original. A FRAGMENT

The thronging thoughts of days

With memories fond that trance my soul cling

Within my inmost heart, I seem to stand Again beside this open grave, and gaze On thy sweet face, so beautiful and pale With death's cold touch, and press thy mar

Dear Editor: When about to leave And pallid lips with earth's last kiss of love. tegrity and honesty. A few useless ed. In these mutual relief associations for the Atlantic States you requested me They told me thou wert dead. But death to use clerks were turned out of office in the no one ever receives a benefit beyond to write a little for you. I thought to Was then a word whose very name was naught do so, but somehow till now. I thought the in a sleep do so, but somehow till now I have A strange and deep and dreadful sleep-fr

Since leaving home my wife and I Could'st thou he waked they might not bur death of old friends. We are here too Thy boy would fain come back to lay his head

Yet in my fancy now I rest my weary head, In some places considerable is said Which nehes and throbs for mother's soothi making beverages is simply authority All freighted with thy presence and thy love

Wemen's Spear. BY JOSIAH ALLEN'S WIFE.

counts kept by the Controller, in which damaging disclosures are made against the city, masculine and feminine, being the "Tammany Ring," the virtual head the creation of the Tammany Ring," the virtual head assembled each evening—and, notwith—the "Tammany Ring," the virtual head told me when I was concerns the result,—Lararnia Serial first born that I would marry a widew—as concerns the result,—Lararnia Serial first born that I would marry a widew—as concerns the result,—Lararnia Serial first born that I would have been provoked at 'em. But, as I remarked to Betsey Bobbet.

The pame of the Turkish sound. men have done, but the efforts of both and front of the Democratic party in standing the excessive and very unusual head and front of the Democratic party in standing the excessive and very unusual head and front of the Democratic party in standing the excessive and very unusual head and front of the Democratic party in standing the excessive and very unusual head and front of the Democratic party in standing the excessive and very unusual head and front of the Democratic party in standing the excessive and very unusual head and front of the Democratic party in standing the excessive and very unusual head and front of the Democratic party in standing the excessive and very unusual head and front of the Democratic party in these United States. The statements show that Mayor Hall and Controller don't seem to the viper is liable to share in the punsor delight to "daubble."

The other is this: The nest of the viper is liable to share in the punsor delight to "daubble."

The other is this: The nest of the viper is liable to share in the punsor delight to "daubble."

The other is the efforts of both and front of the Democratic party in standing the excessive and very unusual head and front of the Democratic party in standing the excessive and very unusual head and front of the Democratic party in standing the excessive and very unusual beat, the utmost attention was manifely and the delicacy of voting," says Betser of the whole of the product of the state we are called to live in the state we are called to the state the viper is liable to share in the pun- is awful opposed to wemen's rights. "It hain't no shock to wemenly mod- tried to from the realm of da so delight to "diabble."

Conolly signed fraudulent warrants tracted argument. Mrs. Gordon takes during the years 1869 and 1870 to the found of the reptile. If the one who deads out the poison is unable to which he does his work is held account. It run as follers:

To diabble."

Conolly signed fraudulent warrants tracted argument. Mrs. Gordon takes during the years 1869 and 1870 to the rostrum as though indeed to the deads out the poison is unable to which he does his work is held account. It run as follers:

To diabble."

It hair to diabble. It hair to a higher life, deads out the poison is unable to when to a higher life, deads out the poison is unable to the poison i

TO BETSEY BORDET. Last night as I meandered out. To meditate apart' secladed in my parasol—
Deep subject shook my heart.
The earth, the skies, the prateting brooks,
All thundered in my car,
"Tis materinony! "Is materinony!
That is a wemen's spear," Day, with a red shirred bonnet on, Had down for China started: Its yellow ribbings fluttered o'er Her head as she departed. She seemed to wink her eye to me As she did disapear, And say, "Tis matrimony, Betsey, That is a wemen's spear."

I saw two lovely roses.
Like wedded pardners grow,
Sharp thorns did pave their mortal path,
Yet sweety did they blow.
They seemed to blow these glorious words
Into my willing car,
it. Bolbet, it is matrimouy,
That is a wemen's spear."

Two goutle sheep upon the hills,
How sweet the twain did run,
As I meandered goutly on,
And sot down on a stun.
They seemed to murmer sheepishly.
"Oh! Betsey Bobbet, dear,
"Tis matrimony, 'tis matrimony,
That is a wemen's spear,"

A rustic had broke down his team.

I mused almost to tears.

How can a yoke be borne along Ry half a pair of steers?

Even thus in wrath did Nature speak,

"Hear! Petsey Bobbet! hear!

"Its instrimony! 'its marrimony!

That is a wemen's spear!"

Sweet was the boneysnekle's breath
Upon the ambient air,
Sweet was the tender coos of doves
Yet sweeter husbanes are.
All natures voices poured these words
Into my willing ear,
'B. Bobbet, it is matrimony,
That is a weinen's spear."

As I said, I had just finished thes paper, published at Olympia, W. T. But withal I must say the improve- looking woman of some 45 summers and nose he has kindly suffered her to keep. But she has the best ivery teeth money n's wife," says she mournfully.

