THE NEW PRESIDENT.

by the dispatches :

ered the statement, the presiding officer ex-

The New Northwest.

NOTICE.

FRIDAY .....

registered letters.

HAYES.

This address, so anxiously looked for, and the delivery of which was greeted first with such earnest attention, and satisfaction, is before the nation. The various subjects before the people at with by the new executive, who, however, says in the outset that he "will the principles or measures of the adminsuggest certain important ends to be attained in accordance with our institutions and essential to the welfare of our country.

His brief review of the labor system. civil service, finance, currency question, etc., shows judgment and discretion, while the declaration that "universal suffrage should rest upon universal edu- nothing would mar the dignity of the proceedcation," must meet the hearty approval ings so reputable to the American people, and of six years for the Presidential office, United States was 360, of which a majority and forbidding re-election. The address, 185. The state of the vote for President, as demore anxiously looked for than any since the ominous days of '61, when Abraham Lincoln stood up before a and for Samuel J. Tilden, 184 votes. The state surging mass of friends and foes and of the vote for Vice-President of the United concluded in solemn tones the words of States, as delivered by the tellers, and as deterpeal to his "dissatisfied fellow-country- Hendricks, 184 votes. Therefore, I do announce men." concluded with these words:

I call upon you, Senators, Representatives, having received a majority of the whole numto unite with me in an earnest effort to secure of the United States for four years, commencto our country the blessings, not only of ma- ing the 4th day of March, 1877; that William terial prosperity, but of justice, peace, and un- A. Wheeter, of the State of New York, having union depending, not upon the constraint of force, but upon the lowing devotion of a free people; that all things may be so or- of the United States for four years, commencdered and settled upon the best and firmest ing on the 4th day of March, 1877. This anfoundations; that peace and happiness, truth and justice, religion and plety, may be estab- will be entered on the journals of both Houses. lished among us for all generations.

THE OUTLOOK FOR SUFFRAGE.

The constantly increasing interest journed, and the flag, which had never been manifested at the "hearings" annually various State Legislatures is a source of The Senate, upon return, adjourned with three great encouragement to the friends of times three for Hayes. the cause. During the first weeks of February four of these hearings were SCATTER THE GOSPEL OF EQUAL granted, one each in Indiana, Rhode Island, Connecticut, and Massachusetts. These were all occasions of the greatest Interest.

Representative Hall, in the last named State, on Tuesday, the 13th day with men and women, some of whom had come sixty miles to the feast. Seats, aisles, and steps around the Speaker's desk were full; the three gal-Speaker's desk were full; the three gal-leries were crowded, and every passage-way was packed. The signatures of 9.036 citizens of the Old Bay State were

The tedious probation is at length over, and Rutherford B. Hayes has been

Agents will please take notice that it is a open, and the mutterings and rumblings and looking westward longingly. THE INAUGURAL OF PRESIDENT term, for no matter what course he pursues or how faithfully he strives to carry out his oath to "obey the Constitution upon his administration. Nor is it at looking avoirdupois, and reflect that rostrum; the clergy was the only un- jail and see how they do it." afterward with such deep and abiding all wonderful that the great Democratic there is always a demand upon the represented class. party should feel sore over their final ever, their leaders have decided to ous proportions, while the demands form, woman's enfranchisement." not undertake to lay down irrevocably peacefully abide the decision of the upon it never "let up" for an instant, Whether this be true or not, we were tives that should animate us, and to their hard-earned laureis with becoming might try to do. gravity and quietness. The announce-

Senator Allison, of the tellers, having deliv-

EDITORIAL CORRESPONDENCE.

