

HOME NEWS.

Fishel & Roberts exhibit an unusually large assortment of everything that boys and men may need or fancy.

Call when you will at the White House and you will find the elegant store of Lewis & Strauss thronged with customers.

Mr. Olds, of the firm of Olds & King, has just returned from San Francisco with a magnificent stock of general merchandise.

Frischmeyer, Mayer & Co., are inclined continually to fill their orders from the trade. Their fall stock of millinery is especially attractive.

Don't forget to buy one of those magic kettles-scrubbers that Mr. Garrison, of the Wilson sewing-machine firm, will show you at the Mechanics' Fair.

Remember Abel is not behind, but ahead. First premiums for the best cabinets, cards and retouched photographs at the late State Fair.

The steamer "Great Republic" which sailed from here last Sunday morning, will leave San Francisco on the 29th instant with passengers and freight.

Money & Valuable are doing a lively business, the result of judicious advertising, obliging proprietors, accumulating capital, a good line of goods, and fair prices.

The Oregon Furniture Manufacturing Company have a complete set of Oregon-made furniture on exhibition at the pavilion, which would have taken the first premium at the Centennial Exposition.

At Petrus's grocery store, First street, between Pine and Ash, will be found the largest and finest variety of goods in the city. Satisfy yourself as to their quality by calling and sampling their stock.

The State circuit court and the grand jury are both in session, and Sheriff Norden and his bailiffs are busy as ever in summarizing up witnesses and attending to the various duties allotted them.

Dr. Walter Hyde, spiritual developing medium, gives sittings daily from 10 a. m. to 4 p. m., at 141 First street, room 23. Public sittings every evening at 7 o'clock. Correspondence from a distance invited.

Davidson Brothers step to the front with a big reduction in the prices of photo work. Card photographs $1.50, and cabinet $2.00 per dozen. Their special artist for outside work, Mr. A. H. Wilson, has an equal in the State.

Professor Prentiss is ever on the alert at fairs, as well as "in the road," with his elegant stock of musical instruments. That new organ of his must be seen to be appreciated. You can almost hear the tones of the magnificent picture of that Welsh plain on the organ.

The exhibit of agricultural implements by Newbury & Chapman, at the Mechanics' Pavilion, attracts much attention. Crowds of visitors linger about the different machines, which perform their work in a very pleasant and interesting manner.

"Pencil photos" just introduced by Abel, the popular artist, are soon to be the most popular for ladies and gentle. Call and see them at his counting room, 103 First street, Portland, Oregon. All styles of work made by Mr. Abel are guaranteed the finest in finish and at low prices.

We solemnly beg the receipt of a complimentary invitation to the grand opening of Professor F. A. Schreiner, on Saturday, October 24th. This affair will doubtless be a very pleasant and profitable one, and we are sure that all those who are favored with tickets will particularly enjoy it.

A very enjoyable time was had last evening at the house of Mr. J. M. and Mrs. George H. Smith, under the auspices of the Ladies' Society of the Congregational Church. Literary and musical exercises were interspersed with other agreeable pastimes, in all of which Mr. and Mrs. Crozier, Mrs. Beach, and Captain Wilkinson, and others took acceptable part.

Miss Lily Gleason of Quincy exhibited two oil paintings of the State Fair, and was awarded the first premium for excellence in each of them. One, a view of Mount Hood, was an excellent study, and the other was "A scene on the Beadywin" on cardboard, 6x7 inches in size. The pictures evoked talent and admiration, and through a triumph should certainly be a great encouragement to Miss Gleason.

Shakespeare's beautiful drama of "Romeo and Juliet" was presented at New Market Theater last (Wednesday) evening by an excellent company. The attractions being Mrs. Scott-Siddons, the popular tragedienne, as "Juliet," and Miss Jean Clara Walters as "Romeo." Every available seat was occupied, and every attention was given to the production. These renowned ladies fully sustained their previous well-earned reputation. Mrs. Scott-Siddons is as womanly as she is earnest, and carries her audience with her through all her varying moods, "from grave to gay, from lively to severe." Same list this evening. Do not fail to secure seats in time. Apply at Morse's Palace of Art.

According to announcement, the Mechanics' Fair opened on Monday evening, and has been in successful operation during the week. The building has been fitted up in excellent style. The four main promenades give ample opportunity for visitors to examine the various exhibits. The first floor is occupied by machinery, furniture, silverware, jewelry, wooden and willow ware, sewing-machines, millinery, hardware, and crockery, works in marble, rock, billiard tables, pipes, brooms, pots, stoves, tongs, etc. The second floor is devoted to painting, pictures, saddlery, and crockery, picture frames, etc. We have not space for a full description. Let everybody attend. Admission, 50c; season tickets, $2.00.

