The New Morthwest.

fills. A. J. BUNIWAY, Editor and Proprietor

OFFICE-Cor. Front and Stark Streets

TERMS, IN ADVANCE:

ADVERTISEMENTS Inserted on Reasonable

[Written for the New Northwest.]

The Future Life. The future life-O, what can it be

To those who have passed the shore, And floated away with the boutman death,

Aye, gone to return no more. O, what must it be to see the one That were laid so cold and white Neath the riods of the valley to moulde BWMS.

Transformed to spirits of light, O, what must it be if music rolls From the lips of angel bands,

And schoes along with rapturing song Through bright and gifteious lands,

O, what must it be where the perfume flowers

Forever floats in the air, Where the soul is filled with happiness till

There's no erevice for grief or en If eye has not seen, or ear ever heard,

Or mind conceived of the bliss That the inther of love has prepared above For the children he takes from this,

Then let us with putience watch and wait, For there's joy in believing the story That the crucified one will surely come And take us with him to that glory, MES. E. H. TAYLOR.

ELLEN DOWD, THE PARMER'S WIFE.

PART SECOND.

(Entered according to the Act of Congress in duties. But she did not regain her for- a house built." day of convalescence was spent over the money," solfloquizingly, "but I guess ed a frosty coat of respiration in the wash-tub, from force of habit as well as Pll have to do it. What sort of a house sharp, crisp air. necessity. This of course brought on a must it be?" new attack of physical and mental pros- Ah, Peter, what a helpless creature down.

himself.

times, and in a feeble, listless way do of my tale that is to follow would not what she could for their comfort, but have to be recorded; for the overburshe grew weaker continually until by dened wife would have lived in comparthe autumn time she was seldom able ative comfort, and her health and monious little ones, and a stolld glance free from care. Sometimes her chilof contempt at the man who had blight- dren would be sent for to visit her, but vows and left my bed and board withed her life through a blasphemy of what nothing could induce her to receive her the world, in its ignorance, sometimes husband's calls.

was a large-framed, brawny-handed be not judged." Dear friends, do we woman, with fiery black eyes, coarse bair, and rather regular features, fine hair, and rather regular features, fine glance at the cabin and its surroundings was one of mingled surprise and contempt. She had heard that Peter Dowd was rich, and had expected to see a substantial feature.

Was a large-framed, brawny-handed be not judged." Dear friends, do we obey this admonition? Let us try.

Peter Dowd's family, consisting of the Master which would go obey this admonition? Let us try.

Peter Dowd's family, consisting of the Master which would go obey this admonition? Let us try.

Peter Dowd's family, consisting of the master stuation made it possible, a good wife to the King, her continued in obey this admonition? Let us try.

Peter Dowd's family, consisting of the master which would go obey this admonition? Let us try.

Peter Dowd's family, consisting of the Master which would go obey this admonition? Let us try.

Peter Dowd's family, consisting of the seek and to save that which is obey distributed to the King, her continued in obey this admonition? Let us try.

Peter Dowd's family, consisting of the seek and to save that which is obey distributed to the King, her continued in obey dust-falls over the water trough forth to seek and to save that which is obey distributed to the King, her continued in obey dust-falls over the water trough forth to seek and to save that which is obet, and the man, mearly fort the Master which would go obey this admonition? Let us try.

Peter Dowd's family, consisting of the Master which would go obey this admonition? Let us try.

Peter Dowd's family, consisting of the Master which seek and to save that which is obey. If you make prayer a prelude to the King, her continued in obey dust-falls over the water trough forth to seek and to save that which is obet, and the man, mearly forth to seek and to save that which is obet, and the man, were confortably in obey. We play them the close, the high good wife to the Ki cured a house-keeper. The new recruit like provocation. "Judge not that ye stantial frame or brick farmhouse, and Every day the strong-willed, hardemptorily silenced. "I should like to know," said Polly Had such a woman crossed his path

Jew Northwest

PREE SPEECH, FREE PRESS, FREE PROPLE.

VOLUME II.

PORTLAND, OREGON, FRIDAY, JULY 4, 1873.

ESTHER.

