

The New Northwest

TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 19, 1858.

LOCAL NEWS.

The Grand Jury is in session.
The "iron-clad ordinances" are practically lost.
Several arrests for opium smoking have been made this week.

The "United Irishmen" of Portland have disbanded the society.

Railroad iron for the Northern Pacific is being shipped up the Columbia.

The Republican State Central Committee will convene at Salem to-morrow.

China New Year's was quiet, thanks to the iron-clad ordinance against fire-crackers.

Col. David Taggart, well known here, is on his farm in Pennsylvania, and his life is blood stock.

The indications are that boating and base-ball will receive much attention during the coming Summer.

Owing to the superior finish and excellence of work, Abel stands pre-eminent as a photographer. Give him a call.

Hereafter New Market Theater is to be warmed, so that none may be deterred from visiting it for fear of the cold.

Mr. W. J. Kelly will act as President of the St. Patrick's Day celebration, J. J. Byrnes as Marshal, and Hon. J. M. Gearin as orator.

Mr. Mott's residence, on Washington street, between Fifth and Sixth, was damaged by fire to the extent of $300 on Tuesday morning.

There is much opposition among property-owners to the construction of a sewer in North Portland. Petty-wis and pound foolish."

Remember the concert at Turn Hall to-morrow under the auspices of the ladies of the Baptist Church. Miss DuBois and other eminent local talent will assist.

The work of macadamizing the bed and relaying the track of the waste road, from Taylor to G street, on Fourth, is completed. The work cost $4,000.

On the 25th instant, the children of the Hebrew Sabbath school will present at New Market Theater several tableau from the cantatas of "Euterpe" and "Belshazzar."

Bartch's music store, 143 First street, under the town clock, displays an immense stock of new music, including over 5,000 pieces. The list is the largest and best-selected ever in Portland.

Those who wish an excellent suit of clothing, guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction as to price, quality, and fit, should call on W. H. Utter, with W. J. Quinn, who has re-opened at his old stand, Stark street.

Dr. Harvey delivered the third lecture of the course on social science at the Unitarian church last evening, the subject being "The Social Condition of the American Race." It was as interesting as its predecessors.

Mr. James Marks, Portland merchant, who for years has resided in San Francisco, has built a comfortable residence in a large wholesale house is visiting friends in this city, who have accorded him a hearty welcome.

Efforts were made by a masculine rival of Miss DuBois to prevent her appearance in the concert at Turn Hall on Friday night last, although she had been invited to assist; but the young lady stood pluckily by her rights, and triumphed.

After an enthusiastic meeting at Y. M. C. A. Hall on Tuesday night, a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, called the Portland Humane Society, was organized. A committee was appointed to prepare the constitution and by-laws.

Jack Williams, who shot a man in Alaska, a short time since, and was discharged because the court had no jurisdiction over the matter, was afterward arrested for robbery, and is in jail to await the action of the Grand Jury, not being able to procure bonds.

Mr. J. F. Caples, Prosecuting Attorney for this Judicial District, and Mr. M. F. Mulkey, his assistant, are urging in their efforts to punish crime, though some one has said Governor Thayer lets out convicts faster than they can put them in the penitentiary.

At the theater, on Thursday and Friday evenings and Saturday matinees, "Monte Christo" was given. The piece dragged considerably, and it was a relief when Little Maid appeared at its close and sang "When the Dew-Drops Fall."

Her voice is childlike, yet powerful and clear, and her gestures and movements are natural and graceful. Gertrude Granville is also worthy of especial mention.

Miss Granville is also worthy of especial mention for her rendition of Marie in "The Marble Heart."

FOREIGN NEWS.

Russia is looking for a heavy loan. A disastrous fire has occurred at St. Petersburg, and has caused a loss of $100,000.

Her. Alexander Keith, traveler and author, is dead.

Russia complains because England is constantly stirring up feeling against her.

Spain does not desire the allegiance of the Moors, and will not protect Morocco.

