Rev. C. V. Anthony departed on the "Fishes," expecting to spend a few weeks in San Francisco and Oakland.

Remember that this is the last month that the Ferrotype Gallery will remain; so call at once, before the rush of the last few days.

The Democratic State Convention drew hither a number of prominent Democrats from various parts of the State this week.

Grand Lodge I. O. G. T. will convene in this city June 18th. Delegates will be passed over the different lines of travel at half fare.

Mooney & Moxley exhibit a magnificent array of spring goods, making a specialty of latest styles, best goods, and lowest honorable prices.

Mrs. Frush, a highly-esteemed old lady of East Portland, had the misfortune to fall and sustain a fracture of the ankle on Friday evening.

Messrs. Dell & Reed, attorneys-at-law, have headquarters in Strawbridge's building, rooms five and six. Go and see them if you have any business.

A dispatch announces the arrival at Valparaiso, on the 27th of March, of the steamship "Oregon." She will be due here the last of the present month.

Mr. A. Noltner, editor of the Standard, has been seriously ill during the past week. We join his numerous friends in the hope that his illness may be temporary.

County convention was held on Saturday, and delegates to the number of twenty-two were chosen to attend the State convention, which convenes at Salem on the 17th.

C. T. Belcher & Co., of the new grocery store on First street, above Salmon, offer an immense variety of everything to be desired in their line, at reasonable rates. Give them a call.

Miss Annie Poley, so well known in this city, has become a great favorite with theater-goers of San Francisco. Her husband, R. Fulford, seems to have disappeared entirely from the boards.

Rev. Matthew Hale Smith left San Francisco for this city on the 11th. He is a noted lecturer, and will speak in the Taylor-street M. E. Church on Sunday evening. His subject will be "Ministers' Wives."

Fleischner, Mayer & Co. have their full line of superb millinery and fancy goods for sale at greatly reduced prices. Their assortment of novelties, always immense, has never been so great as now, and their prices are marvelously low.

Have you a picture of your great-grandfather or mother? Then have your own taken for your great-grandchildren, that your good looks may be preserved for future generations, as well as the name of Davidson Brothers, photographers, First and Yamhill streets, Portland, Oregon.

The net amount expended to keep up the public schools in this district for the year ending April 8, 1878, is $50,345.55. Estimates for the ensuing year amount to $44,355, the last amount being less than that of the first on account of the cost of adding to the school buildings last year.

Mr. Frank G. Abell, of San Francisco, has reopened the photographic works of Ross and Meigs. First-class work of all kinds at greatly reduced prices. Children's pictures a specialty. Cloudy weather the best for photographs. Cards, three dollars per dozen; Cabinet size, five and six dollars per dozen.

An entertainment for the benefit of the open temple, which will take place at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A., on Saturday evening, April 20th. Two ladies, Miss Gould and Mrs. Holbrook, have been canvassing this city during the past week soliciting aid for Wesley Congregational Church. The matter is in the hands of a competent committee, and an enjoyable entertainment may safely be predicted.

We call the attention of our readers to the fact that our advertisers, R. S. & A. P. Lacey, attorneys, Washington, D. C., prosecute pension claims. The law-giving pensions to the soldiers of the war of 1812 and their widows has been approved by the President, and all interested would do well to write to this firm for proper blanks and information.

The locomotive, tender and one passenger car of the express train were thrown from the track at the advance above the machine shops, on Tuesday evening. The accident was caused by a horse springing on the track in front of the locomotive while the train was running at full speed. Johnny Brought, engine driver, and Fred Bogart, fireman, were injured severely, but not dangerously. The passengers were uninjured.

Addie Kinney, a girl sixteen years of age, whose parents reside in North Yamhill, was found in the streets without money or place to go on Tuesday evening. She came to this city several weeks ago to earn her living, and, being inexperienced and without friends, drifted about until reduced to the straits named. Her parents display a most reprehensible carelessness, to give it no harsher name, in allowing her to leave home under such circumstances.

The anniversary celebration of Samaritan Lodge No. 2, I. O. O. F., was an exceedingly pleasant affair. The exercises, musical, literary, and historical, were very interesting and were largely attended by members and friends of the order. The supper that succeeded the social and literary part of the programme was elegant, substantial, and ample, and the ball that closed the festivities was well conducted and thoroughly enjoyed by all participants. Altogether, the celebration was a credit to the order and a special honor to Samaritan Lodge.

Brother Abbott, of the Dayton News, has been delighted by the sight of a squaw helping her lord to "spade up a white man's garden," and bears cheerful testimony to the fact that she spaded up at least twice as much ground as did her spouse. He omits to tell us, as he gives a fling at "woman's rights," whether the liege lord pocketed the entire sum paid for the performance of the job.

MISCELLANEOUS.

A friend suggests that the "German women" whom Dr. Volkman, of the Staats Zeitung, refers to as being opposed to the extension of the franchise to women, or at least indifferent about it, must be those who, in their native Germany, work in the yoke side by side with cows and oxen, dividing their time between trudging in the furrow, cooking their "lords'" meals, and rearing soldiers to be shot down at the behest of a tyrannical government. No use to quote the opinions of this class of slaves to the enlightened women of America with the expectation of making them emulous.

Women vote on all educational questions in Minnesota. No revolution in the "domestic relations" reported.

MISCELLANEOUS ADVERTISEMENTS.

JUST PUBLISHED, A NEW ILLUSTRATED POEM.

DAVID AND ANNA MATSON. By Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway, Editor "New Northwest," Portland, Oregon.

WITH BEAUTIFUL ILLUSTRATIONS, AND ELEGANTLY BOUND.

A new epic, from a vigorous and skillful pen, on a subject which occupies a large place in the social discussions of the day. The subject is taken from Mr. Whittier's short narrative of "David Matson," with which the reader is probably familiar.

The wanderings of David, his captivity, release, hapless interview with Pelatiah, discovery of Anna's second betrothal, and his sad going back to Algeria, are all told so pathetically that our feelings are deeply enlisted. No one, with any true sentiment, can read the poem without being thoroughly stirred.

The illustrations are in admirable keeping with the passages they are designed to portray, and a fine engraving of the author is a fitting frontispiece. The subject, spirit, fire and passion of the poem should give it an extensive reading, aside from the interest which the literary reputation of the author must awaken in it.

We know of no work so well adapted as a present. It is printed on heavy lined paper and most beautiful bound, price, $2.00; full gilt edges, $2.50. For sale by book-sellers, or by mail, post-paid.