DEAR READERS OF THE NEW NORTHWEST:

pressed a hope that, on the announcement, that we didn't dare to open them lest ple." we'd never live to get home at all.

to the Constitution prescribing a term to vote for President and Vice-President of the dear relatives at Mt. Pulaski again per- State, Illinois, Colorado, and Washing- will tell you it is the truth I am a livered by the tellers, and as determined under subject is, for Rutherford B. Hayes, 155 votes, urbs, chased dull care away and helped many of our able workers were by sick- "Are you acquainted with Mr. Agner ?" us much in our health and mission by ness or other causes kept at home. Some their love and cheer.

mined under the same act of Congress, is, for but the meeting was unfortunately ture.

that Rutherford B. Hayes, of the State of Ohio, was small, as compared to other locali- west of Corvallis, in Benton county, ties.

received a majority of the whole number of electoral votes, is duly elected Vice-President Could we have foreseen the possibility in the chapel of the college building, to self passed by Mr. Aguar's house fraas this when we left the dear ones for a Working Women." nonneement, together with a list of the votes, two Houses is dissolved. The Senate retired. and the House immediately, at 4:10 A. M., ad-

Mrs. Clara M. Foltz is authorized to in being a political missionary, just let constitution, signed by twenty-five percollect and receipt for subscriptions to 'em try it.

Association met at Albany), was crowded sluggish there at present, and urges kind till we are home again. We shall nie Hartless; Corresponding Secretary, some method to "wake the people up." lecture here an evening or two, and Mr. J. B. Horner; Treasurer, Mrs. S. A. We know of none more effectual than then westward ho!

> FRIENDLY CRITICISMS. Many of our friends, very kindly in-

LETTER FROM MRS. LOUGHARY. "GOOD MORAL CHARACTER" .- HOW forty licenses had been granted in about

TO THE EDITOR OF THE NEW NORTHWEST : Since last we wrote you we have been In addition to the minutes of the O. To THE EDITOR OF THE NEW NORTHWEST:

United States-peacefully inaugurated, there is little progress to report, further published in your columns, a more ex- issue, on "Certificates of Good Moral still did not seem to comprehend the notwithstanding the threats, covert and than that we are now at Council Bluff's tended report will be interesting to Character," reminds me that I was over farce it was playing. many of your numerous readers who at Seattle, on Puget Sound, about two It being my turn now to whiper, I great tax upon us to pay express charges upon of a discontent that has at times boded The lecture work at Springfield of have waited with much anxiety for a weeks ago. The honorable Board of said to Jack, "I have got enough of this; the would-be assassin, Weldon, on ball small sums, and they will confer a great favor by remitting to us through money orders or war. Not that these mutterings of dis- which we wrote you left us so nearly full report of a meeting which was con-King County Commissioners was in let's get out of here." content have subsided or will subside prostrate that lying by for repairs was ceded, both by visitors and citizens, to session, and a friend of mine, whom I After entering the hall, I remarked : during the four years of President Hayes' necessarily in order. Now, if there is be a success. A large number of per- will designate Jack, for short, said to anything we have no patience with, it's sons from abroad were present, com- me:

TESTED.

ourself when an invalid. It isn't hard prising, with the citizens, business men "Jim, this is a stormy time for the for us to be a friend to other folks when and women, teachers, students, lawyers, liquor-dealers in Seattle. They all have catching my idea. and support the government of the they're unable to be on duty, but when doctors, and newspaper reporters. Three to go before the board and prove their United States," fraud and corruption we glance in the mirror at a hundred lady M. D.'s, who are graduates of East- good moral character before they can by such a vast multitude of listeners, will surely at every turn be charged and fifty pounds of anything but feeble ern medical institutions, graced our get a license. Let's go up to the new It occurred to me that this would be a hands and brain those pounds sustain A lady traveler and writer in the "golden opportunity" to find out what defeat, when for months the long-cov- that requires constant health and active Woman's Journal says: "I find, both in constitutes a "good moral character" this time are briefly but firmly dealt eted prize has been almost within their effort, and then see the overworked ma- Europe and America, the clergy, as a under the statutes of Washington Terri- kingdom come would not stop a license grasp. Like true philosophers, how- chine break down in spite of its ponder- class, opposed to the much-needed re- tory, and so Jack and Jim took a walk there. Why, the chairman of that up to the new infl.