In the B.-J.-Hawdon spelling match on the Tyne, the former was an easy winner.

An attempt was made on Monday by brigands to rob a Spanish Government treasure train.

France has not forgotten Ireland's liberty in 1870, and is contributing to the Irish relief fund.

Prussia proposes prohibiting foreign vessels from engaging in the coasting trade, except under treaty.

Spain has been purchased for Ireland next year, to guard against another famine.

A commission of three members—two appointed by the United States, one by France, and one by the Emperor of Brazil—will adjust the French war claims against this country, and also counter-claims by Americans. Our Government refuses to accept the responsibility for debts of the Confederacy, or for any loss by the emancipation of slaves.

NEWS ITEMS.

STATE AND TERRITORIAL.

The State House at Salem is now fit for the session. The large audience at Salem.

Tomato brandy is being made in Jackson county.

The beach miles south of Alsea Bay are paying well.

An Irish relief ball was given at The Dallas last week, netting $300.

The "United Irishmen" of Portland have disbanded the society.

Railroad iron for the Northern Pacific is being shipped up the Columbia.

The Republican State Central Committee will convene at Salem to-morrow.

China New Year's was quiet, thanks to the iron-clad ordinance against fire-crackers.

The citizens of Jacksonville have subscribed $300 to the Irish relief fund.

The measles are raging at Phoenix. The district school is closed in consequence.

A man of capital and experience intends to erect a flouring mill at Independence.

Iale, Yamhill county's defaulting Sheriff, was placed in the penitentiary on the 9th.

Suitable residence lots in the outskirts of Walla Walla can be had for $75 or $100.

The school for mutes at Salem is to be reopened. Rev. P. S. Knight is to be Superintendent.

Johnson, who killed Crosley at Independence, has been bound over in $2,000 to await the action of the Grand-Jury on a charge of manslaughter.

Seybert Nelson, a stock-raiser of Laclede Valley, was crossing Klamath Lake on horseback on the ice, recently, when the surface gave way, plunging him and the horse into the lake. They were both drowned before assistance could be rendered.

It is reported that a little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bacius, living in Nehalem Valley, died of starvation recently, in her mother's arms, while the father was trying to reach St. Helens for food. Their stock of provisions was short when the great storm came on.

The Northern Pacific Railroad.

Great interest is felt by our people as to the final location of the Western Division of the road, but whether it comes down the Columbia River or across the mountain to Puget Sound, the supply of OREGON KIDNEY TEA will not be affected. Enough was gathered last fall to cure every case of backache or kidney disease in Oregon, and it will do so.

The work of macadamizing the bed and relaying the track of the waste road, from Taylor to G street, on Fourth, is completed. The work cost $4,000.

On the 25th instant, the children of the Hebrew Sabbath school will present at New Market Theater several tableau from the cantatas of "Euterpe" and "Belshazzar."

Bartch's music store, 143 First street, under the town clock, displays an immense stock of new music, including over 5,000 pieces. The list is the largest and best-selected ever in Portland.

Those who wish an excellent suit of clothing, guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction as to price, quality, and fit, should call on W. H. Utter, with W. J. Quinn, who has re-opened at his old stand, Stark street.

Dr. Harvey delivered the third lecture of the course on social science at the Unitarian church last evening, the subject being "The Social Condition of the American Race." It was as interesting as its predecessors.

Mr. James Marks, Portland merchant, who for years has resided in San Francisco, has built a comfortable residence in a large wholesale house is visiting friends in this city, who have accorded him a hearty welcome.

Efforts were made by a masculine rival of Miss DuBois to prevent her appearance in the concert at Turn Hall on Friday night last, although she had been invited to assist; but the young lady stood pluckily by her rights, and triumphed.

After an enthusiastic meeting at Y. M. C. A. Hall on Tuesday night, a society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, called the Portland Humane Society, was organized. A committee was appointed to prepare the constitution and by-laws.

Jack Williams, who shot a man in Alaska, a short time since, and was discharged because the court had no jurisdiction over the matter, was afterward arrested for robbery, and is in jail to await the action of the Grand Jury, not being able to procure bonds.