The scene of the story is laid almost on SUNDAY, JUNE 15TH.

NUMBER 48.

I stay here and keep house for you and task. this troop of young ones, you've got to One day, after the twain had held a the settling ashes on the mantelpiece Jacob Graham.

been too badly outraged to expostulate always locks me out." or apologize, but now, the prospect of retaining a bouse-keeper and cook must swer, "I never saw a man yet that knew not be lost sight of, and the man became how to manage anything. I'll dress up

"I meant to build last fall," he said, to see her." Then pressing her hands get two hundred acres of improved bot- hell itself to see my boy!" fom land, Joining this, at a bargain, and lican party is mindful of its obligations that country, came upon the remains of the loyal women of America, for their I couldn't afford to miss the opportun- Dowd.

ily adjusting the disordered room.

do that, you know, but when she saw sought the adjacent highway, "my my heart was set on it she didn't return little boy is dead, dead, dead! Ob, another word."

the year 1872 by Mrs. A. J. Duniway, in the ofBee of the Librarian of Congress at Washington A. J. Duniway, in the ofBee of the Librarian of Congress at Washington A. J. Duniway, in the ofBee of the Librarian of Congress at Washington A. J. Duniway, in the ofBee of the Librarian of Congress at Washington A. J. Duniway, in the ofBee of the Librarian of Congress at Washington A. J. Duniway, in the ofBee of the Librarian of Congress at Washington A. J. Duniway, in the ofBee of the Librarian of Congress at Washington A. J. Duniway, in the ofBee of the Librarian of Congress at Washington A. J. Duniway, in the ofBee of the Librarian of Congress at Washington A. J. Duniway, in the ofBee of the Librarian of Congress at Washington A. J. Duniway, in the ofBee of the Librarian of Congress at Washington A. J. Duniway, in the ofBee of the Librarian of Congress at Washington A. J. Duniway, in the ofBee of the Librarian of Congress at Washington A. J. Duniway, in the ofBee of the Librarian of Congress at Washington A. J. Duniway, in the ofBee of the Librarian of Congress at Washington A. J. Duniway, in the ofBee of the Librarian of Congress at Washington A. J. Duniway, in the ofBee of the Librarian of Congress at Washington A. J. Duniway, in the ofBee of the Librarian of Congress at Washington A. J. Duniway, in the ofBee of the Librarian of Congress at Washington A. J. Duniway, in the ofBee of the Librarian of Congress at Washington A. J. Duniway, in the ofBee of the Librarian of Congress at Washington A. J. Duniway, in the ofBee of the Librarian of Congress at Washington A. J. Duniway, in the ofBee of the Librarian of Congress at Washington A. J. Duniway, in the ofBee of the Librarian of Congress at Washington A. J. Duniway, in the ofBee of the Librarian of Congress at Washington A. J. Duniway, in the ofBee of the Librarian of Congress at Washington A. J. Duniway, in the ofBee of the Librarian of Congress at Washington A. J. Duniway, in the ofBee of the Librarian of Con See of the Literarian of Congress at Washington determination flashing from her great perately in love with him. I'm in love still exists and, as described by the law of the Massiah. The songs of Deborah. "Hallelyinh Chorus" in the Messiah. form; that the Republican party of Massiah. black eyes, the woman answered:

It has already been said that Ellen house and I will stay a year or two with cake's dough, that's all!" gradually recovered from her severe in- you. But I won't live in this old hogdisposition and resumed her accustomed pen only just long enough for you to get for the dancing snow-flakes as they glory flie the remaining marks of greatness and structure. But she did not regain her for the dancing snow-flakes as they glory flie the structure and as they glory flie the structure of the remaining marks of greatness and some flakes as they glory flie the structure of the remaining marks of greatness and some flakes as they glory flie the structure of the remaining marks of greatness and some flakes as they glory flie the structure of the remaining marks of greatness and some flakes as they glory flie the structure of the remaining marks of greatness and some flakes as they glory flie the structure of the flie of the structure of the structure of the flie of the structure of the structure tration, followed in a few days by an- a man becomes when he finds himself other attempt at overwork; and these in the power of a woman who is stronger quized. "Ellen never loved me, and I alternatives of toil and prostration con- willed than he. If Ellen had been cre- haven't been the best husband in the tinued until one day the rupture of a ated on your plane, mentally and physblood vessel aroused her husband and leally, you'd have been one of the tam-Ziek Hamilton to a realization of the est and most tractable men alive. But fact that, let the expense be what it she couldn't stoop to command you, and after all that don't excuse her for leavmight, aid for the worn-out woman in you took advantage of the fact to overthe labors of the household had become ride her strongest and truest sentiments. Had Death but claimed her ere the A rough, stout girl from the neighbor- opening of the second part of this story, ing village was employed in the wretch- Polly Jones could have married you, ed home and installed in the low and doubtless would, in conformity to kitchen as mistress. But one day of the existing mortal laws, and I might have busy shelling corn, when Peter opened constant toil that Ellen had borne for been spared the further recital of poor ed for more endurable quarters. An. Jones demanded. As her ideal was exother and yet another woman was em. cessively commonplace, the edifice was ployed with like results, until Peter not an expensive one, yet when finished found it impossible to retain the men in it was commodious enough and comhis employ, who were engaged in fene- fortable, and had Ellen had it years being and otherwise improving his last fore, in lieu of a thousand dollar horse new farm, unless he should become cook her husband had fancied, or one of the dozen farms they had purchased with Ellen would notice the children some- the proceeds of their united toil, much strength endured for years. Then, too, Dr. Goff, who had paid little heed to were this story written merely to please the coarse insults of Peter Dowd when the fancy of the multitude, or to cater on a former occasion he had striven to to the morbid taste of the romance-lovarouse him to a sense of his duty ing reader, it would be eminently towards his wife, had been Ellen's at- proper that my heroine should here lay tendant physician all through the sum- down her life, and leave Peter Dowd, mer, and now, seeing the impossibility who has evidently found his match in of making her comfortable in the will and work, to become his legal wife, wretched cabin of the rich land-owner, after a few short months of mourning; he suggested to uncle Jacob Graham the but this story is not all a story, and necessity of removing her to his house, poor Ellen did not die. She only lin-To this all parties readily assented, and gered on for months and months, takthe world-weary wife, with a tearful ing little interest in passing events, and good-bye to her troop of noisy, inhar- seeming thoroughly contented to be calls marriage, gave a sigh of relief as I do not say that Ellen's conduct was her on my account, as I will pay no the wagon rolled away from the door, right. It may be better to endure and debts of her contracting from and after taking her, as she hoped, forever from die than throw away the bands that this date." the scene of so much personal wretch- bind us, but my heroine was not an angel, as I have before explained, and I Katie, the child of Ziek and Sarah do not care to picture her as such. But Hamilton, was now house-keeper in I do emphatically declare that many Jacob Graham's house, and with much and indeed most, if not all, of the bad zest and good will did she enter upon acts of men and women are the direct than I have to see how obstacles trithe task of pursing back to life the pale, result of mental and physical disease. wrecked sufferer, who would lie listess- And rather than severely censure Ellen dren, and incapable, invalid, or dissily for hours upon the lounge beneath Dowd for openly acting in accordance pated husbands, surmounting himthe window where morning glories were with her long-cherished secret thoughts, giving way to chrysanthemums, and let me say to you, good reader, who the maple leaves were donning their stand serenely upon proud heights of richest coats of amber, gold and brown. fancied purity, neither you nor I know sturdy self-reliance and creditable pride, For the fourth time Peter Dowd se- that we should act differently under by steady industry, buying and building other evidences of comfort, if not of lux-not be not of lux-not over the poor slave to lands and the morrow, on which he cannot work. Peter, poor fellow, had become some- gold, who was the legal husband of what humbled by the necessities of his Ellen Dowd. The woman was as shrewd situation as house-keeper, therefore he as unscrupulous. She managed by askwould listen now to insinuations in re- ing indirect questions to gain a pretty gard to his surroundings from fear of correct knowledge of the business affairs making paper bags with a satchel botbeing left alone, such as had Ellen dared of her employer, and also sought, in tom, and has refused $50,000 for the patto make as his wife, he would have perevery way, to gain his favor and stir up ent. The other has a patent for a selfemptorily silenced. animosity against his wife.