commission-and begun to talk of 1880. we get so desperate that if we were not a very foreibly reminded of the expresistration, but rather to speak of the monumerous churches and clergymen. The seeing the honorable board in session, When we got to Council Bluffs our sessions throughout were quite orderly doffed our hats and took a standing seat, ment of the result of the election, made darling auntie brought out a package of and very well attended, the large Court- A man from Renton Precinct called in joint session of the two bodies of Con- letters from the loved ones at home that house filled to overflowing in the even- Pete Agner was before the bar (board) gress, on Friday, March 2, is thus given has been awalting us for weeks; but we ings. This proves that women have a pleading for his "good moral character." any farther. If any one doubts my declares that Democrats are bent on rewere so homesick already, and we knew tact to interest, together with executive Said he:

the appeals to hurry home they con- ability. The whole proves that we are "May it place yer houses, my name tained would only drive us to bed again, rapidly gaining "favor with all the peo- is Pater Agnar, from Renton, and I have in Washington Territory, and they will the election.

mitted us to attempt to travel and toil, ton Territory, with good suggestions, spakin' to yer honors." we returned to Chicago, where other words of cheer, it added much to our "Mr. Surely, stand up," said the important measures were adopted, An appointment was made for a lee- which, if faithfully carried out, will his 'good moral character.' " his first inaugural in the memorable ap-W. A. Wheeler, 155 votes, and for Thomas A. ture in Chicago on Sunday, the 11th, greatly facilitate our work for the fusandwiched between Beecher in the At the close of the meeting, your deal within the last few (hic) years, and Judges, fellow-citizens, here and everywhere, ber of electoral votes, is duly elected President morning and Woodhull in the evening, humble servant went to Philomath, a I (hie) never saw anything wrong with so the audience, though appreciative, little educational place some ten miles his (hic) character."

of remaining away from home so long which I spoke on the "Wants of the quently, and I never saw anything hurried trip across the Continent last The following day, Sunday, addressed good man, I do." The count of the votes being completed and June, and had we made calculations to them again on the vexed Bible texts, the result determined, the joint meeting of the be in no hurry anywhere, we might "Let your women keep silent in the Mr. Aguer's bonds for a thousand dolhave been spared innumerable spells of churches," "Ask their husbands at lars that he is a man of 'good moral lengthy, and in the main, a fair report illness, and made the journey vastly home," "I will not suffer a woman to character' and will keep an orderly of the meeting at Oro Fino Theater, on down since it was holsted over the halls of more pleasant and profitable. But teach," etc. I find a large class of perboth Houses on the 1st of February last as a every where we have gone to lecture we sons who get behind the Bible, which allowed to Woman Suffragists in the signal of their being in session, was lowered. have been in a hurry, and in almost if rightly interpreted, gives the broadevery instance have broken down and est views to both man and woman.

been compelled to tarry, while the ap- The following morning about fifty peals from home for haste have persons came through a driving storm driven us half distracted. If any- to hear more of woman's equality, and body thinks there is any unalloyed fun to organize a County Association. A sons, was adopted, when the following the NEW NORTHWEST in San Jose, or Dear readers, your pardon. We didn't officers were elected: President, Prof. J. other portions of California. She writes intend to write a letter full of driveling B. Springer; Vice-President, Miss C. of February, (the day on which our State that the cause of equal rights seems blues, but we fear you'll get no other Wyatt; Recording Secretary, Miss Jen-

A. J. D. Kisor. The first action of the body was to place a copy of the NEW NORTHWEST on the Secretary's table, so you see they mean business. We will doubtless hear the same manner as herein stated, that honorable board opened its eyes for the ...MARCH 9, 1877. duly inaugurated President of the so much of the time on the sick list that S. W. S. A., which have already been Your short editorial in this morning's first time to this view of the law, but

"Those commissioners must all take the Boston Investigator."

"Why so ?" said Jack, evidently not "Because no Christian set of men would ever deal out 'moral characters' with as tive Mansion. slight conscientions scruples as they do."

A SUBSCRIBER.

THE JUBILEE AT ORO FINO.

"Nonsense," said Jack. "It is the alcans celebrated the Presidential election mighty dollar they are after. They by firing salutes and decorating buildhave just built a new jail-cost twenty ings with bunting. thousand dollars-and all the religion in Ferry signed the declaration of Hayes' board owns a front pew in that church election with an eagle quill sent him We walked into the room (which was (pointing to the Episcopal), the middle from the far West for that purpose.

