DIED: SCOTT—At Forest Grove, September 1, 1880, after a painful illness of twenty days, John Tucker Scott, aged 71 years, months and 12 days. (Funeral will take place to-morrow Friday at 11 o'clock, a. m., from the late residence of deceased.) The subject of this notice was born in Kentucky on the 18th of February, 1809, removed to Illinois, then a wilderness, in his youth, and resided for many years in Tazewell county of that State. In 1826 he crossed the plains to Oregon, and resided in this State for the greater part of the time in Washington county, until his death. Dear and honored father! Ever kind and faithful friend! Tears blur our eyes as we write these lines, and we pause involuntarily for words that shall fitly tell of thy life of noble endeavor, thy considerate and patient care, thy watchful and loving kindness. Halcyon forever in the memories of thy mourning children are thy manifold deeds of love, imperishable the chapter of immortals with which grateful memory garlands thy name. Care forgotten, sorrow remembered no more, suffering ended, thou hast entered forever into the peaceful possession of that "rest that remaineth to the people of God."
