A cigar, loaded with a dynamite cartridge, was given to Parser Phillips, of the steamer Orient, on Tuesday, by a stranger who asked him some questions about the boat. Mr. P. lightest it some time afterward, and in a few minutes the explesion occurred, badly mangling his left tand, and putting out his helt eye. Had the eight been in his mouth, death would have resulted. This cowardly attempt at murder is thought to have been made to get Mr. P. out of the way, he being an important witness in Women and Carldren, my a criminal case.
