

The New Northwest.

PORTLAND, OREGON, THURSDAY, AUGUST 25, 1881.

TO CITY SUBSCRIBERS.

Patrons who fail to receive their papers promptly will please notify us at once.

LOCAL EPITOME.

Two more convicts have been pardoned by Governor Thayer.

Dr. M. May and family have removed from The Dalles to this city.

Miss Allie Williams has returned from her visit to California.

Rev. J. W. Sellwood, of East Portland, has declined a call from Oregon City.

A misguided Third-street girl is under bonds for having robbed a man who called at her stopping-place.

There were three funerals in the city on Friday last, each of the subjects having found a watery grave.

The funeral of Mr. N. Holden, who was drowned at Ilwaco, was largely attended on Friday last.

Rev. T. L. Elliot will return to the city to-day, and on Sunday next will resume services in the Unitarian Church.

The entertainment given on Saturday evening by ladies of the Open Temperance Association was a complete success.

James Reed, a member of Protection Engine Company, died of heart disease at St. Vincent's Hospital on Sunday last.

Another wretch has been arrested for outraging a little girl. His name is Alfred Saunders, and he is in jail in default of $2500 bonds.

Miss Mattie E. Hausse, of New York, who accepted a position in the Territorial University of Washington, arrived at Seattle last week.

Mr. M. F. Blake, of Oregon City, gave the New Northwest a brief call on Tuesday. He will probably return to this city in a short time.

Mrs. Geo. L. Woods, of San Jose, arrived in the city last week. She will visit relatives and friends at Salem, St. Helens and The Dalles.

The medals to be awarded to exhibitors at the Mechanics' Fair are now completed. They are 80 in number—10 gold, 20 silver, and 50 bronze.

Wm. Mackay, of Josephine county, has just been released from sixty days' confinement for sending indecent literature through the mails.

The City Council has adopted a ponderous lot of rules to govern police officers. If strictly enforced they will make excellent citizens of the "cops."

It is stated that Rev. J. H. Acton and Mr. J. E. Alken intend to shortly commence the publication of an independent weekly paper, to be called the North Pacific.

As will be seen by their announcement, Messrs. Olds & King are now settled in their new store at No. 186 First street. They invite everybody to call and see them.

The Stars, of this city, and the Buffsticks, of Vancouver, played their third match game of base-ball in East Portland on Sunday, the former winning by a score of 27 to 4.

Captain Kellogg's handsome new steamboat, the Joseph Kellogg, will be completed by September 15th. She is 128 feet long, and has a beam breadth of 24 and a hold depth of 5 1/2 feet.

George Martin, of Greene county, N. Y., was killed on the 16th instant, on the farm of Mr. Henry Buxton, near Forest Grove, by being thrown from a reaper and having the driving wheel pass over him.

The house for Couch Engine Company No. 6, on G street, between Thirteenth and Fourteenth, is nearly completed. It is 25 x 60 feet and two stories high. The company will be furnished with No. 2's old steamer.

On Monday evening a little child of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Olds was attacked by an infuriated cow at the corner of Grant and Second streets and tossed into the air. The little one was quite badly hurt, though not dangerously.

The jury in the case of the State vs. J. G. Roberson, charged with the murder of Mr. J. W. Robb, disagreed and was discharged. The prisoner has been brought from Astoria and again committed to the Multnomah county jail.

There will be a meeting of the Juvenile Temperance Union of Portland in the lecture-room of the Taylor-street Church on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interesting exercises are promised. All the children of the city are invited.

Rev. Adam Klippel, editor of the Jacksonville Sentinel, was in the city this week, and favored the New Northwest with a pleasant call. He attended the M. E. Conference, and is now visiting points of interest up the Columbia River.

The great dollar sale at Ackerman's has lost none of its popularity, as the crowds that throng the large store every evening testify. New goods received by the last steamer have been added to each department to-day. Call and see for yourself the bargains offered.

Miss Ella M. Bennett, daughter of W. H. and Lucy Bennett, died at Rockford, W. T., on the 10th instant, of pneumonia of the lungs. The young lady was a graduate of the Portland High School, and her death is mourned by many friends and school-mates in this city.

Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Cruzan left by the Columbia on Friday night en route to the Sandwich Islands, where Mr. Cruzan will assist Mr. Hallenbeck in revival services. The trip is principally made for the health of Mrs. Cruzan, which has been bad for some months.

Mr. Woods, properly dubbed "the hatter," is now in San Francisco purchasing his Fall stock. His success during his short residence in Portland will cause him to make renewed exertions to satisfy his customers, and he will consequently have a finer stock than ever when his new goods arrive. Orders from the country are always satisfactorily filled by him.

