

HOME NEWS.

Regular trips on the Upper Columbia were resumed on Wednesday.

Among the arrivals by the "Ajax" we note the wife and family of Senator Mitchell.

The "John L. Stephens" carried away $95,000 worth of salmon on her last down trip.

Bishop Scott's grammar school contained 63 pupils last term, 24 of whom were boarding pupils.

The Taylor-street M. E. Church will shortly purchase a pipe organ for that edifice at a cost of $10,000.

Dr. Hawthorne procured a fine display of fire-works for the amusement of the inmates of the insane asylum on Wednesday evening of last week.

Water, stagnant and slimy, is standing in low places in the northern portion of the city, slowly evaporating and emitting pungent odors, not of "Araby."

The decorations of many of the private residences in the city on Tuesday were quite tasteful, while the brilliant illumination of several in the evening was extremely grand.

The display and trial of the fire engines on Wednesday was both interesting and exciting. The Albany engine succeeded in throwing the farthest, and so bore away the prize medals.

Mr. D. H. Hendee has again returned to this city and resumed his old business of photographer at the gallery formerly occupied by Bosco & Megler. All those who desire a good picture should give him a call.

The Commercial Hotel, Front street, between Taylor and Salmon, offers excellent accommodations to guests at rates extremely reasonable. Extra care and attention will be shown to visitors during Centennial week.

The grand concert given at the Taylor-street M. E. Church on Wednesday evening was very interesting—so much so as to cause its repetition on the following evening. A large audience greeted the performance on each occasion.

The oration of Hon. J. W. Nesmith was, we are told, all that was expected for even the great occasion. We are compelled to speak of it in passing, as we neither had opportunity to listen to its delivery nor courage to read it as published.

A noticeable feature in the literary exercises of the Fourth was a fine poem, "The Boundless Age," written by Sam. L. Simpson, for the grand occasion, and read by Hon. Rufus Mallory in an impressive manner. We should be glad to publish it did our space permit.

Dr. J. L. York, of San Jose, Cal., will spend the coming summer in this State and Washington Territory in the interests of Free Thought and Liberalism. Those who desire to hear the lecturer and reform work can secure the services of Dr. York by addressing J. H. Fisk, Portland, Oregon.

The national flags which were drawn proudly to the masthead in honor of Centennial day, were dropped to half-mast on Thursday, in consequence of the sad news of the wholesale butchery of General Custer and his command by the Sioux Indians. "So swift trends sorrow on the heels of joy."

On next Sabbath, at half-past two in the afternoon, the Hall-street M. E. Sunday School will give their last monthly concert but one for the current ecclesiastical year. This will be the centennial concert of the school, and no efforts will be spared to make it a perfect success. All are cordially invited.

The "Guide Board," the last of the works of the late Dr. Hall, the great health reformer, is for the most valuable facts, hints, suggestions, cautions, and warnings, just such as nearly everybody needs. The name and standing of the author are sufficient guarantee against quackery and irresponsible advice. Let everybody possess themselves of a copy.

Mr. Jacob Mayer, of the well-known firm of Fleischner, Mayer & Co., will start to New York on the outgoing steamer for the purpose of purchasing the regular autumnal supply of everything stylish, useful, elegant, or desirable, for the accommodation of the immense trade. Mr. Mayer is the most judicious and extensive wholesale dry goods merchant in this city.

The celebration ceremonies of Centennial week passed off in this city according to program, and were witnessed and participated in by a large concourse of people. The various pleasures of the week were unmarred by accident or disturbance of any kind; the city was resplendent with bunting, resonant with music, gay with amusements, alive with people, and brimful of patriotism.

Mrs. Dr. A. Owens, of this city, furnishes another illustration of the fitness of women for the study and practice of medicine. This lady successfully and scientifically treats diseases that have defied the skill of many physicians whose praises have been much louder than their merits. We cordially recommend her to women especially—who are suffering with chronic ailments, to place themselves under the care of Dr. Owens. Office, First street, between Yamhill and Taylor.

Dr. Aldrich, whose skillful treatment of chronic diseases has long been in this State a well-deserved reputation as a first-class physician, can be found at his office in this city, 127 and 129 First street, always ready to lend a patient ear to the ailments that afflict humanity, and both ready and competent to prescribe for them successfully. Several cases of the most aggravated chronic disorders have recently yielded to his treatment. Chronic diseases, and diseases of women, a specialty. Persons requiring medical aid are invited to receive skillful treatment, and go on their way rejoicing. His office will be open for the accommodation of all who desire his services during Centennial week. Call and be healed.

