

EX. COM. O. S. W. S. A.

The Executive Committee of the Oregon State Woman Suffrage Association met, pursuant to call, at the residence of Mrs. M. A. Edmunds, corner Fourth and Oak streets, Portland, at 2 o'clock P. M., January 4, 1881.

Present—Mr. E. F. Heroy, President; Mrs. J. DeVore Johnson, Recording Secretary; Mrs. M. A. Edmunds, Corresponding Secretary, and Mrs. A. S. Duniway.

Meeting called to order by the President. Mrs. Duniway moved that a committee be appointed to revise the constitution and by-laws of the Association, said revision to be proposed to the Association for approval. Carried; and the President appointed Mrs. A. S. Duniway, Mrs. C. A. Coburn and Mr. W. S. Duniway.

Mrs. Edmunds moved that the Revisory Committee propose to the Association the creation of the office of "Vice-President at Large." Carried.

Mrs. Johnson moved that the Revisory Committee propose to the Association that its annual meeting be appointed for such a day in the second week of February as the Executive Committee shall consider expedient, from year to year. Carried.

Mrs. Edmunds moved that the Revisory Committee report its work to the Executive Committee at 2 o'clock Saturday, February 5th, at the residence of Mrs. A. S. Duniway. Carried.

Mrs. Johnson moved, and it was carried, that two hundred invitations be printed from postal cards for circulation among the members and friends of the Association throughout the State, inviting cooperation at the February meeting.

Mrs. Duniway reported to the meeting that Professor Cook, upon invitation, had agreed to furnish music for Wednesday and Thursday during the session of the Association.

Mrs. Edmunds proposed Mrs. Dalton, Mr. Heroy and Miss Leslie as a Committee on Programme, to meet as soon as possible and to report to the Executive Committee at its afternoon meeting on February 5th. Carried.

The President appointed Mr. B. C. Duniway a committee of one to engage a hall for the annual meeting of the Association.

Committee adjourned to 2 o'clock, February 5th. Mrs. J. DeVore Johnson, Sec'y.

WOMEN, ATTENTION.

AWAKE AND CAPTURE THE FOURTH OF JULY, THE BIRTHDAY OF THE REPUBLIC.

The various organizations of women are requested to issue circulars to their auxiliaries all over the country, asking that henceforth the day of our National Independence be celebrated in a fitting manner by the daughters of the Pilgrims. Let the women in every school district from Maine to Texas, from the Atlantic to the Pacific, unite in this new departure. Select at once for the orator of the day the woman in your school district or town who can best write and speak, that she may have the intervening months for thorough preparation, and thus honor herself and the occasion. We have listened to the rehearsal of man's achievements and built statues to his memory for one long century; now let us sing the praises of the Pilgrim Mothers, and garner from the leaves of the past the glowing words and generous deeds of their daughters. Let us bring to this "Harvest Home" for the first time in our history an adequate record of woman's work. With the Declaration of Independence in one hand and the 16th Amendment to our Constitution in the other, let the women of this Nation simultaneously declare their equal rights in the great experiment of a government by the people. As under the genius of our free institutions the rights of women are at last being recognized, her thoughts should be lifted from a narrow family selfishness into the high and holy channels of patriotism. On the threshold of the second century of our national life, let woman celebrate one watch-night of the Republic, one ante-natal hour of holy musings, counsels, aspirations set to the music of a peaceful chorus, without the uncivilized clangor of booming cannon that has hitherto distinguished the world's great festivals. With soft music in shady groves let the voice of woman now be heard, and let her sons in silence learn her will. Let the 4th of July, 1881, usher in a new day of peace and liberty to all.

ELIZABETH CADY STANTON, ELIZABETH BOYNTON HARBERT, PHEBE W. COUZINS, MAY WRIGHT THOMPSON, SUSAN B. ANTHONY, MATILDA JOSLYN GAGE.