Ben Simpson, Dr. Watts, W. H. Odell,

words in this play, let them go over to ducing the army as revenge for the Rethe "lava beds" in the city of Seattle, publican use of it in the South during Oregon City, or any other place where were from small-pox, 34 from diphtheria. a "certificate of good moral character" Sixteen new cases of small-pox were is required. From the driveling ine- reported this week. Total number of beater in the house, to the occupant of average mortality, including deaths the Presidential chair, the case is the among Chinese, who never report cases, same. The almighty dollar rules. about 25 per cent.

rity have a feather's weight in the op-The following is chronicled among Congress: A resolution was reported from a select committee on privileges declaring that Samuel J. Tilden received 196 electoral votes of electors legally and constitutionally appointed, and was thereby duly elected President of the United States, and that it is the opinion of the House that Thomas A. Hendricks, having received a like number of votes for Vice-President, was duly elected.

I noticed in the Oregonian of to-day a Kelly, in the Senate on Saturday called up the long pending House bill to grant lieu land for the Klamath Inthe evening of the 5th instant, and, aldian Reservation in Oregon. Mitchell said he would vote with his colleague to take it up for consideration, but "Mr. Clerk, we hereby grant Peter acter of all the speeches with a single bill was then taken up, and after discussion, in which Kelly favored and Mitchell opposed, it was postponed till them, 'tis true, but to me it was like next December. As it is a House bill. generally reflected credit upon the number of San Francisco capitalists.

NEWS ITEMS.

STATE AND TERRITORIAL. Diphtheria has made its dread appearance in Corvallis. The second term in the State University began on Monday. W. R. Dunbar, G. W. C. T., left The RECENT EVENTS.

Governor Nicholis was on Monday reported dangerously ill.

Governor Hayes resigned the office of Governor of Ohio on the 2d inst.

The Packard authorities have released of $5,000.

Five thousand extra copies of the report and testimony in the Oregon electoral case were ordered printed.

The oath of office was administered to President Hayes on the 4th of March, by Chief Justice Waite, at the Execu-

Throughout New England Republi-

The Times' Washington special says

The following Oregonians are sojourn-Mrs. Editor, I will not take up the Asahel Bush, Vic Trevitt, and C. B.

valuable space in your paper by follow- Bellinger. ing this farce upon "moral character" The Tribune's Washington special as good a moral character as any man find plenty of liquor dealers chuckling During the week 123 deaths were reg-Our correspondence from abroad was in the wide world, sure, and here is Mr. over their easy victory. And what is istered in San Francisco against 136 for After having so far recovered from very large, coming from the most intel- Sarley, your county assessor, who has true of Washington Territory I appre- the previous week, and 118 in the corof all. He recommends an amendment to the Constitution presention of electors appointed the local presention of the previous week last year. Of these, 3 the act of Congress of January 28th, on this precious kindred, in the city and sub- meeting. Our only regret is that so chairman (Mr. Madox) of the board. briate on the side-walk, and the wife- cases reported since outbreak, 1,500;

at Fallen City.

"I (hie) am, sir." "Tell the board what you know about Neither religion, virtue, honor, or integ-

"Well, gentlemen, I (hic) have been posite scale, and they never will have at his place of business a good (hic) until woman has the ballot-that power which will enable her to place a value upon religion, virtue, honor, integrity, "That is so, Mr. Madox," spoke the where a good audience was in waiting next man on the board, "I have me- quick perceptions of right, house'

was not worth a dollar).

A tall, stately-looking woman of thirty odd summers walked forward to the judgment seat (board), (Jack whis-stead of being hewn to atoms with a pered, "That's 'Big Bonanza') and said : butcher's cleaver. In short, the speeches are residents of California, including a "I would like to get a retail liquor in the audience-whatever political from them through their efficient Cor- man in town"). Mr. Clerk, we grant mistake in somebody. For, if there and justice, in accordance with her Portland, February 23, 1877.

