The New Northwest.

FRIDAY.....OCTOBER 20, 1877.

HOME NEWS.

There is a lady assistant in the money order office in this city.

Parrot's premium paintings on exhibition at Volney's are superb.

C. T. Belcher has been regularly appointed Captain of the police force.

General Howard is expected to arrive at his home in this city early next month.

Treasure to the amount of $114,000 was brought up by the "Ajax" on her last trip.

A large proportion of the immigrants who arrived by the "Ancon" are Russian Flus.

The Teachers' Institute for the Fourth Judicial District will be held in this city early next month.

The lecture field in this city is more than full, and even the most popular speakers fail to attract audiences.

Rev. Mr. Stubbs has inaugurated prayer meetings in the city jail, which will be held on Wednesday evenings.

Over 500 tons of wheat were discharged from the steamer "Wide West" on Monday at the O. S. N. Co.'s wharf.

Street improvements in various parts of the city compel pedestrians to exercise unwonted care concerning their steps.

The many friends of Rev. T. L. Eliot and his estimable wife will be grieved to learn of the serious illness of the latter.

A life-sized picture of Colonel Bob Ingersoll, the celebrated orator, occupies a conspicuous place in Morse's window.

A merchant on Morrison street was fined $15 on Tuesday by Justice Crieb for keeping open his place of business on Sunday.

Hardin Nolan, of Washington county, was on Monday sentenced to six months in the penitentiary, having plead guilty to the charge of adultery.

The public schools of this city are crowded, notwithstanding the additional room provided for the accommodation of pupils this year.

Mr. O. M. Barnard, our county assessor, sustained quite severe injuries from a runaway on Tuesday, by which he was thrown from his buggy.

The musical and literary festival given by Portland Lodge, I. O. G. T., on Monday evening was highly enjoyed by those present. The attendance was good.

The McGibeny family were advertised to sing in Grass Valley, California, on the 13th of this month. They have received many complimentary notices from the press of that State.

The paintings of Master Clyde Cooke, the Salem "boy artist," on exhibition at Shanahan's, display native talent of the first order blended with painstaking care and cultivation. The young artist has a future.

The miscreant Pool, whose attempted outrage upon a little girl created so much just indignation in this city last summer, on being arraigned for trial last week, entered a plea of "guilty," and was sentenced to one year in the penitentiary.

The government snagboat has arrived from the Upper Willamette and will be tied up for the winter, the appropriation being exhausted. Over 1,000 snags, stumps, etc., have been removed from the Willamette by this craft the past season.

Messrs. Lewis & Strauss have displayed their usual skill and judgment in the selection of their fall and winter goods. Their invoice of cloaks deserve special mention, while their exquisite stock of millinery has only to be seen by lovers of the beautiful to be appreciated.

An immense audience was in attendance at the hall of the Young Men's Christian Association on last Saturday evening at the meeting of the open temperance society. It is estimated that three hundred people, at least, who desired to attend were unable to obtain seats. Every available foot of standing or sitting room was occupied, and the exercises were intensely interesting throughout. More than fifty persons signed the pledge. This organization is now in the full tide of success, and is accomplishing great good. An effort will be made to have a temporary partition now in the hall removed, and thus two or three hundred more persons can be accommodated. On next Saturday evening the meeting will commence promptly at half-past seven. All are cordially invited to attend, and, if nothing more, lend their influence to this great work.

TURKISH LIFE.—The men and women live in different parts of the house. Neither is allowed, without permission, to enter the territory of the other. In a Turkish house the men and women do not take their meals together, do not sit around the table, and can hardly be said to feed decently. It is quite possible for men and women who do not know the use of a fork to be clean about their food, but the use of a fork is a great step towards cleanliness in eating. A Turk, holding a considerable quantity in the State, will take a handful of boiled rice from the common dish, and, after having squeezed all the water out

"Dora Darmore," of the Mission Mirror, San Francisco, concludes a letter to her journal, descriptive of a flying trip to Roseburg, while on a recent visit to this State, as follows: "In conclusion, I can truthfully say that Oregon has more natural advantages, and a combination of picturesque landscape superior to any State which I have ever seen. Her lofty, snow-capped mountains; her inexhaustible forests; her green and fertile valleys, traversed by such great and beautiful rivers as the Columbia and Willamette, teeming with fish; her moist and equable climate, and fruitful soil, make her one of the most desirable States in the Union, in which to make a home."

From Hon. W. H. Jones, West Dover, Vt.

"I have been troubled from my boyhood with chronic or hereditary lung complaint. Some years since, in the winter, I took cold, which as usual settled into a severe cough, which continued to increase as the season advanced, although I made use of all the cough remedies I had knowledge of. My family physician also prescribed for me, but I experienced no relief. During all this time, I was gradually running down, losing flesh and strength, until my friends, as well as myself, became very much alarmed, thinking I should waste away in consumption. While in Boston, during the spring following, I was induced to try WISTAR'S BALSAM OF WILD CHERRY. After one day's trial I was sensible that it was relieving me; in ten days' time my cough had entirely ceased, and I was soon restored to health and strength. I have ever since kept the BALSAM in my house, and whenever any member of my family has a cough or cold, it is immediately resorted to. No family should be without it." Sold by all druggists. 2

A Timely Check.