House for Homeless Women. Under the auspices of the Board of Missions, located at Columbia street, between Fifth and Sixth, Mrs. Virgil, warden, the doors of the House stand open to all homeless women of good character, and whom it will be found to do good to those who have no home, and such as those who have not. Temporary work will be furnished at the Home, and persons who are unable to find work elsewhere will be supplied with food and clothing. Let everybody attend. Admission, 50c; season tickets, $2.00.

Certain Cure for Cancer. Mrs. Dr. Mary O. Brown takes this method of curing the afflicted that she is in possession of a safe, certain, and painless cure for that most loathsome and terrible disease known as CANCER, in all its forms and phases. Her remedy is never known to fail. Address Mrs. Dr. Mary O. Brown, Olympia, W. T. 7-36

SPECIAL NOTICE. All business letters pertaining to the New Northwest, and all money due this office on subscription or otherwise, must be directed to MRS. A. J. DUNNWAY.

A Grand Success. Thousands of medicines are annually placed before the public to "cure" or "relieve" some unwelcome preparation, and by being glariously advertised, one cannot pick up a newspaper without being struck out of countenance by the heavy black letters of some vile nostrum, and by this means people are forced, as it were, to buy a bottle just to give it a trial, and then, soon makes a reputation for themselves, and become an actual necessity in every home.

This is the case with the GROSS BLOOD PURIFIER, LIVER AND KIDNEY REGULATOR. We only want to tell you where you can find it, and leave our customers to judge of its utility. It does not "cure" anything, but it is one of the best blood purifiers and regulators ever placed before the public. To ladies in pregnancy it has in most cases proved a happiness, alleviating all nausea and vomiting, regulating the stomach, giving it tone, and permitting it to retain food. Many ladies of Portland can testify to its efficacy in this regard. It operates mildly, producing no pain, no severe purging, being a purely vegetable compound. For sale by all druggists, Wm. Prudden & Co., Manufacturers and Pharmaceutical Chemists, Philadelphia, and New Market Theater block, Portland, Oregon.

"Unquestionably the best sustained work of the kind in the World." Harper's Magazine. The veteran "Magazine," which long ago outgrew its original title of the "New Monthly Magazine," has not in the least abated its popularity. It is in many ways, and has kept fairly abreast of the times, thanks to the enterprise of the publishers and the tact and wisdom of its editors. For whatever it is best and most readable in the literature of travel, discovery, and fiction, the average reader of today looks to "Harper's Magazine," just as expectantly as did the reader of a quarter of a century ago. There is the same admirable variety of contents and the same freshness and suggestiveness in its editorial departments now as then. -Boston Journal.

TERMS: Postage Free to all subscribers in the U. S. HARPER'S MAGAZINE, one year $2.00; 6 months $1.00; 3 months $0.50. Single copies 10c. Subscriptions in advance. Money orders, drafts, and checks payable to the order of Harper & Brothers, New York, N. Y. All communications should be addressed to Harper & Brothers, 51 N. 3rd St., New York, N. Y.

MISCELLANEOUS ADVERTISEMENTS. JUST PUBLISHED. A NEW ILLUSTRATED POEM.

DAVID AND ANNA MATSON. By Mrs. Abigail Scott Duniway, Editor "New Northwest," Portland, Oregon.

WITH BEAUTIFUL ILLUSTRATIONS, AND ELEGANTLY BOUND. A new epic, from a vigorous and skillful pen, on a subject which occupies a large place in the social discussions of the day. The subject is taken from Mr. Whitier's short narrative of "David Matson," with which the reader is probably familiar. David Matson, an American sailor, was captured by the Algerines (during one of his voyages) and sold into slavery. After many years he obtained release and was on his way to the home of his childhood, when he fell in with his old employer, who informed him that his wife, he believed him dead, had remarried, and, situated by his trouble, he surrendered all claim as husband and father to the man who had stepped into his place, and departed. Mrs. Duniway has found a theme in this story with which her heart beats in warmest sympathy, and her lines flow on in the smooth cadence of the classic of the fallen sword. She pictures the gentle, tender, fraternal Anna and the witty, evasive Pelatiah in vivid colors; and how years of poverty and longing, and the cries of the hungry boys, compelled poor Anna to yield to Pelatiah's importunity.

"In with you, man? Pelatiah said, 'You'd better try to earn your bread. You'll like the kind to fill and eat.' 'Twill do for them to sign and woo.' For they have nothing else to do."