Democrat, I cheerfully bear testimony to the courteous and conciliatory char-Agner a license to sell lager beer for six exception. Good, natural sarcasm was quite freely indulged in by most of

But I am satisfied that I only reflect the feelings of every intelligent person

"Mr. Baxer is good enough for us, creed-when I say that the bringing (Jack whispered, "He is the wealthiest forward of the last speaker was a sad wrong, at all, at all. I think he is a "Mr. Surely, are you willing to go on To THE EDITOR OF THE NEW NORTHWEST:

(Jack whispered in my ear that Surely though as you know I am an old-line

"I (bic) am, sir."

months. Who comes next ?"

hearts as well as the heads of their au-"Certainly, madam; the board is ac- thors. quainted with you. Who have you for ondsman ?"

"Mr. Baxer, if he will do."

9,036 citizens of the Old Bay State were appended to a petition asking suffrage for women, and Hon. Wm. J. Bowditch, Rev. Jesse H. Jones, Wendell Phillips, Miss Mary E. Beedy, Wm. Lloyd Garrison, Julia Ward Howe, and many others, with ready-voiced eloquence, advocated the claims of woman to the ballot.

On the Wednesday preceding (the 7th of February) the subject was presented to the Connecticut Legislature by the indefatigable Smith sisters, and these were supported by an array of arguments from some of the best and wisest men and women of the State. The suffragists of that State have been greatly advancement of the cause. But, truth to encouraged by the excellent message of the Governor, which calls emphatically paper habitually, but do not pay for it, for better laws for women.

On the day following (Thursday, the 8th,) the Rhode Island Woman Suffrage Association had a hearing before a spechad been referred. Here, as in other States, the interest was intense.

fragist feels a thrill of pride and hope. Appeals of this kind cannot much longer be made in vain.

Fair young Colorado is coming to the front with her earnest Western workers, "help themselves, yet ask help from abroad to render their coming campaign vigorous as befits the great occasion. If courage and energy and work is strong enough to contend against prejudice and indifference and ignorance, the victory | lar letter of the Colorado Woman Sufin Colorado is certain.

Our own State has in the last year ac- Loughary's appeal for joint aid for the complished no mean amount of labor in cause in Colorado, and the NEW NORTHthe great cause. We only need a suffi- wEST. The subscriptions for this jourcient number of earnest, judicious, and nal for campaign purposes in Colorado energetic workers in the field to be able do not need to begin until the first of to have a Legislature two years hence June. They will continue four months, that will give proper attention to the the election in that State occurring demands of our now disfranchised citi- early in October. We will furnish the zens. Help is springing up in all quar- paper during these months for $1 00 per ters; women who but a few years ago copy. This includes postage, which were silent upon the subject now by must be paid at office of publication. scores are agitating the question in a We hope our friends will move in this quiet way that prepares the ground upon matter at once, and each in the next which the braver workers are soon to three mouths send along subscriptions scatter broadcast the immortal seeds of to place their home journal as a camtruth. Friends of the cause, the outlook paign paper in the hands of Colorado in the East is encouraging; in the mid- workers. We will keep an accurate acdle West victory is hovering over the count of the amount each one sends for banners of equal rights; in the far West that purpose, and for every dollar so the leaven is working. Let us push on received will send during the four to victory, mindful ever of the sure promise, "In due time ye shall reap if NORTHWEST to the Executive Comve faint not."

has the Constitutional inauguration tions and amounts each send will be pub- 7th : For Secretary of State, Wm. M. Insugural of Zachary Taylor, March 4, and let all put shoulder to the wheel.

