The Ashland Woolen Mills are offered for sale.

The public schools of this city opened last Monday.

The frame of the new steamboat at Marshfield is going up rapidly.

Seventy-five students are in attendance at the State Agricultural College.

The Albany Register has been reduced in size, and is now issued twice a week.

The Lane county Court has made a tax levy of seventeen mills on the dollar.

The Oregon City Seminary has reopened with an attendance of about 150 pupils.

The Baker City Academy opened last Monday with quite a large number of scholars.

Those in want of employment should call and see J. V. Allen, on First street, next door to the Occidental Hotel.

The Northwestern Stage Company will pay out in Eastern Oregon this fall, for grain, hay and straw, about $60,000.

The distance between Astoria and Cape Disappointment is fifteen miles, and from Astoria to Clatsop, seven miles.

It is thought that there were 200,000 bushels of wheat sold in the Albany market last Friday and Saturday at $1 a bushel.

Dr. S. W. McDowell, of Salem, is announced by "many citizens" of Marion county as their independent temperance candidate for Congress.

Mrs. Chamberlain began a course of lectures last night at the Court House. As we went to press before the lecture came off, we have no report to make further than to assure everybody that she is an extraordinary speaker.

Last Saturday afternoon as two gentlemen were walking through the dense timber some distance southwest of Marquette Gulch, they discovered the remains of an unknown man. From appearances the man must have been dead nearly a year. A large wound was made through the skull in the center of the forehead, and a revolver was found lying on his left breast. It has not been ascertained whether he was murdered or committed suicide.

Our friend Jacob Mayer, who is a constant patron of the New Northwest—and so, no wonder he prospers—is home again with a very large and well-selected stock of millinery and general merchandise, which he is prepared to sell to dealers at prices to suit the times. From long business association with this gentleman we are enabled to recommend his house to the many ladies of our acquaintance in the interior towns who desire to purchase some and desirable stocks of millinery wherewith to deck the belles and matrons who can all afford and will desire new hats and bonnets, now that what has "gone up."