"Miners" says I, in a tone of deep in- singing and of Wattses' hypnes t we the last quent wave. "There haint a more deautiful sight on earth than to see 2 the Gimlet coming way down the sound beautiful sight on earth than to see 2 human souls, out of pure love to each other as if they must, and at least all their hopes and thoughtt and affections running together so you can't separate 'em nohow, jest like 2 drops of rain water in a morning glory blow; and to see ter in a morning glory blow; and to see after I had my dream. The many dream of poetry that I wrote this the many dream. ter in a morning goay and the second and bound up in each other, till the sun evaparates in a few days. I shouldn't b er soul for barter of any kind, such as to the mussels."

"We differ from each other in our specifies on bridges, fences, g willing to marry, but the man wasn't man explained why he heat forthcoming. What are they to do?" gate; it looked so incongrue forthcoming. What are they to do?" gate; it looked so incougry says I, growing eloquent in my deep midst of the fence he could not hadn't ought to vote, for it would de-vour too much of their precious time a-sat on his wagon-box while he cursed of withering scorn; "wemen spend more time a-frizzin' their frent hair than it would take to learn the whole statue horses standing inside the farmer's book by heart. And if they get a new fence. He became inspired! he caught dress, they find plenty of time to cut it the animals and took his stencil plates all up into strips, jest to pucker it up and went to work. When he got and set it on again; but when it comes through, the horses were peripatetic adto a job about as long as putting a letter vertisements of Loryea's remedy. "Unk" into the post-office, they are dreadful appeared between their eyes short on it for time. Wemen find time enough to read all the novels they can get hold of—why, let one of these very wemen that think the Pre-liquides bureau is a chest of circumstant where he keeps his fine shirt, and the tariff is a wild horse the Senators keep to ride out.

on-let one of these wemen get hold of one volume of a novel, what does she care about time till the reads the other four? and how she will by awake nights worryin' about the hero? Betsey Bobsays I, in a impressvie tone, "If there had been a wemen hid on the Island of Patmos, and Paul's letters to the churches had been love letters to her, that way. The more you go to work the Bibles wouldn't be so lonesome as they more she won't like you. Push her into are now. Wemen," I continued, "find a duck pond and pull her out by the time enough for balls, and theatres, and hair. If you are afraid to do this jump parties, and to cover their faces with their fans, and giggle, and abuse the Lend her money, borrow some from her, neighboring wemen. Why," says I, growing eloquent again, "the very reason that men's talk is nobler than wemen's is because their minds are filled foreign. In short contribution. when did you ever know a passel of men or lay yourself under a lasting obliga to set down and spend a whole evening tion to her. It does not make the dif les in his accusation that she is never court-house! In support of these cloquent utterances of this feminine Patable. That is as it ought to be.

It run as follers:

which he does his work is held account the court-house! In support of these cloquent utterances of this feminine Patable. That is as it ought to be. Methodist church that could get me to let him walk up and hug them by the look is large." In five no hour to the music of a fiddle and a base violin. I don't want to hear one more > paused, red in the face with my scornful and lofty emotions,

> "I think your views are uronious, says Betsey; "there is a inherient difference between the two sects, as I remarked to the editor of the Gimlet last night, acoming out of meeting; the fringe of my shawl ketched on to one the buttons of his vest, and we was oblegged to walk Real Estate Denler. close together clear through the meeting-house. I says to him, after I had enquired all about his sweet motherless twins, says I, 'You don't believe in wemen's rights, do you? Don't you believe it is wemen's nature naturally to Ri werd about wemenly modesty!" and I be elinging?" d lo man do heaven knows I do!" Hors and he was so earnest agreeing with me, Also Also Also Also Also that he give a real wrench at the button that tore the fringe right out of my shawl. That is the way men are more proud and offish, as it were, and wemen are clinging in their natures, like a vine care, and the care, and "I never was much of a clinger mylf; still, if wemen want to cling, I ain't no objection to it. But supposin' hain't no objection to it. But supposin' a vine hain't no tree convenient to cling to? Supposin' the tree she happens to cling to falls through inherient rottenness at the core, thunder and lightning, and etcetery—what is to become of the creeper if it can't do nothin' but creep? As long as a woman has a rich home We are happy to be able to fully return the compliments of our editor brother.

But within I must say the improve- looking woman of some 49 summers and winters. Time has seen fit to deprive the wonderful.

JOHN SPENCER. ter to her whether poor wemen get the same pay for doing the same work that men do or not, but let her lose her home A St. Landry Ranche.—The fol-owing is from the Opelousas Journal: behind each ear, and if she wasn't so difference to her." Betsey qualled so bald, and if the curls was the color of her hair, they would look well. that I continued in more soft and rea-sonable accents. "As you say, Betsey, I admit that wemen have a natural hankering after the good opinion of the Now, if that party is so "eminently conservative" that it must needs fight all containing the information that you servative" that it must needs fight all containing the information that you north to the Gulf on the south. His cheerful tone.