1849; the third was the inaugural of Rutherford B. Hayes, March 4, 1877. These occur three times during a century, and lunuguration day will fall on Sunday during the next century, in 1917, 1949, and 1973.

of Mrs. Foltz and give an impetus to the movement in their own State and at the same time help sustain the organ of Woman Suffragists of the coast, and subscribe at once for the journal that advocates social, political, and financial equality for women. If every woman or man who believes in impartial suffrage on this coast would subscribe and pay for the NEW NORTH-WEST, and would then circulate it throughout their neighborhood as a "missionary document," they would be doing a great and lasting work for the tell-we hope suffragists who read the will indulge us in a little scold-many believers in woman's enfranchisement are like many workers in the temperance cause we wot of; they make loud ial committee, to which their petitions protestations of principle, but fail to back them with the cash necessary to disseminate these principles through the In looking over the field, every suf- press. We hope our California friendsand by this we mean the friends of equal rights-and those in Oregon as well, will also arouse themselves to the necessity of supporting the organ that alone upon this coast works for the adwho, while they propose vigorously to vancement and elevation of woman. Let us hear from some hundreds of you, friends, before the first of April. HELP FOR COLOSADO.

RIGHTS.

We call special attention to the circufrage Association, and also to Mrs.

and cleanliness.

months specified, one copy of the NEW mittee of the Colorado W. S. A. at Den-

Three times in our nation's history ver. A list of persons sending contribu- ceived by the Senate at 2:30 P. M. on the Yamhill and vicinity.

tentioned no doubt, feel morally cer- responding Secretary. tain that did we but heed their advice in the conduct of the NEW NORTHWEST State Temperance Alliance and Union docket ?"

the "even tenor of our way with mal- State. ice toward none, with charity for all, his epistles various sayings from the tion ?"

Oregon's men have not yet advanced Greek poets, especially from the obscene play-writer Menander, and his epistles in this work as has Massachusetts' men, were none the worse for it either. Of but the last meeting of the Alliance course St. Paul didn't goute the object convinces us that we are having some tionable arts, nor did we quote or print very apt scholars. They are seeing and anything from the sources named in the feeling the inconsistency of appealing least objectionable. Jesus could find to women for help as they have, are, good even in fallen women. His hu- and will do, with woman's hands tied manity was broad enough for all classes behind her. The main work of the Aland conditions. Shall we say we live liance was to bring out and adopt a rein more fortunate times since we find port of a committee on political action, so many of our teachers better and wiser which, if carried out by the men of Orethan Jesus and Paul?

A SENSIBLE REMEDY.

Remedies for "ticks" on horses being we can do, for every requirement was matter." respondent over the signature of "Maria" makes the following sensible sug- to take, then do your work well. gestions: "If men would take the amount of money they are in the habit of spending each year in tobacco and perchance in whisky also, and buy with it a remedy called side oats, and apply this to their horses internally at the rate of oue-half peck or less, according to age, twice or three times a day, ticks would not be found on them in any considerable number, it being a fact that horses kept in good condition are not troubled with them. This remedy may not be cheaper than others, but it is so that the cause it advocates would be convening. As we stepped into the more attention to it, but each has a delegates with ten clergymen on and breakers) went forward and said : plan of his or her own, and to accept about the rostrum who had come to-

PRESIDENT HAYES' CABINET.

The following nominations were re-

Carl Shurz, of Missouri.

At the close of the meetings, many with firmness in the right as God gives who had attended both conventions us to see the right." To one, however, said: "We are unable to tell one from who read us a lecture the other day the other, for they talk as much temupon clipping a short article from the perance as suffrage in the one, and as Investigator, which in no way referred much suffrage as temperance in the to theological matters, and to another other. While they are celebrating who scolded us for publishing a letter the nuptials of the Alliance and Union, from a liberalist, we would say, that St. why not consolidate with them the Or-Paul did not hesitate to incorporate in egon State Woman Suffrage Associa-gon, will do a vast amount of good in the suppression of intemperance. We can only hope that the men of the State will be true to their pledges. It is all under discussion in the Farmer, a corplaced beyond woman's reach. But it is just the position that you are forced lent idea," quoth the middle man on