In making up your lists of periodicals for 1876, don't forget the West Shore, the only illustrated paper published in Oregon, devoted to literature in general, and the resources of Oregon and Washington Territory in particular. The ablest writers in the State are contributors to its columns; the engravings are executed by the leading artists on the coast. As a family journal it stands the head of Pacific Coast publications; as a paper to send to friends abroad it has no equal—a single copy will give them a better idea of the Pacific Northwest than a year's number of any other paper. Sent postage paid for one year, $1.50; single copies, 20 cents. Address the publisher, L. Samuel, No. 5 Washington street, Portland, Oregon.

The base-ball matches attracted large crowds on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of last week. The first game of the series was played on the day first named, between the Pioneers of this city and the Spartans of Vancouver, the former winning by four runs; the second, between the Spartans and College club, of Salem, on Thursday, the latter winning by five runs; the third and last, between the College and Pioneers, on Friday, the latter winning by five runs. The Pioneers, having defeated both the other clubs, received the medals. The games were all played with spirit, each member of the several clubs working as if upon himself depended the victory. The interest felt by the friends of the contestants was manifested by loud and repeated cheering. Several thousand spectators were upon the grounds.

Utah offers the government a regiment of 1,200 men in ten days to avenge the death of Custer and exterminate the Sioux.

The 11th inst. was the hottest day of the season at New York—thermometer, 102°. Many fatal cases of sunstroke are reported.

Six companies of U. S. infantry left Cincinnati for the West on the 12th, to reinforce the corps of troops now operating against the Indians.

Deaths from sunstroke in New York City on the 10th exceeded in number those of any previous day for thirty-five years, except July 24, 1872, when sixty-eight were reported.

Postmaster General Jewell has resigned, or rather has been removed by the President. No cause given as yet. Judge J. N. Tyner, of Indiana, has been nominated for the place.

Fatalities among men and animals are rapidly increasing at Philadelphia. On the 10th a terrific wind and rain storm demolished several window sash in front of the main building, and ripped off a portion of the roof of the Transcontinental Hotel.

General Custer's command met with dreadful defeat and massacre at the hands of the Sioux Indians on the Little Horn River on the 25th inst. Fourteen officers, including General Custer, his two brothers and brother-in-law, together with five companies of soldiers under Custer's immediate command, were slaughtered. Major Reno, with the remainder of seven companies, entrenched themselves and fought from noon on the 25th to the night of the 26th, when they were relieved by the arrival of General Terry. Total loss in killed, 261; wounded, 52; about 3,000 warriors were engaged. Custer went into battle with Cos, C, I, J, F, and E of the seventh cavalry, with the staff and non-commissioned staff of his regiment, and a number of scouts, and only one Crow scout remains to tell the tale. Steps are being taken to prosecute the war vigorously.

"Sitting under awnings and whittling dry-goods boxes" is, according to the Remicor, the laborious occupation of the "protectors" in Dallas. It does seem as though it were time this drudgery was stopped, and the supporters of women allowed a little time for recreation.

Robert Dale Owen was recently married at Caldwell, N. Y., to Lottie Walden, daughter of the late Martin A. Kellogg, who was for more than thirty years pastor of the Congregationalist Church at Avon, near Hartford. The lady is a cultivated artist of middle age, who has traveled and resided many years in Europe and studied her profession in Rome.

"Goose parties," according to the Olympian, are novelties of Webfoot origin, in which only women participate. We don't know any woman who is goose enough to attend such parties, hence cannot say whether they are "considered a success" or not.

The eleventh annual catalogue of the Corvallis State Agricultural College is at hand. This catalogue shows 51 pupils in the agricultural, and 147 in the collegiate department. Each course is thorough, and discipline good.

An embryo "protector," a youth of 18 years, has been brought into court in San Francisco, charged with cruelly beating his mother. The latter stood this treatment until forced to ask the law to protect her.