Jones, the new recruit, brandishing a before he had so far deteriorated in his great home-made broom as she spoke, pursuit of great possessions as to lose all first baby was born, was holding it on great part of which he was, and sending a cloud of ashes from the sense of refinement, I have no doubt but his knee. His wife said, "Now, confess, The unscrupulous character

Mr. Dowd, where's the use o' being rich to continue in the path and grow worse if this is the way you've got to live. If and worse seems a comparatively easy build a new house this very fall. That's long private consultation, this woman flat!" bringing down the broom with a prevailed upon Peter Dowd to seek an 14:29. sudden thud, and blowing vigorously at interview with Ellen at the residence of

"I can't tell how I'll manage it, little Bob and you may carry him over

"Nothing," was the nervous answer. "How did your wife like such a state "I had a boy once, but he's dead. Yes," Standing with both hands clasping my home, and now I shall retaliate.

Peter stalked onward with his head world-that's a fact. I might have built her a house, and hired help, and ing my bed and board and taking uput stop! I shan't accuse her vet!" Ellen was sitting before a roaring fire of maple logs engaged in knitting stockings for her children. Katie was reading aloud, and uncle Jacob Graham was

"Will you go home and do your duty as a wife and mother, Ellen ?" The question was asked with stern se-

"That's a mighty poor way to win her back, Peter," said Uncle Jacob, feel-

The husband lost all control of both temper and reason. He bitterly accused the poor, weak wife of infidelity and Jacob Graham of crime.

Ellen fainted from fright and surprise, and her aged protector and friend, roused to fury by the horrid accusation. ordered him to leave the house

Peter Dowd strode out of the house, and making his way to the village, sought the residence of a magistrate. Three hours later, and a petition for divorce was served upon the unhappy woman for the high crime of matrimonial infidelity.

The next issue of the county newspaper contained the following advertisement:

"WHEREAS, my wife, Ellen Dowd has been unfaithful to her marriage out cause or provocation from me, I hereby warn all persons not to harbor

WILL CONOUERS POVERTY .- I have been far oftener surprised to see how the will to work triumphs over obstacles umph over the will to work. Right and left are women with infant childrances, and earning not only a living, but a competence, by sheer pluck, or if that is not an admissible word, will. I see men with indifferent health, but houses, lifting mortgages, growing gradindependence; which permits the day-laborer to live bountifully on to-day's -Gail Hamilton.

Two New England women are making money as inventors with delightful rapidity. One invented a machine for the ancient palace of Shushan, mentioned in the books of Esther and the hanging of Haman's sons. Daniel. The locality answers to the re- One whose name is dear to the church, your hearts will swell with the joy that the honest demands of any class of citiof things?" queried Polly, still busshe continued, as she watched the deceived tradition of its position; and the inspires the breasts of the Jews, as they zens for additional rights should be lighted child, as borne upon his father's internal evidence, arising from its corres- choir of heaven, the echo of whose mel-"O, she fretted at first. Women will shoulder through the deep snow they that, you know, but when she saw sought the adjacent highway, "my have the below with leading the adjacent highway, "my have the below with leading the adjacent highway, "my have the below with leading the adjacent highway, "my have the below with leading the adjacent highway, "my have the below with leading the adjacent highway, "my have the below with leading the adjacent highway, "my have the below with leading the below with the description of the palling the below with leading the below with the description of the palling the below with the below almost to a demonstration. If you will -has put this Bible story into song; and with laughter and our tongue with sing- valor or principle were the issue, went Ellen Dowd, another woman stole into my home, and now I shall retaliate.

