

The New Northwest.

PORTLAND, OREGON, THURSDAY, AUGUST 18, 1881.

TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS.

Patrons who fail to receive their papers promptly will please notify us at once.

LOCAL EPITOME.

Mr. D. Suksdorf, of White Salmon, W. T., is in the city.

The camp-meetings in Powell's Valley have been largely attended.

The county jail is well filled at present with murderers, burglars and thieves.

Mrs. A. E. West, the well-known milliner, has gone to San Francisco on a business trip.

The Falls City is a new Democratic paper started at Oregon City by Mr. John Chenoweth.

It is said the O. R. & N. Co. is negotiating with Capt. Flavel for the purchase of the bar tugs.

Bishop Harris will preside over the M. E. Church Conference, which meets in East Portland to-day.

New ice works are to be erected in this city by J. M. G. Kallich. "Opposition is the life of trade."

Mr. W. H. Andrus has resigned as Councilman from the Second Ward, and Mr. Chas. Holman succeeds him.

Mayor Thompson has reappointed and the Council has confirmed Mr. J. H. Lappeus as Chief of Police.

Owing to the superior finish and excellence of work, Abell stands preëminent as a photographer. Give him a call.

Albert Hoyt, who made an assault on a little girl in Astoria, has been sent to the penitentiary for twenty years.

On Monday last the feast of the Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary was solemnly observed by the Catholics of this city.

Two gentlemen, Messrs. Randall and Hansen, living on North Fifth street, were robbed on Saturday night of $230 by burglars.

This is the season when the dreaded fever and ague are prevalent. Nip them in the bud with Pflunder's "S. S. S.," a sure cure.

A man by the name of John Moore has been arrested on the charge of attempting to cash a money order drawn in favor of James Barry.

Mrs. I. L. Hilleary, of Turner Station, who has been traveling in Eastern Washington, passed through the city yesterday, en route for home.

Mr. Johnson Odeneal has commenced the publication, at Corvallis, of the New Benton Democrat, to take the place of the recently suspended Blade.

The Stars, of this city, and the Buffsticks, of Vancouver, will play a match game of base-ball at the East Portland grounds on Sunday next, at 11 o'clock.

A deer was chased through the central part of the city by hounds yesterday. The novel sight created considerable excitement. The deer had a commanding lead.

The Standard announces that its editor, Mr. T. A. Sutherland, has gone to San Francisco, where he will wed Miss Sallie, eldest daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Chattin.

Miss Cahalis, of San Francisco, a lady who comes highly recommended from the Bay City, has been engaged for the coming year by H. B. Litt as cutter and fitter for his popular suit house.

Capt. T. J. Stump died suddenly on Saturday last in the pilot house of the steamer Spokane, about five miles above the Pine Tree Rapids of Snake river. He was buried at The Dalles with Masonic honors.

A special examination for teachers will be held in the Park building on Tuesday and Wednesday, the 23d and 24th insts., commencing at 9 A. M. Teachers requiring certificates before October 1st will take notice.

The number of school children in Multnomah county is 7,422, divided into forty districts, and the amount of money just distributed from the common school fund is $6,234.48, or at the rate of 84 cents per pupil.

North Front street, from G to N, has been raised to the grade required by ordinance. The filling required 55,000 cubic yards of earth, which was brought from the hills by the west-side railroad at 48 cents per yard.

Dr. Truesdell still continues his lectures at the Y. M. C. A. Hall. This evening he speaks for the third time to gentlemen only on "Manhood and Womanhood." He gives free lectures to ladies on Wednesday and Saturday afternoons.

An excellent opportunity is now offered by J. F. D. Wrinkle & Co. to get dry goods at cost, as their entire stock must be sold in the next 30 days. This movement is inaugurated preparatory to a change of firm. Read their advertisement.

Mrs. Jane Connell, wife of Mr. Wm. Connell, died at her home in this city on Sunday morning, in the 61st year of her age. Deceased was an estimable woman and an old pioneer, having resided in the State for 35 years. A husband, four daughters and two sons survive her.