As the above idea emanated from the brain of Elizabeth Boynton Harbert, and was first proposed by her in the Woman's Congress recently held in Boston, and as she occupies a central position in the country, let all communications on the subject be addressed to Mrs. E. B. Harbert, Editor "Woman's Kingdom," care Inter-Ocean, Chicago, Ill.

YAMHILL COUNTY - W. S. A.

The Yamhill County Woman Suffrage Association will meet at McMinnville in Mohawk Hall on Friday, January 14th, at 2 o'clock P. M., at which time the annual election of officers will take place, and plans for the ensuing year's work will be agreed upon. In the evening there will be a grand rally. A good programme is already prepared. We hope all the members and friends throughout the county especially will not fail to be present. Those who cannot come will please forward the annual dues, as it costs something to hold such a meeting. Arrangements will be made to accommodate all who will come.

H. A. LOUGHARY, Cor. Sec'y.

THE NEW NORTHWEST'S ADVERTISERS.

We this week refer briefly to business houses and professional people who aid in sustaining this Journal. Some of them may not fully sanction all the ideas advanced and principles advocated in its columns, yet all believe in freedom of thought and speech, and readily and cheerfully support a paper that honestly and fearlessly expresses its convictions of right and justice. Subscribers and readers are asked to carefully note the firms represented in its advertising columns and regulate their patronage accordingly. The Woman Suffragists of Oregon and Washington will do the NEW NORTHWEST a favor and serve themselves by mentioning the paper when purchasing of its advertisers, because its revenue will be increased and its proprietors enabled to furnish a superior journal.

If you have legal business in Polk county, give John M. Daly, of Dallas, a call.

Mrs. M. J. Crump's dress-making and millinery store is at No. 225 Second street.

The Aurora Restaurant, as of yore, provides a "good, square meal" for 25 cents.

Mrs. A. J. Brazell, No. 131 Third street, continues to do only first-class dress-making.

Biles & Co., No. 171 Second street, deal in boots and shoes from the leading manufactories of the East.

Dr. Russ, near the post office, will pull or plug your old teeth, or make you new ones, good and cheap.

Mrs. West's store, No. 27 Washington street, is the only one in the city devoted exclusively to millinery.

J. Van Beurden, the jeweler, No. 107 First street, makes a specialty of fine goods and diamond mountings.

Dr. Glenn, the pioneer, always gives satisfaction at his dental rooms, corner First and Yamhill streets.

Dr. Paul M. Brennan may still be consulted free at his office, No. 63 First street, about all chronic and difficult cases.

Blumauer & Co., corner First and Stark streets, are the manufacturers of the celebrated and efficacious "Rose" pills.

The time schedules of trains on the east and the west-side railroads appear regularly under the heading of "Travel."

Mr. J. Sorensen, at the foot of E street, will fill all orders for wood, sawed or unsawed, and deliver it to any part of the city.

Mitchell & Dement, corner First and Morrison streets, will attend to your law business with promptness and dispatch.

O. Conrad & Co., No. 10 Salmon street, clean and dye all kinds of goods after the newest German and French systems.

Mrs. Dr. J. L. Parrish will return from Salem on Saturday, and can thereafter be found at her office, No. 269 First street.

Dr. Keck's "Sure Cure for Catarrh" is a standard remedy for the nauseating malady, and thousands testify to its efficacy.

Frank G. Abell, No. 167 First street, has earned his claim to pre-eminence as a photographer. His work is as fine as can be desired.

The Portland Library contains over 8000 books and over 100 papers and periodicals, to which access may be had for $1 per month.

Dolph, Bronaugh, Dolph & Simon may be found in their office in Odd Fellow's Temple, where all litigants will be honorably dealt with.

Burkhardt & Spaulding, Nos. 35 and 37 B street, keep a neat and clean meat market, stocked with everything that a market should have.

Alisky & Hegele, No. 145 First street, are proprietors of the largest and most elegant confectionery establishment in the Northwest.

The sailing dates of the steamers Oregon, Columbia and State of California are regularly published under the heading of "Travel."

John A. Beck, the well-known jeweler, No. 149 Front street, will sell you new goods cheap and repair your old watches and brooches ditto.

