NEBRASKA AND ARIZONA.

A statement has recently appeared in several newspapers on the subject of the retirement of the state of Nebraska and the Territory of Arizona. The statement has been referred to a committee of the Legislature, and the committee has reported favorably. The statement is as follows:

"The Legislature has decided to retire from the Union and form a new state. The territory of Arizona is to be included in the new state. The state of Nebraska is to be dissolved. The new state is to be called the State of Kansas."

The statement has been circulated in the state and has been the subject of much discussion. The statement has been denounced by many as being false and misleading. The statement has been defended by others as being true and accurate. The matter is now being investigated by the proper authorities and the truth of the statement will be determined.

PORTLAND, OR, THURSDAY, APRIL 5, 1881.

WOMEN'S STATE FAIR.

The Indians women have shown their practical skill in the arts. The women of the city of New York have gathered a large collection of women's work from different parts of the state. The collection has been exhibited at the state house.

The women of the state have shown their skill in the arts. The women of the state have made a collection of women's work which is to be exhibited at the state house. The women have collected a large amount of women's work which is to be exhibited at the state house.

The women of the state have shown their skill in the arts. The women of the state have made a collection of women's work which is to be exhibited at the state house.

The women of the state have shown their skill in the arts. The women of the state have made a collection of women's work which is to be exhibited at the state house.

The women of the state have shown their skill in the arts. The women of the state have made a collection of women's work which is to be exhibited at the state house.

The women of the state have shown their skill in the arts. The women of the state have made a collection of women's work which is to be exhibited at the state house.

The women of the state have shown their skill in the arts. The women of the state have made a collection of women's work which is to be exhibited at the state house.

The women of the state have shown their skill in the arts. The women of the state have made a collection of women's work which is to be exhibited at the state house.

The women of the state have shown their skill in the arts. The women of the state have made a collection of women's work which is to be exhibited at the state house.

The women of the state have shown their skill in the arts. The women of the state have made a collection of women's work which is to be exhibited at the state house.

The women of the state have shown their skill in the arts. The women of the state have made a collection of women's work which is to be exhibited at the state house.

The women of the state have shown their skill in the arts. The women of the state have made a collection of women's work which is to be exhibited at the state house.

The women of the state have shown their skill in the arts. The women of the state have made a collection of women's work which is to be exhibited at the state house.

The women of the state have shown their skill in the arts. The women of the state have made a collection of women's work which is to be exhibited at the state house.

The women of the state have shown their skill in the arts. The women of the state have made a collection of women's work which is to be exhibited at the state house.

The women of the state have shown their skill in the arts. The women of the state have made a collection of women's work which is to be exhibited at the state house.

The women of the state have shown their skill in the arts. The women of the state have made a collection of women's work which is to be exhibited at the state house.

The women of the state have shown their skill in the arts. The women of the state have made a collection of women's work which is to be exhibited at the state house.

The women of the state have shown their skill in the arts. The women of the state have made a collection of women's work which is to be exhibited at the state house.