Mark Twain, a few months after his

Her stupid husband thinks I am desmarble in that palace. That pavement they tell me that some of you propose to so far ahead of the National platform, as ment of red and blue and white and black marble in that palace. That pavement they tell me that some of you propose to so far ahead of the National platform, as to boldly declare: "The Lord hath done great things for approve of the recognition of the Rights of Woman contained in the fourteen with his property, I'll admit, and if that chief officer, Col. Williams, cor- I am glad of it. The songs of Deborah, "Hallelujah Chorus" in the Messiah, form; that the Republican party of Masture. And in the marble columns, the dilapidated ruins, the sculpture, and the remarks to the re "You can sult yourself, sir. Build a wife doesn't come to her senses her responds to the description in Scriptor of Miriam, and of the Virgin Mary, of will hear it ringing grandly again in such as the responds to the description in Scriptor of Miriam, and of the Virgin Mary, of will hear it ringing grandly again in such as the responds to the description in Scriptor of Miriam, and of the Virgin Mary, of will hear it ringing grandly again in such as the responds to the description in Scriptor of Miriam, and of the Virgin Mary, of will hear it ringing grandly again in such as the responds to the description in Scriptor of Miriam, and of the Virgin Mary, of will hear it ringing grandly again in such as the responds to the description in Scriptor of Miriam, and of the Virgin Mary, of will hear it ringing grandly again in such as the responds to the description in Scriptor of Miriam, and of the Virgin Mary, of will hear it ringing grandly again in such as the responds to the description in Scriptor of Miriam, and of Science and the responds to the description in Scriptor of Miriam, and of Science and the responds to the description in Scriptor of Miriam, and of the Virgin Mary, of will hear it ringing grandly again in such as the responds to the description in Scriptor of Miriam, and of Science and the responds to the responds to the description and the responds to the res Little Bobby reached forth his fingers dilapidated ruins, the sculpture, and most beautiful and affective portions of the triumphant revelling of the doxol- ican citizens, irrespective of sex, and for the dancing snow-flakes as they flit-ted by, and called aloud to winter robins glory that are scattered around, the com-toilet tables of the ladies of our day, have cers along Mason and Dixon's line, and Heaven?"

In the third year of Ahasuerus was held a burghers of Elsenach and won from great feast and assembly in Shushan, the them his morsel of bread. palace. In the seventh year of his reign After Christine Nillson had sung in and earlier prophets.

ify the malice of Haman.

sway over him; but his pride overleaps You will hear Esther's exhortation to SERMON DELIVERED BY THE REV. I. B. EATON Itself. It is said that the Book of Esther prayer and fasting, followed by that IN THE FIRST CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH ON is read through by the Jews at the feast most touching and fervent petition of of Purim, and it is still the custom in the Jews in the attitude of the suppli-"In that day shall there be upon the bells of some synagogues, at the mention of cant: "To Thee, O Lord, we raise our he horses, Holiness unto the Lord," Zech. Hamon's name to him and storm of cant: "To Thee, O Lord, we raise our Haman's name, to hiss and stamp and cries. Our fervent prayer in mercy with the Toledo Blade in its demand for clench the fist and cry: "Let his name hear; for ruin waits our trembling soul, the enfranchisement of woman; the site of the old Garden of Eden; that be blotted out; may the name of the if Thou refuse a gracious ear," along is, near the junction of the rivers Tigris wicked rot," It is said, also, that the with the sure promise, "He that goeth Had Elien dared to thus insult her lied a dozen times to see her, and she leen too hadly outraged to exposition of the rivers lights on the borders of the leen too hadly outraged to exposition of the rivers lights on the borders of the leen too hadly outraged to exposition of the rivers lights on the borders of the leen too hadly outraged to exposition of the rivers lights on the borders of the leen too hadly outraged to exposition of the rivers lights and Euphrates, on the borders of the one breath to signify that they all exposition of the rivers lights and Euphrates, on the borders of the one breath to signify that they all expositions are read in one breath to signify that they all exposition of the rivers lights and Euphrates, on the borders of the one breath to signify that they all expositions are read in the rivers lights. The researches in Palestine have so pired at the same instant of time. Even ing, bringing his sheaves with him." deeply engaged our attention, that we in writing the names of Haman's sons | Luther sang, "A strong fortress is our | Republican party was in Jeopardy, and have thought little, perhaps, of discoveries in other places. But in the the ninth chapter, we are told, that the "God is the refuge of his people, a very which threatened to be formidable, this vicinity of old Babylon the archeologist scribes have contrived to express their present help in trouble," with the exvicinity of old Babylon the archeologist finds rich reward for his pains. "Withapologetically, "but I had a chance to been its corner stone, that of reform, these ten names are written in three for in the Lord Jehovah is everlasting stamped upon its banner the following stamped upon its banner the following strength," and "Thou will been him in declaration of continuous of 2 2 and 4 as strength," and "Thou will been him in declaration of continuous of 2 2 and 4 as strength," and "Thou will been him in declaration of continuous of 2 2 and 4 as strength," and "Thou will been him in declaration of continuous of 2 2 and 4 as strength," and "Thou will been him in declaration of continuous of 2 2 and 4 as strength," and "Thou will been him in declaration of continuous of 2 2 and 4 as strength," and "Thou will be a str sioners, while engaged in a survey of perpendicular columns of 3, 3 and 4, as strength," and "Thou wilt keep him in declaration of sentiments: "The Repub like this: "Let me have the making of as there, obeyed."