The ladies of the Open Temperance Association, who gave such popular entertainments last Winter, have arranged for a concert on Saturday evening, for the benefit of the society, at the Y. M. C. A. Hall. A musical and literary programme has been prepared, and it will be followed by an ice cream social.

Mr. N. Holden, of the firm of Johnston & Holden, of this city, was drowned at Ilwaco on Friday last, only a few rods from the place where Eva Burbank was lost. Deceased was a popular, upright and energetic business man. His wife was on the beach at the time and was carried fainting to a tent.

Miss S. J. Thacker, well-known in Portland and several other places on the west side, has gone to Oregon City to establish a writing school. Her pupils in other towns have expressed complete satisfaction with her methods of instruction, and there is no doubt that her excellent work will be appreciated in the Falls City.

Mrs. M. A. Banks, wife of Rev. L. A. Banks, of Vancouver, died at her home on Saturday last, in the 23d year of her age, and was buried in Linn county near the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Millhollen. Professor Joseph Emory conducting the obsequies. A husband, two children and many other relatives and friends mourn for her.

Mrs. Mary Tuley Steelman, wife of Mr. E. Steelman and mother of Mrs. R. G. Combs, died in this city yesterday of consumption, in the 65th year of her age. Deceased was an excellent woman, highly esteemed by relatives and friends. The funeral services will be held to-morrow (Friday) morning at the residence of Mr. Combs, No. 411 Eighth street.

A number of delegates to the Sunday School Convention at Seattle returned on Saturday from a pleasure trip to Victoria. Among them were Mr. Carey Johnson and wife, of Oregon City; Mr. J. H. Foster and daughters, Misses Maggie and Mattie, of Albany; Mrs. A. E. Torrey and Mrs. G. Shindler, of Portland, and Rev. Mr. Milligan and wife, of Astoria.

The residence of Deputy Superintendent of Streets Elwanger, on South Third street, between Williams and Meade, was destroyed by fire on Monday afternoon. A small but unoccupied dwelling adjoining, the property of Mr. A. Allen, was also burned. Elwanger's property was insured for $1,000, and Allen's for $250, but these amounts will not cover the loss.

Mr. J. W. Bailey has removed from No. 47 to Nos. 83 and 85 Yamhill street, between Fourth and Fifth, or two blocks west of his old location. No finer staple and fancy groceries can be found in the city than at his new, neat and commodious establishment. His prices are the very lowest, as he sells for cash. All orders promptly attended to, and goods delivered to all parts of the city.

Notwithstanding the success of their present scheme for disposing of goods, Ackerman & Co. have not abandoned their old line of business and method of conducting it, but have reserved one-half of their commodious store for it, the only change being a radical reduction of prices, and patrons can purchase crockery, glassware, cutlery, silverware, fancy articles and notions at retail at prices that were formerly wholesale.

Olds & King are now comfortably ensconced in their new quarters at No. 186 First street. This popular firm, by courteous and fair treatment of all customers while on Third street, built up a trade and reputation second to that of no-house in the city, and it is predicted that they will lose nothing by their change of base. Their new store is larger, lighter and more commodious than the old one, and their many friends can rest assured of better treatment, if possible, than ever, at their hands.

The Standard's Albina correspondent says of last Saturday's thunder storm: "The electric fluid struck in two places back of town and fired the timber. Eye-witnesses describe the fiery element as coming in the shape of a ball several feet in diameter, which, when it struck the ground, flew in every direction like molten iron. The heavy rain extinguished the fire, preventing further damage." A large fir tree in Holladay's addition to East Portland was also struck and set on fire.

Through the energetic action of the committee of solicitation, consisting of Messrs. Donald Macleay, J. N. Dolph and W. M. Ladd, recently appointed by the Portland Seamen's Friend Society, the deficiency of $2,300, necessary to raise the pledges to $10,000, for the Mariners' Home, corner of Third and D streets, this city, has been secured, and the building will be commenced without delay. Ground was broken yesterday. Chaplain Stubbs has worked faithfully for this consummation.

The "New No. 8" is the cheapest sewing machine to buy. Wheeler & Wilson Mfg Co., 88 Morrison st.