Benjamin I. Cohen, Esq., attorney-at-law and agent of the Central Law Journal and its law publications, may be found at No. 155 First street, up stairs.

Mr. G. Neimeyer, No. 162 First street, does fine merchant tailoring at reasonable rates. His stock of Scotch, English, French and domestic cloths is unsurpassed.

Voss & Fuhr, of the famous Empire Bakery, No. 34 Washington street, will sell you bread, cakes, pies and crackers cheaper than you can make them at home.

Mrs. T. H. Cann, Front street, Seattle, W. T., is conducting her millinery and dress-making store in a manner satisfactory to her patrons and profitable to herself.

J. W. Bailey, No. 47 Yamhill street, has become one of the most popular grocers in the city. Prompt attention to orders and fair dealing have had their effect.

Miss Dr. Angie L. Ford, rooms 4 and 5, No. 167 First street, will cure your bodily ills by her medicines and alleviate your mental troubles by her cheery presence.

Salinger's Cash Auction Company, No. 210 First street, will next week move to 180 First street, as their immense and increasing trade demands more room.

Mrs. M. J. Ensign, favorably known as a dress-maker, can be found over Plummer's drug store, corner First and Main streets. She cuts and bastes suits for one dollar.

The lots in the Portland Homestead are nearly all sold, and it will at one time be a cluster of homes. Its location will be the best in the city for residences in coming years.

Mrs. Dr. M. J. Solander, new school physician, is prepared to furnish special remedies for diphtheria and diseases of women at her office in McKinnell's block, on Second street.

Woodward & Magoon, corner Second and Taylor streets, are reasonable in their charges for livery rigs and boarding horses. Orders for hacks are promptly attended to, day or night.

The Oregon Transfer Company, corner Second and Stark streets, does a general freighting, forwarding and commission business, and promptly answers calls for hacks, day or night.

Persons suffering from kidney troubles should write for an "Excelsior" pad, and those afflicted with throat or lung troubles for a lung pad, to the "Only Lung Pad Co.," of Detroit, Mich.

White's Business College, No. 128 Front street, is devoted to the preparation of pupils of either sex for the transaction of all business requiring a knowledge of penmanship, bookkeeping, etc.

The elegant display of furniture at Shindler & Chadbourne's is giving all the young ladies the marrying mania. And no wonder. Their parlor, dining-room and chamber sets are irresistible.

Himes, No. 5 Washington street, is recognized as the leading book and job printer of the city, and his work is excellent, as the neat press-work of this paper, which is done in his establishment, testifies.

Newberry, Hawthorne & Co., corner First and Madison streets, keep every agricultural implement the farmer needs. Their business extends throughout the Northwest, and is constantly increasing.

Robbins & Yates, No. 229 First street, are agents for the Decker Brothers, the J. & C. Fischer and the McCammon pianos and the Whitney & Holmes organs. They also have a full line of everything pertaining to a picture store.

D. W. Prentice & Co., No. 107 First street, maintain their rank as the leading music dealers of the Northwest. They are agents for the Weber pianos and the Estey and Standard organs, and carry a large stock of sheet music.

The Keystone Restaurant, corner First and Salmon streets, is rapidly gaining prestige as an excellent eating house. The proprietor, Mr. Cohen, personally oversees the establishment. Private rooms for ladies are provided.

Olds & King's famous Third-street store is constantly thronged with customers. Their stock of dress-goods, trimmings, staples, notions and novelties is always full, and everything they offer for sale is just what they represent it to be.

Fishel & Roberts, corner First and Alder streets, are deservedly recognized as the leading clothiers and merchant tailors of the city. Their statement that "low prices and ample assortments will be found in all departments" of their store, needs no endorsement.

W. T. Shanahan, on Morrison street, between Second and Third, offers superior inducements to persons desiring to select from the Decker Brothers, the J. & C. Fischer, or the Emerson & Dunham pianos. He also sells the Clough & Warren and Palace organs.