their histories are verified by the peace- father was unable to support him. A preached? ful movements of the nations of our day. year after he removed to a better school But do you approve of the opera? I we shall see how their part of the friend-The time of the occurrence of the at Eisenach, where he had relatives, cannot say, just looking at the opera as filled. years sufficed for the woman who worked for pay. Had she been wife instead of servant she could have had no stead of servant she could ome might unthinkingly infer from its of a home. In that hospitable house stomach, just as I fear you may use officers of this same great national party position before the Psalms and Proverbs young Martin greatly extended his "author cards" to gamble with. Dan- which had acknowledged its obligations solution before the results and reverbs young Martin greatly extended his knowledge and laid broader the foundation for his subsequent great love of the principal persons are few in numbers.

The principal persons are few in numbers of the principal persons are few in numbers.

The principal persons are few in numbers of the principal persons are few in numbers.

The principal persons are few in numbers of the principal persons are few in numbers.

The principal persons are few in numbers of the principal persons are few in numbers.

The principal persons are few in numbers of the principal persons are few in numbers.

The principal persons are few in numbers of the principal persons are few in numbers.

The principal persons are few in numbers of the principal persons are few in numbers. The question was asked with stern severity, and in such a manner as no man would dream of accosting a woman not would be accosting a woman not would be accosting a woman not would be accosting a w ancient history, both from resemblances his youth! when at the light of his of the character and from coincidences greatness he would recall the fact. Yes! of time. Herodotus tells us that in the the same voice whose tones had shaken third year of the reign of Xerxes was held the empire of the world, had once in an assembly to plan the Grecian war. song melted the hearts of the humble

