

REMOVAL

The office of the New Northwest has been removed from the corner of Third and Washington streets to the Oregonian building on Stark street.

FINANCIAL NOTICE

With this issue we send bills to those in arrears, also calling for advance payment on the second volume. We are compelled to adopt the cash system.

SEXUAL POLITICS

In looking over the piles of exchanges that were laid away for our personal consideration upon our return, we find much that would have made times lively for the newspaper business had we been at our post before the allusions to and criticisms upon ourself in particular and Woman Suffrage in general.

for casting mire and dirt at the leaders in the Woman Movement.

Since the above was written, General Grant has reformed from another bad habit of which he last March was guilty, the pernicious one of ignoring or snubbing the taxed, misrepresented and protesting half of his people.

THE SENATORIAL CONTEST

The Senatorial contest waxed fierce and hot. J. H. Mitchell and H. W. Corbett, the two opposing candidates, are both strongly supported, but the signs of the times indicate that Mitchell is ahead.

WOMEN'S MEDICAL COLLEGE

This institute will begin its tenth annual term of twenty weeks at the new college on Twelfth street, corner of Second Avenue, New York, October 15th.

IMPORTANT CHANGE

The public were startled last Wednesday morning by the announcement at the head of the Oregonian's editorial columns that H. W. Scott, who had been that paper's editor-in-chief for over seven years, had withdrawn from his position.

ANSWERS TO CORRESPONDENTS

In looking over the immense bundles of letters, of both public and private nature, that accumulated during our absence, we find much which required our prompt personal attention, and we are very sorry it could not have been given.

THE GAULDRON BOILS

OLYMPIA, W. T., Sept. 7, 1872. Mrs. Dunway—You will doubtless understand why I have taken so little interest in canvassing for the New Northwest.

women whose intellects and earnestness I so much admired go so squarely counter to all their former professions.

TERITORIAL NEWS

The town of Olympia is being surveyed. Lewiston has three dogs to every inhabitant. Transactions in real estate in Olympia are improving.

FASHION

Pretty women often want something to put in their hair at an evening that looks dressy and is not anything like a cap. They are advised, whether pretty or old, or not old or pretty at all, to purchase about a yard of claret velvet, and the same quantity of claret ribbon.

WOMAN

A woman, notwithstanding she is the best of listeners, knows her business, and she should not be so easily pleased, but she must have something in her voice or expression, or both, which makes you feel better disposed towards your race to look at or listen to.

GOOD ADVICE

Those who are not easy at home will not find enjoyment anywhere else. The man who yearns at his own fireside will only increase his misery if he goes to a crowded city.

mistake. Caused by employing a new mailing clerk. It will not happen again.

YREKA: WE CANNOT AFFORD IT.

Mrs. L. from Exeter, Maine, writes: "When the paper comes in bright and new from the office, there somehow comes, softly floating about me, dear faces of friends in East Portland, and after I have read its crisp, bright paragraphs, I invariably lie down at night to pleasant dreams."

A MOTHER'S WANTS TO KNOW HOW

A mother wants to know how to cure a rising upon the hand of her little boy, "which spreads and festers until it is getting very troublesome."

THE "STANDARD" AND THE "NEW NORTHWEST"

A few weeks since the Standard contained a number of quotations from Mrs. Dunway in the New Northwest showing that she was in the Territory many years ago, his conduct personally was deserving of censure in a moral point of view.

There is an article about in the papers entitled "Golden rules for wives," which enjoins on the ladies a quiet submission to their husbands' wills and whims.

HINTS FOR HUSBANDS

Fidelity is her heart's first and most just demand. The act of infidelity a true woman cannot forgive; it rudely breaks the ties that bound her heart to his, and that she can never consent to be a second wife to a man who has been so unfaithful to her.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN PLATFORM

For President, FLYNNIS N. GRANT. For Vice President, HENRY WILSON.

Presidential Electors, A. B. McEacham, of Umatilla County, W. B. Hare, of Washington County, Jas. F. Gauley, of Douglas County.

REPUBLICAN PARTY OF THE UNITED STATES

Assembled in National Convention in the city of Philadelphia, on the 22nd day of June, 1872, and after a full and free discussion of the various questions before the country:

RESOLUTIONS

1. During the eleven years of the secession of the Southern States, the Southern States have lost the equal citizenship of all and established universal suffrage. Excluding millions of men from political and civil rights, and the rights of naturalized citizens secured from European nations.

RESOLUTIONS

2. Complete liberty and equal rights in the enjoyment of all civil, political and public rights, secured by the Constitution, shall be maintained throughout the Union by efficient and impartial administration of the law. Neither law nor its administration should admit of any discrimination in respect to citizens by reason of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

RESOLUTIONS

3. The National Government seeks to maintain an honorable peace with all nations, protecting its citizens and its territory, and dealing with all peoples who strive for greater liberty.

RESOLUTIONS

4. Any system of civil service under which the subordinate positions of the Government are filled by political patronage, is entirely demoralizing, and we therefore favor a reform of the system, by a law which shall abolish the system of patronage, and secure efficiency and fidelity in the essential positions of public office.

RESOLUTIONS

5. We are opposed to further grants of public lands to corporations and monopolies, and demand that the National domain be kept apart for the use of the people.

RESOLUTIONS

6. The annual revenue, after paying current debts, should furnish a moderate balance for the reduction of the public debt, and except so much as may be derived from a tax on tobacco and lottery, should be applied to the improvement of the public lands, and to the securing of remunerative wages to laborers, and to the promotion of the growth and prosperity of the whole country.