The mammoth wholesale millinery and furnishing house of Fleischner, Mayer & Co. is noted for its large sales, small profits and excellent goods. Mr. Mayer is now in New York, negotiating with manufacturers for Spring goods. Due notice will be given of his return.

The Oregon Furniture Manufacturing Company's elegant work is to be found in every first-class hotel and steamer, and in very many of the elegant drawing-rooms wherever our field editor travels. Reason, first-class work, reasonable prices and honorable dealing.

Mr. H. B. Litt, of the Suit House, No. 143 Third street, will forward C. O. D. ladies' all-wool suits—price, $15—to any address. Purchasers may examine them at express offices, and if not as represented, he will pay return charges. Mrs. Litt is one of the best dress-makers in the city.

John B. Garrison & Co., No. 167 Third street, carry a large stock of ladies' underwear, embroideries, handkerchiefs, zephyrs, and all articles pertaining to a lace house. Mr. G. is agent for the Davis, the New Wilson and the Royal St. John sewing machines, and makes a specialty of repairing old machines of all kinds.

Lewis & Strauss, of the White House, No. 123 First street, still continue to excel in the millinery line. Ladies from the country, in ordering hats and bonnets from this house, may depend upon being served as faithfully as if present themselves. Their stock of cloaks, dolmans, dress goods, laces, etc., etc., is also always complete.

Mr. J. H. Wilson, of Wallowa Valley, while hunting on Wednesday, the 22d ultimo, came upon three Indians, and one of them fired at him. He jumped from his horse, took cover behind a tree, and returned the fire. The Indian had got behind his pony, and it was killed. The other two attempted to cut off Mr. W.'s retreat, but he mounted his horse and escaped. He was unhurt, but there were two bullet-holes in his clothes.

MISCELLANEOUS ADVERTISEMENTS.

ROBBINS & YATES, 229 First Street 229

HAVE THE LARGEST AND BEST ASSORTED STOCK

Picture Frames, Mouldings, Engravings, Chromes, Brackets, Velvet Goods, Relief Pictures, Toilet Articles, Photographs, Accordions, Card Board, Albums, Christmas Cards,

To be found in Portland, and at PRICES THAT WILL SUIT ALL.

USE ROSE PILLS.

THE AMERICAN Steam Dyeing and Cleaning Works

DYE AND CLEAN ALL KINDS OF SILK, WOOLEN and mixed goods, after the best and newest German and French systems. Kid Gloves and Feathers cleaned and dyed by a new process. Blankets and Furs cleaned nicely. Cleaning and dyeing Gents' Clothing a specialty.

O. CONRAD & CO., No. 10 Salmon street, Portland, Oregon.

MISCELLANEOUS ADVERTISEMENTS.

Removal Sale!

THE ENTIRE STOCK!

SALINGER'S CASH AUCTION CO.,

No. 210 First Street,

BETWEEN TAYLOR AND SALMON, PORTLAND.

USE ROSE PILLS.

USEFUL HOLIDAY GOODS

We have in stock a Large Variety of Goods suitable for

THE HOLIDAYS,

And offer the best inducements to buyers of

DRY GOODS

FURNISHING GOODS.

Our Holiday Stock consists of articles having INTRINSIC MERIT.

Substantial value guaranteed for every dollar's worth of goods bought at our store.

OLDS & KING,

No. 147 Third Street, Portland, Oregon.

Eastern and Shoalwater Bay Oysters!

ALISKY & HEGELE'S,

First Street, between Alder and Morrison.

THE AURORA RESTAURANT,

Northwest corner Front and Alder streets, is the Only Place in Portland where you can get A GOOD SQUARE MEAL FOR 25 CENTS.

USE ROSE PILLS.

MRS. M. J. ENSIGN, Dress-maker,

Rooms over Plummer's drug store, cor. First and Main Sts.

SUITS CUT AND BASTED FOR ONE DOLLAR. MASQUERADE and Theatrical Costumes made to order and for rent. All the Latest Styles of Fashion Plates kept. Instructions in regard to trimming given free of charge. Ladies are invited to call and examine for themselves.