> Xerxes returned defeated from Greece the Oratorio of the Messiah in Chicago, and consoled himself by the pleasures Prof. Saml. C. Bartlett, one of the stoutof the harem, as Herodotus informs us. est defenders of sound doctrine, wrote to In the seventh year of the reign of Ahasu- the N. Y. Independent how rejoiced he erus fair young virgins were sought for was to hear the good Gospel of Christ him, and he replaced Vashti by marry- preached so effectively by a sweet-voiced ing Esther. The tribute he laid "upon woman, who moved in an atmosphere the land and upon the isles of the sea" of applause, winning the homage of all may have been the result of the expend- hearts; preached, too, to ungodly men iture and ruin of the Grecian expedi- who would never set foot within a church door. In the same way have I heard As Xerxes scourged the sea with good sermons in the Music Hall in Boschains in his unreasoning rage, and put tou when Christine Nillson and others to death the engineers of his bridge like her, have sung the stories told in over the straits of Dardanelles, because the Messiah, Elijah and the Creation. their work was injured by a storm, so Therefore I say, I am glad you are going Abasuerus repudiated his Queen Vashti to sing it here, and I hope it will be cre of the whole Jewish people to grat-drew forth such praises from the Chicago Professor. Sing with the spirit Esther attracts us by her beauty, which ought to animate the preacher; of soul and of face and form. That she sing to make men receive the truth; had a comely face and figure we know sing to make men better; sing in the by the people's sending her to the palace manner of a high and holy preaching—
>
> TROUBLE WITH THE HENS.—This is accepting, as its higher law, the emanthematic the season when every owner of heus is cipation of women, seems as yet dimly had a comely face and figure we know sing to make men better; sing in the and by the King's choice of her. Her only in higher and more moving meas- engaged in endeavoring to suppress the apprehended. Certain it is, however, beauty of soul we perceive from all her ures and with the help of "stringed in- maternal instincts in one or more of to bearing. "She appears as a woman of deep piety, faith, courage, patriotism and caution, combined with resolution, a dutiful daughter to her acting father, docile and obedient to his counsels and could be deep piety. To sing at all you cannot indulge a pettish and fault-finding spirit; for you have doubtless tried the experiment of singing when docile and obedient to his counsels and the wife observes: "That yaller pullet is on the nest again." Then the man goes out to the coop, and says: "What in thunder is the matter with the beast, and crawlis in under the most eventually sweep the stakes. The animus of the dominant property from the acts for which they are propossible, cannot be mistaken. Never anxious to share the King's favor with ble. To sing better, you must banish brings out a handful of feathers. Then him for the good of the Jewish people. all hatred of men from your hearts. To the hen screams and starts for the door, That she was a virtuous woman and, as sing best of all, you must have the and the other hens set up a howl, and ward woman, transpired. In the whole far as her situation made it possible, a spirit of the Master which would go the man—nearly choked by feathers and in opposition to woman's rights, similar ing the conspiracy against the King, will hear some of the truest words ever and in his wise planning to save his uttered, and be swayed by some of the nation. He is probably the author of noblest emotions and aspirations that the book. For as Ezra, Nehemiah and ever stirred human breast. You will mer elasticity or strength. Her first day of converge was a series at the day of converge was a series of the day of the day

Not far from the palace stands a tomb. the ballads of a nation and I care not Passing along by the "Court of Death" On it is sculptured the figure of a man who makes her laws." You can sing in the evening I have sometimes bound hand and foot, with a huge lion into the character of the people the heard the sound of music and singing. cepted the Republican recognition, and in the act of springing upon him. No fidelity, the patriotism and the piety If the voice of song and of the stringed their influence, and in many cases their history could relate more graphically the story of "Daniel in the lions' den." which you cannot legislate into them. or wind instrument will draw men into the "Court of Death," why may we not allegistate. The Persian arrow-heads were found our national songs has had to do with rescue the music and singing and tune upon the palace and the tomb. Glass preserving us from the necessity of sta- it to the voice of the angelic chimes, en were employed by Republican Centerth bottless elegant as those placed upon the tioning a string of Custom House offi- and so draw men into the "Court of trail Committees, and did good service. bottles, elegant as those placed upon the tioning a string of Custom House offl- and so draw men into the "Court of been discovered, with other modifica- from having to build forts on the crest If music fills the floor of the "Ivy delivered more effective speeches, than tions of art and refinement, which bear of the Rocky Mountains?

Oreen Saloon," why may it not be used any which were made in the whole wayward feet to the Western States during the campaign. out the statements of the Bible. Thus of the Hall of the "Oratorio," The party thus offering its support to over 2,000 years after the historians of can school at Magdeburg, he used to Esther and Daniel made their records, sing in the streets for his bread, as his where men may hear the gospel return, gained in strength and power;

"Esther," as they are out of the other that the jurors of that county had be-Oratorios, as the Messiah and the Crea- come too well educated in the principles tion, and then it would not border so of justice and equality. The hunted closely upon the Opera. But it must be judged upon its own merits, and not bad helped to place in power, had spoken be judged upon its own merits, and not among the people setting forth the true hampered with the weight of abuses, arguments in the case and the jury to for which it is not responsible.

The noble sentiments and emotions are there, and the noble music to express them is there, and I would that all ment regarded them as biased and unfit the singers and the listeners might be to render impartial judgment.

We turn now to Massachusetts, and the whole attitude of the Republican moved by a noble spirit. Judge the Oratorio by the same rules party through its Republican legislawhich I laid down in my sermon of this ture, is basely treacherous toward its unfit you for your proper work, either legislation by the language of its members, and treating them like children, mentally or physically? Does it disin- with violated promises. In our own cline you to public or private devotion? State we find a Republican Judge Does it induce in you a a triffing spirit?

