

HOME NEWS

Go to-morrow night to Maybell's benefit at the Grand Opera House. You'll hear of "Woman's Rights and Suffrage."

Miss Clara Watt, a graduate of the Willamette University, has been engaged as an assistant in the Corvallis College.

The Grand Army of the Republic will give a grand concert and ball next Tuesday evening at the skating rink. Of course there will be a rush.

The Y. M. C. A.'s concert at Masonic Hall on Wednesday evening was a grand success. The attendance was large and the music of a very superior order.

The thanks of this office are due to C. H. Payne, Esq., for the present of a delicious ham, which has been a palatable accompaniment to eggs and coffee during the week.

A city correspondent wishes to know whether or not the Portland Literary Society propose to give an entertainment, as he wishes to confer with the manager on the subject.

Go to F. Hays, no 50 Morrison St., for all kinds of work in Human Hair; to Fabre, at the Central Market, for the best hot coffee; to P. G. Stewart, St. Charles Hotel Building, for clocks, watches and jewelry; to Spaulding Bros., Central Market, for fresh meats; to Hachensy & Stemme for garden seeds; to Krumbien & Gilbert for a plan for your house, and—see our ads. Don't deal with anybody who won't patronize the NEW NORTHWEST.

According to the San Francisco Chronicle there is a minister in this State who does not practice what he preaches. That paper says: "Mrs. Parker, a lady in destitute circumstances was recently turned out of the Western Hotel and her trunk seized for debt, and, with her four children, is now living with a friend at No. 235 Minna street. Her husband is James W. Parker, a lawyer in Yreka, and it is said he refuses to aid her, as does her father-in-law, a minister of the gospel and advocate of the doctrine of charity, who is now at Roseburg, Oregon."

The Statesman says that Superintendent Odense has just received orders from the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, to visit, without delay, the Nez Percés Indians, who have for many years lived in Wallowa Valley, Oregon, and who object to whites settling upon lands claimed by the Indians, and arrange, if possible, for their early removal to the Reservation belonging to the tribe in Idaho. If they refuse to go, he is authorized to ascertain their views and make arrangements for their remaining in said valley or locating them at some other place to be agreed upon.

For the very best photographs, go to Bradley & Bullock's Gallery without STAIRS—ASCENDING IN THE ELEVATOR, 42 Montgomery St., San Francisco.
