THE OREGON KIDNEY TEA.

Read the following testimonials, not from 3,000 miles away, whom no one knows, but from well-known and trustworthy citizens of Oregon, whose names, written with their own hands, can be seen at our office:

EDGAR C. CORY, OR., Oct. 20, 1879.
I hereby certify that I was suffering from an attack of rheumatism so severe that I went about doubled up, and could not straighten up. I used one package of the OREGON KIDNEY TEA, and I am fully persuaded that I was restored by its help.

J. W. LINGER.
HARRISBURG, OR., Dec. 31, 1879.
I have used the OREGON KIDNEY TEA for pains in the back, and I am satisfied with its effects, and do not hesitate to recommend it as a mild and safe remedy.

Z. T. SCOTT.
I am tired of being blistered, leeched, cupped and balsamed with croton oil by the most eminent practitioners, who try to cure that cold of mine by such proceedings." This tale is frequently told by the sufferer to his druggist, who, not knowing better, makes up any number of cough mixtures without giving any relief. All you sufferers, do you know why you cannot be cured by such means? It is because there is no such thing. It is an established fact that almost all coughs have their origin in a distended stomach, whence arises spasmodic contractions of the chest, etc., and thus cause coughing, which upon too much straining even produces constipation, and finally deafness. One bottle of Pfundt's Oregon Blood Purifier will give immediate relief. It has been tried over and over again, and found to answer the purpose in every case. Ask your druggist for it.

Married Women in England are agitating for their property rights. The "Married Woman's Property Committee" held its annual meeting in London on the 4th of February, and resolved to use every means to pass a law that a married woman's property shall be her own after as well as before marriage, liable for her obligations and subject to her control.

The exercises at the Open Temperance meeting last Saturday evening were of unusual interest. After the customary introductory exercises, Hon. J. J. Owen, of the San Jose Mercury, delivered an excellent address. It was followed by Mr. Drew, of New Hampshire, an able and effective speaker, who aroused much enthusiasm.

Now that the house-cleaning season is at hand, it is of interest to everybody to know that orders for Mrs. Bals' steam dry-cleaning and ironing establishment at the head of Stark street, may be left at the drug store, corner Second and Morrison streets, and at Power's furniture store, on First and Yamhill streets. See advertisement under "New This Week."

Lewis & Straus, at the well-known White House, have an immense and elegant stock of millinery at wholesale and retail. Whatever is ordered from this firm will be faithfully furnished, whether the buyer selects in person or not. And yet, it is always desirable to give the person who selects the ordered stock considerable latitude in choosing fancy goods or millinery, as the styles change so frequently that the one who sees the goods is often capable of making a better choice than the one who orders them.

A grand concert and entertainment will be given at the Y. M. C. A. Hall next Saturday evening, April 10th, for the benefit of the Open Temperance Association of this city. An admittance fee of 25 cents will be charged to pay the hall rent and expenses. A splendid programme has been prepared. Mr. D. F. Smith, Miss Sonora Withersell, Mrs. H. W. Scott, Mrs. Cruzan, Miss Camilla Coburn, Mrs. Goodsell, Mrs. Dalton and daughter, Miss Lily Watts, Professor Cook, Professor Crawford, Professor Henderson and Mr. Graham will appear.

The mammoth wholesale store of Fleischner, Mayer & Co. is filled from basement to attic with the choicest possible selections of everything made desirable in the different lines of staple and fancy goods, millinery, women goods, furnishing goods, sizes all of which is offered for sale at half rock prices, to the trade only. The attention of milliners throughout the country is called to their elegant display of hats, bonnets, trimming, flowers, feathers, pompons, ornaments, ribbons, buckles, lace and novelties, all in latest styles and of price and quality to suit the trade. There is a horde of drummers overrunning the country who make fair promises and solicit orders with a persistency which it is hard to resist; but all milliners should know that it is far better to patronize dealers belonging to the country, and are identified with the people in their local interests, than to pay the heavy expenses of the continual traveling who profess, for pure love of their customers, to bring samples to their very doors, free of charge.

The admission of women to politics has become a necessity, says the Indianapolis Journal.

THEATRICAL.

STRANGE FORGETFULNESS.—It is reported that the New Market Theater Company is doing a good business at the Dales, and that McGuire has so far forgot himself as to pay salaries.

PERSONALITIES.—Our little friend "Sweetie" could not more fully admit the truth of our strictures than by the indulgence of personal vanity. However, we can overlook his remarks, his "strange age" excusing him. Abuse and names are ever resorted to by those who are worsted in discussion.

MISS WITHERSELL'S BENEFIT.—Miss Sonora Withersell's benefit at New Market on Monday evening was largely attended by a fashionable audience, and the young lady may well be proud of her success. She was well supported by Professor Henderson, Col. McCrae, Mrs. D. F. Smith, Mrs. Goodsell, Mrs. Dalton and daughter, Miss Lily Watts, Professor Cook, Professor Crawford, Professor Henderson and Mr. Graham will appear.