Mr. J. F. Caples, Prosecuting Attorney for this Judicial District, and Mr. M. F. Mulkey, his assistant, are urging in their efforts to punish crime, though some one has said Governor Thayer lets out convicts faster than they can put them in the penitentiary.

At the theater, on Thursday and Friday evenings and Saturday matinees, "Monte Christo" was given. The piece dragged considerably, and it was a relief when Little Maid appeared at its close and sang "When the Dew-Drops Fall."

Her voice is childlike, yet powerful and clear, and her gestures and movements are natural and graceful. Gertrude Granville is also worthy of especial mention.

Miss Granville is also worthy of especial mention for her rendition of Marie in "The Marble Heart."

FOREIGN NEWS.

Russia is looking for a heavy loan. A disastrous fire has occurred at St. Petersburg, and has caused a loss of $100,000.

Her. Alexander Keith, traveler and author, is dead.

Russia complains because England is constantly stirring up feeling against her.

Spain does not desire the allegiance of the Moors, and will not protect Morocco.

In the B.-J.-Hawdon spelling match on the Tyne, the former was an easy winner.

An attempt was made on Monday by brigands to rob a Spanish Government treasure train.

France has not forgotten Ireland's liberty in 1870, and is contributing to the Irish relief fund.

Prussia proposes prohibiting foreign vessels from engaging in the coasting trade, except under treaty.

Spain has been purchased for Ireland next year, to guard against another famine.

A commission of three members—two appointed by the United States, one by France, and one by the Emperor of Brazil—will adjust the French war claims against this country, and also counter-claims by Americans. Our Government refuses to accept the responsibility for debts of the Confederacy, or for any loss by the emancipation of slaves.

MISCELLANEOUS.

REMOVAL.

W. H. MARSHALL & CO.

ON TO THE VERY LIBERAL ENCOURAGEMENT we have met with since our commencement in the Grocery Business, we have been compelled to seek larger and more central quarters, as our late premises were quite inadequate to meet the demands of our constantly increasing trade. We have therefore much pleasure in announcing to the public that we have secured

Stalls Nos. 4, 5, 6 and 7.

Central Market.

And we purpose making this place

The Central Rendezvous and Depot

For everybody to purchase all descriptions of Staple and Fancy Groceries.

We are now displaying ex-superior "Geo. W. Elder."

AN IMMENSE STOCK

OF

NEW GOODS.

Purchased with especial reference to our new departure,

Our Prices are Lower than those of any other house in the city, and our

Goods are all Fresh, New and Well

Selected.

We earnestly invite the attention of

Housekeepers, Heads of Families, Hotel and Boarding House Keepers, etc., to whom special inducements will be offered for supplying them with the best class of goods at the Lowest Possible Price.

WE Group delivered free and promptly to every part of the city, also in all towns and several states.

REMEMBER THE PLACE,

Central Market Grocery Store,

Stalls Nos. 4, 5, 6 and 7,

(Opposite Olds Bros.)

W. H. MARSHALL & CO.

PRICE

ONE DOLLAR

D. W. PRENTICE & CO.

THE LEADING

Music Dealers!

North of San Francisco.

WE HAVE COMMENCED, AND IN ORDER

TO EFFECT A THOROUGH CLEARANCE

BEFORE THE ARRIVAL OF SPRING

INVOICES. WE OFFER OUR ENTIRE

STOCK OF

DRY AND FURNISHING GOODS!

WE ARE THE ONLY DEALERS IN THE CITY.

WE HAVE OPENED THIS DAY,

THE LARGEST STOCK

OF

PIANOS!

From $250 to $1,000:

THIS IS A BONA FIDE OFFER, AND

EVERY INTENDING PURCHASER CAN

SAVE MONEY BY TAKING ADVANTAGE

OF IT.

COME EARLY AND OFTEN."

OLDS & KING,

No. 147 Third Street, Portland.