"I feel lonely," says she; "more lone-lonely wanting to wear the enough. It riles me to hear folks talk enough. It riles me to hear folks talk other seet; but they can do without that about wemen's wanting to wear the breeches! They don't want to; they "I had a dream last night, Josiah Al- like muslin and calico better than they do broadeloth. This talk about its "What was it?" says I, in a sympa-thizing accent, for she did look melan-wash dishes, is all shear nonsense! making wemen coarse, and making men lead now in the greatest political reform of this or any other age it can have opportunity to vindicate its record?

Again, the Republican party, which accepted the vote of the negro through a necepted the vote of the necepted "You can't change nature. You may Again, the Republican party, which accepted the vote of the negro through a political necessity, which swallowed the bitter pill at the time when Northern Behels would be not acceptance.

Warfare, waged against the wrongs of politics and the vices of society, that personal inclination and individual interests should be held in abeyance to bitter pill at the time when Northern Behels would be not proceeded. The political necessity and Southern Behels would be not possible to the result of the services at the rate of fifty cents in silver for each eafly branded, and this is the greatest or only expense incurred in raising the cattle. The entire stock are not worth less than $200,000. The annual revenue derived from the yearly alpace lap. Did you dream who you was married and to that end and effect you may o ?" says I.
"I dreamed his name was Mr. Slimp-but all the legeslatures in creation can't "I dreamed his name was Mr. Slimpsey," says she, in the same agonizing accent; "it wasn't nobody I ever see." "Did you dream you loved your husband, Betsey?" says I, fixing my keen gray eye upon her keenly.

No," says she. "You know my mind concerning wemen's spear. I believe it is her spear to marry; that is the important thing; as for love, and respect, and etectery, I consider them miners, as it were."

"Miners" says I, in a tone of deep indignaty. "Miners, Betsey Bobbet," would—one will sing base and the says I, waving my right hand in a clo-Jest at this minute we see the edit or of being called a married wemen, a house and lot, a few thousand dollars, a horse am glad she felt so.—Home J. and J.

and lon, a let and buggy, a certificit with a man's and buggy, a certificit with a man's name on it, and etecetery, what if she does have a minister for saleman, my does have a minister for saleman, my of those fellows who go about try advertising "Ague Kit and the control of does have a minister for saichan, contempt for that female is unmitiga-riers' Friend," "Unk Weed." "We differ from each other in views, Josiah Allen's wife—you believe wemen ought to have rights—I don't. I believe wemen's spear—'' Eugene City. The noresaic weiner ought to make rights believe wemen's spear—
"Shet up about your spears," says I, getting wore out. "If it is a wemen's spear to marry, the Lord will provide her with a man—it stands to reason He will," says I, with a cutting look onto Well," says I, with a cutting look onto Betsey "I have seen wemen that was "I have seen wemen that was wanted to whip the artista of a principal. "Are men to be pursued like temptation. "But," said the temptation. "But," said the temptation. "there was a bigger gate in that fine wemen? Is a wemen going out into the streets and coller a man and order him to marry her?" The artist was dumbfounded; he felt as if he had let a bird go; he to marry her?"

"I tell you," says Betsey, waving off the subject, which was, for reasons I won't hint at, odious to her, "wemen hadn't ought to vote, for it would declared by the felt as if he had let a bird go; he couldn't rest that night. At dawn he arose, got out his team, went back four miles and looked for that gate. To his chargin, there was no gate there. He studyin' the laws of their country."

"Precious time" says I, in a tone rumination on the wickedness of man-wild horse the Senar is keep to ride (01) two hours after, the armer made his appearance in Eugene City, making at a was inquiries for that stenell man. He wanted to put a head on him. - Jack Don't go to "work" to win the affecions of a woman; It can't be done in en's is because their minds are filled forgiven. In short, contrive either to with bigger thoughts. Betsey Bobbet, lay her under a lasting obligation to you, tion to her. It does not make the diftalking about each other's vests, and ference of a headless pin which, so far

> The name of the Turkish soman's paper, Euridiki, is in English, I. It is so called in in memory of of Orpheus, whom he brought back, or

A Mrs. Johnson, of Leavenworth, was waltz with 'em; but these wemen that sued by a lawyer for $50. He did a lot are too modest to vote, don't make of talking to the jury; but all she said nothing of being jest introduced to a was, "I leave my case with the greatest man, who may be a retired pirate, and confidence in the bands of such a goal

WILLIAM DAVIDSON,

OFFIGE No. 54 Front Street. PURTLAND ORLHON.

PRIATE IN THE STE AND EST

AGN TO PERSON OF THE PARTY OF T

Parrish, Attinsen A Woodward

REAL ESTATE AGENTS

County Alster until Profits of your HAV PURCHER FOR MALINE We'ch with a died he made S PERIOR INDUDEMENTS

Storie Cultivaries Maries Town . a. MALL SEPT

LOGAL FARE WHITTER AND STENOWLEDGE Y A. ATHINSON ........... TriER BUONSARD

RMPLOYMENT OFFICE

Well Appropries MONTH NAME OF THE PARTY OF