Miss Clara Donway offers her services to the public as a Purchasing Agent. Orders for every conceivable article of Ladies' and Children's Wear, or for Jewelry, Silver or Plated Ware, Notions, Patterns, Musical Instruments, etc., etc., will receive her prompt personal attention. Persons living at a distance will find it to their advantage to send their orders. In ordering millinery, ribbons, ties, etc., state the age and complexion of wearer, color of hair and eyes, style of features, and how the hair is worn. No order attended to unless accompanied by the cash, and all transactions to be considered final. The same conscientious care will be exercised in making purchases as though the owner were present, and Miss Donway's acquaintance with the trade will always enable her to secure honorable bargains. Terms of commission, five per cent. Ladies writing for information concerning prices, styles, etc., must inclose a stamp to pay return postage.

The AMERICAN NEWSPAPER DIRECTORY is an epitome of newspaper history. It is also regarded as an official register of circulations. This feature requires the closest scrutiny to prevent it from leading to abuses. The plan adopted by the publishers of the DIRECTORY to secure correct and trustworthy reports is rigid in its requirements, and is adhered to with impartiality. Successful publishers, who have something to gain by a comparison, are generally prompt, not only to send reports in conformity, but give Messrs. Geo. P. Rowell & Co. such information as enables them to weed out unsubstantiated statements of pretenders in journalism. The popularity of the book, and the general confidence in its accuracy and good faith, are attested by the immense body of advertisements it receives. 4-26

NEW THIS WEEK. BAY VIEW HOUSE, Baker's Bay, Unity, W. T.

MR. DEXTER INFORMS THE PUBLIC that his House is now open for the reception of guests. Its advantages in respect over any other Summer Resort are too well known to Oregonians to repeat here. To strangers I will say that the place is in a beautiful spot on the Bay near Astoria, on the sheltered side of Cape Hancock, and very near and adjacent to the Fort and Lighthouse on Baker's Bay, a beautiful sheet of water, unequalled for sailing, rowing, fishing, and bathing. The dark forest, with its picturesque drives, its mountain springs, profusion of wild berries, wild flowers and ferns, its horse trail to the Cape for equestrians or walkers, is one of the most delightful panoramas the eye ever witnessed. The cozy beaches, the luxuriantly wooded islands, its views of Astoria, Chinook, Fort Stevens, moist old Tillamook, in the distance.

The courteous hospitality of the officers of the Garrison at the Fort, and also of Mr. Mansson and family, of the Lighthouse, make that place well worthy of a visit.

The Salt Water Bathing in the Bay, within a few feet of the Hotel, exceeds anything far or near for warmth of the water and mildness of its waves, and is far preferable to the heavy surf and cold waves for women, children, and invalids, while the strong swimmer, or those who love the foaming surf, in a few minutes' walk will find a beach unsurpassed in beauty, hard level, for our continuous drive of thirty miles. At this end are huge rocks stretching out into the ocean, from which fishers take from the sea Bass, Rockfish, Tom Cod, Porpies, etc., etc. Crabs, Clams, Oysters, etc., are in abundance, and the Bath will have lack a sufficiency of these desirable adjuncts. Books upon the Bay, Saddle Poles for the children, Trains to the beach, Croquet, Quilts, etc., FREE to guests.

Prices reduced from $10.00 to $5.00. To those who would like to camp out, wood and water, and the use of ground, free. Groceries, provisions, and fuel, for sale at a small profit. Campers can board at the Hotel, if they prefer, at fair rates. A large Livery Stable, two new and fine Ten Fly Hags, attached to the place.

State Office to Organize, Post Office, Wells, Fargo & Co.'s office also there. No raw wild or damp logs, and more beautiful tracks and ready groves cannot be found. The great Landlord has, in that his house is not larger, but his grounds are large enough and beautiful enough to warrant next season a Hotel worthy of the surroundings.

C. H. DEXTER, Proprietor.

"A Repository of Fashion, Pleasure, and Instruction." Harper's Bazar, ILLUSTRATED.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS. "The Bazar" is edited with a combination of tact and talent that we seldom find in any journal; and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—Boston Traveler. "The Bazar" commends itself to every member of the household—to the children by droll and pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fashion-plates in endless variety, to the provident matron by its patterns for the children's clothes, to the pattern-maker by its tasteful designs for embroidered slippers and luxurious dressing-gowns. But the reading matter of the "Bazar" is uniformly of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the household enjoyment it affords.—N. Y. Evening Post.

In its way there is nothing like it. Fresh and trustworthy as a fashion guide, its stories and essays, its poetry and squibs, are all invigorating to the mind.—[Chicago Evening Journal.
