ENTHUSIASM.

The enthusiasm for the new Oregon railroads is growing daily. The satisfaction that the people of Portland manifest in the extension of the railroad into the new territory is steadily increasing. The prospect of a shorter route to California, and the certainty of a stronger and more efficient government, have created a feeling of confidence and hope that is not likely to be extinguished.

The city of Portland is looking forward to a larger and more prosperous future. The growth of population, the increase of commerce, and the development of resources, promise a bright and prosperous future for the city. The people of Portland are determined to make the most of their opportunities, and to build a city that will be a center of commerce and industry for the entire Northwest.

The Oregon railroad is a great and necessary undertaking, and its extension into the new territory is a step in the right direction. The people of Portland are determined to make the most of their opportunities, and to build a city that will be a center of commerce and industry for the entire Northwest.

NEW YORK.

The GIVEAWAY PILLS.

A great prize will be given away by the Portland Press Herald next week. The prize is a large silver vase, valued at $100. The name of the winner will be announced in the next issue of the newspaper.

The contest is open to all residents of Portland, and the winner will be selected by a jury of three prominent citizens. The jury will be chosen from a list of nominees submitted by the public.