H. A. LOUGHARY. Amity, February 26, 1877.

We beg to call the attention of Brother see the thing done right, if there was a ceive help from our hands just now. Abbott, of The Dalles Tribune, to the right way to do it, (I have forgotten his fact that younger and more progressive name, but think Jack said he was from journalists have already learned that Fallen City, up in the mountains) cause if we expect it to advance. To ing to fight the impartial suffrage battle obscenity is not wit, and indecent innu- opened one of those remarkable statutes set a good example, I pledge $1 00. endo will not pass current for pleasantry, of Washington Territory, over which When an editor is compelled to resort one of our most worthy Oregon citizens much nicer." This remedy will cer- to the vernacular of the prize ring for went crazy last fall, in trying to undertainly commend itself to those who de- words to express his ideas, he is more stand the road laws and the presidensire to combine economy with comfort to be pitied than condemned. We ad- tial muddle, and read out in a loud but vise the brother to place the following solemn tone something to this effect:

for an idea, it may meet his gaze : " Immodest words admit of no defense;

A want of decency is want of sense," the second inaugural of President Mon- Remember friends, the cause is ours, Treasury, John Sherman, of Ohio; Sec- Woman's Words, will be issued in Phil- moral character." roe, March 4, 1821; the second was the whether in our own State or elsewhere, retary of War, Geo. W. McCrary, of adelphia on the 15th of this month. It "From the reading of that law I do Iowa; Secretary of the Navy, Richard will be a sixteen page journal, printed not understand that this woman has to M. Thompson, of Indiana; Attorney- on tinted paper, and will be of literary prove her character, as she only asks for vallis. Mrs. Maria Ramnage is authorized to General, Chas. Devins, of Massachusetts; tendency and progressive ideas, devoted a beer license, and that law says a liquor collect, solicit, and receipt for subscrip- Postmaster-General, David M. Key, of to the needs of women, their encour- license; but I am willing to go on her letter to an editor: "Don't say anything tions to the NEW NORTHWEST in North Tennessee; Secretary of the Interior, agement and entertainment. Price, bond," said Claucer.

$1 00 per annum.

Miss Jennie Hurd a retail liquor license was a Democratepresent whom he did Dalles for the Ocho Returning to Albany, I found the for six months. Who is next on the not insult, it was for the same reason day.

A rather large, portly, fine-looking accelerated. If all of these proposed same Court-house with the same citi- man, with German accent (I forget his insulted," said he; "for a gentleman attle.

"Mine Cot, gentlemans, my vife has spect for the good sense and refinement The Ashland Tidings reports the one would be to reject others. Under gether to suggest and adopt plans to got de nicest paby vat ever vas in all de of the people of Portland to believe that miners on Applegate Creek rejoicing in these circumstances we can only pursue forward the cause of temperance in our worlds-looks shust like me, and mine any one listened to this incoherent a copious supply of water. character. Vot you talking about ? vot drivel without feeling the blush of you got to do mit mine pizness? I gots shame mantle his cheek or his lip curl this season than ever before.

no character. To ---- mit your charac- with disgust at such an outrage on propriety. ters. I vants von liquor license."

Portland, March 5, 1877.

FRAGE.

"All right, Mr. German, Mr. Clerk, the position of the frog instead of the we grant a retail liquor license to Mr boy in the fable, and not being expected German. Who comes next ?" to enjoy the fun from the flying stones.

A pale-faced, woe-begoue looking I am proud to know that those among creature, whose appearance indicated that a life of twenty years had been wasted in as many months, rose and made application for a grocery license. "Who is to youch for your 'good moral character "" shouted the spokes- as I sincerely hope President Hayes will prove himself capable of doing. 108.01.

"Mr. Claucer and Mr. Baxer." (Jack whispered that they were both wealthy). "Mr. Claucer, what have you to say TO THE FRIENDS OF WOMAN SUFin reference to this woman's 'good moral character ?" " "I am willing to go on her bond," said Mr. Claucer.

"Well, now, hold on," said the third from a private letter received too late for man on the board, who had been very our meeting at Albany. Now is the quiet all this time and let the other time to work in Colorado. The subject two run the machine, "I propose that of woman's enfranchisement will be we get the law and read to these per- submitted to the people next fall. They sons, before we go any further with the want as many copies of the NEW

the board. "Yes, I think that's well put in,"

said the chairman.

couplet in a conspicuous place in his "Be it enacted by the worthy Legissanctum, where, when he looks about lature of Washington Territory, etc.,

At this point, and after some thirty or that the elder Adams never was insulted A boy seventeen years old, named -"I never was, or never expect to be Davis, is down with small-pox in Se-Seattle is troubled with a vile set of one plan we might hearken with a little zens, we noticed a large number of name; it is one of those German jaw- will not insult me, a boor or a fool can hoodlums who smash windows, steal, not." And more. I have too much re- and do like things.

