The Legislature meets next month. The base ball fever is raging in Eugene. Marion county has eighty-one public schools.

The Eastern Oregon peach crop will be large. The Oregon City Postoffice was robbed Tuesday night.

Gen. Joe. Hooker left for San Francisco on Monday. Mails come more regularly now than for some time past.

The crops in Washington county are turning out very well. Hay is very scarce in Umpqua Valley and sells at $14 per ton.

G. W. Snyder is now proprietor of the McMinville West-Side. Many counterfeit half dollars are in circulation about Roseburg.

The boats do not run above Salem at present, owing to low water. Eldorado Ditch Company, Baker county, is now selling water.

It is stated that a new Republican paper is projected at Oregon City. A grouse flew into Mr. Strang's house at Salem and was caught alive.

Navigation on the upper Columbia has been abandoned for the present season. P. D. Hull, of Jacksonville, has taken charge of the Roseburg Plasterer office.

Burglaries and robberies are excessively frequent in Salem. The Statesman gives an account of a batch of half a dozen that have occurred within two days. It is believed the offenders are small boys.

Arthur Charman, son of Col. Thos. Charman, was drowned at Oregon City on Monday. Deceased was a bright, intelligent youth of seventeen years, and his untimely end is a sad stroke to his fond parents.

A large band of Indians are off their Reservations, and are annoying and frightening the settlers and others on the Payette and Weiser. The Baker City Democrat says that many of these Indians are well supplied with whisky, and when drunk they make savage threats; and may attempt to put these threats into execution.

At a regular meeting held July 25th at St. Helens, by the New Era Lodge, I. O. G. T., the following officers were elected for the ensuing term: W. C. T., Mrs. M. E. Morse; W. V. The Oregonian has the following concerning the proposed bridge across the Willamette at this place: "A good deal has been said about the proposed bridge at this point, and some controversy has arisen in regard to the possession of the franchise, but nothing very definite has been arrived at until lately. It is now proposed, we are given to understand, that the construction of the bridge shall very shortly be begun, and its completion within a twelvemonth is promised by the owners of the franchise. All this is very satisfactory to our citizens, who are anxious for the establishment of more certain and convenient communication with the east bank of the river. There is one point, however, on which we desire to say a few words. The Ordinance by which H. R. Leonard, his associates and assigns, were granted the franchise, limits the location of the western terminus between Salmon street and Clay, or entirely within the Third Ward, which has the smallest population of any. It seems to us that this is not exactly fair to other portions of the city. The construction of the bridge will probably affect the values of the lots and blocks adjacent to its terminus, and to limit the power of realizing this benefit to the property owners of the city looks like favoritism. As Mr. Leonard and his associates have offered to allow the street designated by the largest subscription of stock to be the Western terminus, we suggest that as a matter of justice to all its constituents, the Council ought to amend the Ordinance so as to make Oak street the northern limit, and thus give property holders in the First and Second Wards an opportunity to bid for the terminus. The Act of Congress does not limit the location of the bridge on any particular street, and if the Ordinance be amended as we suggest, there will be no difficulty in the matter unless the owners of the franchise should object, and we imagine they will not. We hope the Council will act on the matter."

WANTED IMMEDIATELY—MEN!—The Star thinks the great want of the age is men. Men that neither brag nor run. Men that neither flinch nor flag; men who have courage without shouting it. Men who know their places and fill them. Men who mind their own business. Men who will not lie. Men who are not too lazy to work, nor too proud to be poor. Men who are willing to eat what they have earned, and wear what they have paid for.

A gentleman, recently married in Chicago, presented his bride at the wedding with the original transcript of one of the first dispatches ever sent over the first telegraph line, from Baltimore to Washington. It was the announcement to the lady's grandmother of her birth, and read, "Only a girl."

Daniel Webster once said: "I well remember a marked difference between those of my schoolmates who had, and those who had not, access to newspapers. Other things being equal, the first were always superior to the latter in debate, composition and general intelligence."

In Switzerland all voting is done on Sunday. Indiana now produces glass which rivals that of France. In 1860 and 1861 Horace Greeley advocated peaceable secession. Horace Greeley was then and is now opposed to Woman Suffrage.

"I will preach from that portion of de Scripture dis evening," said a colored dominie, "whar the postle Paul puts his pistol at de phesians." The voice of conscience is so delicate that it is easy to stifle it; but so it is also so clear that it is impossible to mistake it.—Madame de Staël.

John Hay, it is said, has made $100,000 by dabbling in stocks. That ought to enable him to live without writing such stuff as "Little Brooches." A lady of Newburg, Maine, has framed the verdict a jury gave in her favor in a suit of breach of promise of marriage, and has hung it in the parlor as a warning to triflers.