Do you come away from the hall overand honorable fivelihood, for the sole and only reason that she is a woman. excited, heated, flushed, sensual? Then In Illinois, a Judge of the Supreme you will join me in the saying it is Court, sustained by this same party wrong for you to go to the Oratorio of which had offered respectful considera upon how far you can take God with quiring a thorough legal education, to because she would not violate the desung with that same earnestness of corum of her sex, and ordered a massa- spirit and fidelity to the truth which spirit. in the evening .- Figaro.

the book. For as Ezra, Nehemiah and ever stirred human breast. You will baniel are appointed to record the acts in which they took a prominent part, in which you ever listened. There will to which you ever listened. There will a practical man and uttered many wise a mends, by laboring now to place with the line and trathful anyting. many of which occurred in this same be the bacchanalian song of the King and truthful sayings. They were truthen and truthful sayings. They were truthen and truthful sayings. They were truthen and truthful sayings in his day, and are just as truthful near the anti-slavery veterans of former days, with tradition, it is likely that Morde- alloy the zest of royal fare; then, while men and young women the golden with tradition, it is likely that Morde-cai was left to write this history, a great part of which he was.

alloy the zest of royal fare; then, while men and young women—the golden rule of life is "keep out of debt." If you have not the means to pay for beef, eat dry bread—but don't get in debt. If The unscruptious character of Haman, voice of the prophet, "Lo! over the dry bread—but don't get in debt. If you to the rightful claims of women, the Grand Vizier of the Persian mon, wicked in hours that seem highest, but select a calico one and plank down dry earthen hearth over the slab mantel, surmounted by a gun resting on deers' horns; "I should like to know, "I should like to know," retrace one's steps is hard indeed, while little thing for its father's sake."

The unscrupulous character of Haman, voice of the prophet, "Lo! over the slab manbe would have spurned her; but the Grand Vizier of the Persian monwicked in hours that seem highest, but select a calico one and plank down ward road once entered upon, to "but I'm willing to admit I respect the dry bread—but don't get in debt. If you can't pay for a silk dress, don't order it, but select a calico one and plank down of death is imworked in hours that seem highest, but select a calico one and plank down your cash, but don't go in debt. This is how to be free.

The New Northwest

A Journal for the People. Devoted to the Interests of Humanity.

Independent in Politics and Religion. Alive to all Live Issues, and Thoroughly Radical in Opposing and Exposing the Wrongs tres must make known their names to the Editor, or no attention will be given to their

THE LEAVEN IS WORKING.

We call the attention of the Republican leaders to the following editorial, published in the Toledo Sunday Jourual, a paper which ranks side by side

It is well occasionally that the Wom-great National Republican Convention, June 9th, 1872, when the success of the noble devotion to the cause of freedom: After the deliverance is accomplished their admission to wider fields of use Woman contained in the fourteen claration of sentiments as this of course drew all true womanly women, of that State at least, into the Republican ranks. and all over the country the women ac-

In several of the States eloquent wom-A Republican woman, employed by the Ohio Central Committee is said to have their candidates were elected; and now be qualified for the important duty, should be ignorant and unenlightened on the true principles of the great question at issue-otherwise the Republican govern-morning on "Amusements." Does it women, insulting them in the halls of Esther. How far you can go depends the town to the first women, refuses to allow a woman who has spent time and money in acered into political rights, have But I believe you can be made better their first lesson in politics, and their by going, if you will listen in the right sad experiences has now become distrust of parties. Whether a new party must be formed discarding the rubbish, gleaning what is best from the old, and to-day, that women, although gaining constantly in accessions of the good, and responsible, cannot be mistaken. Never before has similar political action, toin his refusing to make what seemed to him an idolatrous obeisance to the Prince Haman, in his fidelity in expostimes to show it how he feels, then he be without a party, unfileircumstances, men are ashamed of the shameful frauds which the last Congress adopted, so must they be a shamed of the oppression which has been developed under the

It is better to gaze upon bare walls than pictures unpaid for.