There is fully one-third more ground under cultivation in Washington county

A little girl named Balderee, the child of a widow, fell into the river at Gar-And now let me say, that although in diner last week, and was drowned.

A. D. Byers, of Astoria, killed a baldhead eagle near Harrington's Point last week, which measured six feet ten inches from tip to tip.

The crops throughout the country us who are capable of rising above party never looked better than at the present feeling in their hour of victory and of time. From all appearances the wheat treating their political adversaries with crop will be immense.

The steamer "Fanny Patton" has rethe consideration due a vanquished foe, ceived such injury that she will be compelled to lie up for a season at the boneward to undergo repairs.

DEMOCRAT. A petition will be circulated soon, asking the Post Office Department to establish a daily mail from Empire City to Drain, by way of Gardiner. The remains of Geo. La Roque, a well known and highly respected citizen of Oregon City, who died recently in Oak-Permit me to call your attention to a land, California, were brought up by circular letter from the Colorado Womthe "Elder" and taken to Butteville for an Suffrage Association; also an extract interment.

Circular Letter.

To the Oregon State Woman Suffrage Association-Dear Friends :- In compliance with the requirements of our State Constitution, adopted July 1, 1876, the NORTHWEST as we can send them, present Assembly has passed a bill pro-"I-I belave that would be an excel- Who will forward a dollar for this pur- viding for equal suffrage; said bill will be voted upon at the next general elecpose? One hundred dollars can be eastion, Tuesday, October 9, 1877.

ily forwarded to Portland by the time We feel confident that, with the necspecified to furnish copies for gratuitous essary means to carry forward a thordistribution, and while we are helping ough and vigorous campaign, we have a So the third man on the board, who, them we help ourselves, as ludicated in good prospect of success, as our popula WANT OF DECENCY IS WANT OF by the way, seemed to be one of those the letter, and we will help the paper, and the spirit of progress is dominant. conscientious old chaps who wanted to which really demands and ought to re- We think that the same amount of talent and capital invested in this field, at

I sincerely hope that this call will not this time, will do more for our common cause than it could possibly do any-where else. We believe that we are gobe overlooked; we must work for our for the nation next autumn, nd that victory in Colorado will make success comparatively easy for other States. Hence our conviction that the interest, the energetic effort, and the finan-According to Hon, R. B. Cochran, of cial aid of all the friends of this righteous cause should be concentrated here Lane county, Republican powder leaves during the approaching campaign. We must succeed, and to this end we trils, and he begs, warns, and entreats earnestly ask your sympathy and cothe victors to burn no more of the tan* and our beloved State only, but for you talizing and inflammable compound. and your State, and for country and her highest interests. May we depend upon you to the ex-

Mrs. Loughary will lecture at Corval- tent (at least) of furnishing the means lis on this (Friday) evening. She is an to employ a lecturer for one month? Hoping for a generous and favorable earnest, unflinching advocate for the response, we are, dear friends, your felright, and will doubtless receive a cor- low-laborers for freedom, ALIDA C. AVERY, Pres't Colorado W.S.A. HARRIET A. LAWSON, Treasurer and Cor. Sec'y. D. M. RICHARDS, Chairman Ex. Com. Denver, Colorado, February, 1877.

etc. Provided further that no license shall be granted to any person to sell spirituous liquors until he has furnished against Woman Suffrage if you want me to love you."

They will probably desist.

dial greeting from the citizens of Cor-

A sensible woman's postscript in a

H. A. LOUGHARY,

President O. S. W. S. A.

an unpleasant odor In Democratic nos-to the board of commissioners satisfacday come on Sunday. The first was lished at the opening of the campaign. Evarts, of New York; Secretary of the A new monthly journal, entitled tory proof that he is a man of good