A dry, hacking cough is the first symptom of approaching Consumption. Check it in time, and the danger is avoided; neglect it, and fatal consequences are pretty sure to ensue. The necessity for the adoption of precautionary measures cannot, therefore, be too strongly urged. Among the advertised cough remedies there is none better calculated to administer the timely check referred to than HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR, which is avouched by those who have used it, or have observed its effects, to be a perfectly reliable specific for a Cough or Cold, Soreness of the Chest or Throat, Influenza and Asthma, and a valuable alleviant in Consumption. A feature of this preparation, which probably contributes in some degree to its popularity, is its sweet and pleasant taste and odor, so different from those of most cough mixtures, which are usually nauseous and revolting.

Home for Homeless Women.

Under the auspices of the Band of Helpers. Location—Columbia street, between Fifth and Sixth. Mrs. McCord, matron. The doors of the Home stand open to all homeless women of good character. Board and room will be furnished at cost to those who have means, and FREE to those who have not. Temporary work will be furnished at the Home, and permanent situations obtained for inmates. Ladies who have sewing to put out, who are in need of professional nurses, or any kind of help, are urged to apply at the Home, and thus aid this noble effort to help their own sex.

The Machine Was Worn Out.

Why? Not because it was not well built, but it was wrongly run. Thousands of men who have run down long before their threescore and ten years are accomplished, might have been renewed into sprightliness and vim if they had tried the well known PERUVIAN SYRUP, which contains among its compounds the protoxide of iron, so combined that it assimilates with the blood and invigorates the whole system. This SYRUP has proved efficacious in thousands of cases, and will do everybody good who uses it. All druggists keep it.

TAKE NOTICE.

Mr. Hendee is in town and is taking pictures in all styles of the art, and has all the advantages of easy access to his Gallery and the best light in the State, and takes as good pictures as any other man and at as reasonable prices, and is always ready and good-natured. Please call and test his ability. Gallery in the middle of the block, First street, between Morrison and Yamhill, Portland, Oregon. 6-23

Dare not to trifle with a cough. It is inviting death, when safety is within reach. Stop the cough, heal the lungs, remove all irritation from the windpipe, and relieve the difficulty of breathing with HALE'S HONEY OF HOREHOUND AND TAR. A few doses will effect a perfect cure.

MISCELLANEOUS ADVERTISEMENTS.

JUST PUBLISHED,

A NEW ILLUSTRATED POEM.

"In with you, man!" Pelatiah said.
"You'd better try to earn your bread
Than like the birds to bill and coo!
'Twill do for them to sigh and woo,
For they have nothing else to do."

DAVID AND ANNA MATSON.

By Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway,

Editor "New Northwest," Portland, Oregon,

WITH BEAUTIFUL ILLUSTRATIONS, AND ELEGANTLY BOUND.

A new epic, from a vigorous and skillful pen, on a subject which occupies a large place in the social discussions of the day. The subject is taken from Mr. Whittier's short narrative of "David Matson," with which the reader is probably familiar. David Matson, a Merrimac sailor, was captured by the Algerines (during one of his voyages) and sold into slavery. After many years he obtained release and was on his way to the home of his boyhood, when he fell in with his old employer, who informed him that his wife, believing him dead, had remarried, and, stunned by his trouble, he surrendered all claim as husband and father to the man who had stepped into his place, and departed. Mrs. Duniway has found a theme in this story with which her heart beats in warmest sympathy, and her lines flow on in the smooth cadence indicative of the fullest accord. She pictures the gentle, tender, trustful Anna and the wily, covetous Pelatiah in vivid colors; and how years of poverty and longing, and the cries of the hungry boys, compelled poor Anna to yield to Pelatiah's importunity,

"Rise, rejoice,
My poor, untpated dove," said he,
"And look henceforth for love to me."

A little further on he says:

"Become my wife and you shall be Made happy through prosperity."

While, if she persists in declining his advances, wolf-like, he threatens to abandon her to starvation and cold. And this Pelatiah was a "deacon,"

"In exhortations deep and loud."

The wanderings of David, his captivity, release, hapless interview with Pelatiah, discovery of Anna's second wifehood, and his sad going back to Algeria, are all told so pathetically that our feelings are deeply enlisted. No one, with any true sentiment, can read the poem without being thoroughly stirred. The illustrations are in admirable keeping with the passages they are designed to portray, and a fine engraving of the author is a fitting frontispiece. The subject, spirit, fire and passion of the poem should give it an extensive reading, aside from the interest which the literary reputation of the author must awaken in it. As a specimen of book-making the volume is certainly beautiful, and would adorn any center-table.

We know of no work so well adapted as a present. It is printed on heavy tinted paper and most beautifully bound, price, $2 00; full gilt extra, $2 50. For sale by book-sellers, or by mail, post-paid, by
