Willamette Engine Company No. 1 celebrated the 23rd anniversary of their organization in this city on Tuesday in grand style. Members of the Albany fire department participated in the festivities, which began upon the arrival of the Albany express and continued throughout the day, concluding with a grand ball in the rink at night. The day will be long and pleasantly remembered by the gallant firemen and their numerous friends in this city and Albany.

Wm. R. Boone, local reporter on the Bulletin, while on his way home at the close of his duties on Monday night, stepped in a hole in the pavement at the corner of First and Alder streets, and falling violently, dislocated his left knee joint. He was rendered unable to walk or stand, and was conveyed home on a litter. Dr. Caldwell was called, who rendered all the assistance possible, but it is thought that the accident will confine Mr. Boone to his room for some time. The condition of certain portions of our public thoroughfare is deplorable, and, as the foregoing proves, dangerous as well.

The Granger has samples of fax grown this season by Milton Houston, of Idan county, which are five feet long.

Wednesday of last week was a "sweeper" at Walla Walla. The mercury measured 100° in the shade. It was the hottest day of the season.

The circuit court of the State of Oregon for the county of Clatsop, will hold the regular term for August on Tuesday, the 10th day, Hon E. D. Shattuck, Judge.

The proposed division of Walla Walla county has many supporters, and it is not unlikely that the next Legislature will organize a new county, with Dayton as the chief county town.

Miss Mary M. Adams, for the past five years professor in Willamette University, Salem, has accepted a position as teacher at Virginia City, Nevada, consequently will not return to this State.

A prominent Granger states that there is a great scarcity of hard wheat in Walla Walla valley, and says that unless assistance is had from some quarter it will be difficult to harvest the crops.

Owing to the recent spell of warm weather in Douglas county, the grain has matured very fast, and on account of a scarcity of machinery to harvest the crops immediately, there will be quite a loss to the farmers.

The Union Pacific bridge over Dale creek, Wyoming, which is the highest structure on the overland mail route, is to be immediately replaced by a new iron Howe truss bridge, supported by iron columns and stone piers. The bridge is 120 feet above the water level.

It is stated that 150 wagons are now crossing the plains on route for Walla Walla and Eastern Oregon. These immigrants, it appears, have preferred the slow-going car-ping to the fast-running railroad, and are performing the entire journey in the slow way as the early pioneers of Oregon.

The Seattle Bulletin tells of a big tree that was cut at Rainier, W. T., a few days ago, the trunk of which was 22 feet in diameter. Another cut 22 feet in length, with a measurement of 26 inches at the top and 24 inches at the bottom, had been cut down, but it was not true of knots.

L. E. G. Abbott: An additional copy of the paper sent as per request. We are unable to account for the omission. Sorry that you missed them.

B. C. E. Adria: Address changed as desired. Will look through our files and supply the back numbers if possible. Sorry that you missed them.

Mrs. E. E. S. Willoughby: Credited to January 1, 1910. Answered the second question several weeks since. Will write you privately in a few days. Thanks for your kindly interest.

Mrs. M. A. L. Vancouver: Your paper has been sent regularly, and we have no means of knowing why we have not received it. We send again the numbers you have not yet received, and are sorry the vacation delay occurred.

W. S. Salem: Letter sent failed to explain anything whatever. Let us know in plain English who wants what, and we will try to attend to the matter.

"Dave" is not a very distinctive cognomen, though the owner thereof in this instance is evidently a generous fellow. Please explain.

ROBERT EVERTS.

Judge Barrett refused to receive an order of arrest in the six million suit against Tweed, or to reduce his bail.

Ben Bauman, for a long time proprietor and editor of the Miner's Journal, died on the 1st at Pottsville, Pa., aged 58 years.

At the spinners' meeting at Fall River, Mass., on Saturday night, it was voted to strike in three of the mills. The resolution carried by a vote of over two-thirds. This proceeding will without doubt cause a general lockout.

Reports from numerous points in Ohio, Indiana, Iowa, Illinois, and Missouri state that the frequent and heavy rains that have visited the Northwest during the past week have done great injury to the growing crops. In some sections whole farms were flooded. Wheat has suffered dreadfully. It is feared this crop will be almost a failure. In some localities in low lands the water is standing so deep as to prohibit harvesting. The crops on high or rolling ground are in better condition, but the average yield will probably be low even there.

The Sun says: "August Storm, treasurer of Plymouth Church, has paid to H. W. Beecher $20,000, as the first installment of his hundred thousand dollar salary. Two secret meetings of the board of trustees have been held in the past three weeks, and there has been much difference of opinion, bordering almost on dissension, as to how the remaining $70,000 shall be raised. The amount paid to Beecher was the surplus of new rents rented at the sales in January, and covers his regular twenty thousand." The Times says it is somewhat authoritatively stated that officials of Plymouth Church intend to raise $20,000 additional to be devoted to Beecher, by a mortgage on Bethel.

The editor of the Mendocino Democrat is highly pleased at the withdrawal of Laura DeForest Gorton from the editorial ranks of the Stockton Leader and says that "Mrs. G. certainly exhibits commendable taste." Now we would suggest, if only men are to fight the battle of this campaign, the editor of the Democrat better put on a checked apron, get him a hank of yarn and some knitting-needles, and a pair of brass-mounted spectacles, and retire from the stormy conflict.—Democratic Dispatch.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

Ladies who wish to have their own hair styled, or to have their hair styled for any kind of ornamental work for use or preservation, will do well to call on or send to Mrs. LARSON, Morrison street, between Second and Third. She does all such work very neatly and upon reasonable terms.

THE AMERICAN NEWSPAPER DIRECTORY is an up-to-date directory of the newspaper industry. It is also regarded as an official register of circulation. This feature receives the closest scrutiny to ensure it from leading to abuse. The plan adopted by the publishers of the Directory to secure correct and trustworthy reports is rigid in its requirements, and is adhered to with impartiality. Successful publishers, who have something to gain by recognition, are generally prompt, not only to send reports in conformity, but give Mr. G. P. Russell & Co. such information as enables them to weed out unsubstantiated statements of pretenses in journalism. The popularity of the book, and the general confidence in its accuracy and good character, are attested by the numerous orders for reprints.

MOORE & HALLAM, proprietors in J. P. Quinn's store, 127 and 129 First street, known as the San Francisco Boot and Shoe Store, respectfully say to his old patrons and the public generally that we have marked down the old stock from 25 to 50 per cent, and intend to sell regardless of cost, having this day received a large stock of new goods of the latest styles, which we will sell as cheap as the cheapest, endeavoring to sell all who may care to do so with these garments.
