It is reported that negotiations are go-ing on for the transfer of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company to the Northern Pacific Railroad Company. B. B. Taylor, Esq., editor of the Har-one purchaser, and for a price not ex-tail, has accepted an invitation from thousands of miles to settle in and build the Literary Societies of Willamette University, to deliver the annual address before them on the 25th of June next. Miss Anna Mehlig, the famous planist, will give one of her entertainments to-night in Oro Fino Theater. She will re-main here were that it was done for the express purpose of preventing Ben Holladay from arcenter. Inight in Oro Fino Theater. She will remain here several days, and every one will have an opportunity of seeing and hearing her.

The Oregonian says that on Wednesday evening obout 7 o'clock a column of smoke was seen to rise from the summit of Mount Hood. The column for a time assumed a pencil like shape, and at length dispersed and floated off to the south.