That neat and cozy little stand, known as the Turn Halle confectionary and ice cream parlors, has been purchased by Mr. Samuel Beary, a young gentleman well qualified to not only maintain but increase its popularity. The best of everything in his line will be kept at all times, with careful attention to cater to the wants of his patrons. Ice cream for a family Sunday dinner, or any other occasion, will be promptly delivered when ordered.

The Oregon Improvement Company's new steam collier Mississippi arrived at this port from New York on Sunday evening, 92 days out. She is 225 feet long, and her carrying capacity is 1400 tons. She brought 700 tons of railroad material for the O. R. & N. Co.

Rev. W. C. Chattin arrived in Portland by the last steamer. During the past year he has lived in Trenton, N. J., carrying on his evangelical work; but he dislikes the climate of the Eastern States, and his numerous friends will be glad to hear that he will probably again locate here.

Sir Charles Tupper, Canadian Minister of Railways, accompanied by his wife and several gentlemen who are interested in railroads, arrived in this city by the Oregon on Monday, on their way to British Columbia, where they will inspect the work being done on the line of the Canadian Pacific between Yale and Kamloops.

There was a riot in the Chinese theater on Sunday morning, because the performance lasted until 2 o'clock only, instead of 4, as had been promised. The celestials claim that the management had swindled them, and proceeded to smash chandeliers, benches, chairs, etc., to get satisfaction. Officers quelled the disturbance.

Miss Dora Crites, a teacher in the East Portland public schools, died on Friday last, and was buried on Sunday afternoon in Lone Fir Cemetery from the East Portland Baptist Church, Rev. J. A. Gray conducting the ceremonies. Many of her pupils followed her remains to the grave, testifying their grief at her death by bitter tears.

A large and carefully selected stock of fine millinery for the Fall trade has been ordered by Messrs. Lewis & Strauss for their popular "White House" in this city, and is doubtless now on the way from New York. These goods will shortly arrive, when their many patrons and the public generally will be duly apprised of that fact.

County Clerk Borthwick's financial statement gives the information that the total tax collected during the year ending June 30, 1881, was $89,835 63, which was increased by last year's surplus to $92,692 66. During the year the expenditures amounted to $85,779 87, leaving $6,912 79 on hand. The school fund amounted to $41,184 58, and $40,748 41 was paid out on orders, leaving $436 27.

Mr. T. A. Sutherland, editor of the Standard, and Miss Sallie Chattin, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. W. C. Chattin, were married in San Francisco on Thursday evening last. Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland arrived in this city on Monday by the Oregon and were warmly received by their many friends, who gladly welcome the bride to her old home, and wish the happy couple a long and pleasant life of usefulness.

Bishop Harris, of the M. E. Church, assigned ministers to localities as follows: Taylor-street Church, Portland, G. W. Izer; Salem, J. N. Denison; Albany, Isaac Dillon; Eugene, I. D. Driver; Dallas, Jas. Matthews; Forest Grove, Wm. Roberts; Hillsboro, Martin Judy; Lafayette, T. L. Jones; Oregon City, S. H. Todd; Jacksonville, B. J. Sharp; Roseburg, J. W. Miller; Astoria, John Parsons; East Portland, T. L. Salls; New Tacoma, J. F. De Vore; Olympia, D. G. Le Sourd; Seattle, W. S. Harrington; Vancouver, L. A. Banks. J. H. Acton was granted a supernumerary relation.

Mr. J. W. Bailey has removed from No. 47 to Nos. 83 and 85 Yamhill street, between Fourth and Fifth, or two blocks west of his old location. No finer staple and fancy groceries can be found in the city than at his new, neat and commodious establishment. His prices are the very lowest, as he sells for cash. All orders promptly attended to, and goods delivered to all parts of the city.

A new supply of silk hats for the Fall trade has been received at Woods' hat store. Call and examine them or send in your orders, which will be promptly filled.

This is the season when the dreaded fever and ague are prevalent. Nip them in the bud with Plunder's "S. S. S.," a sure cure.

Owing to the superior finish and excellence of work, Abell stands preeminent as a photographer. Give him a call.

The "New No. 8" is the cheapest sewing machine to buy. Wheeler & Wilson M'fg Co., 88 Morrison st.

AN OPPORTUNITY

Taken advantage of by every one is the most convincing proof that the scheme lately introduced in the disposal of goods at

ACKERMAN'S DOLLAR STORE

Meets with public favor, in spite of a mercenary few, jealous of its great success, endeavoring by misrepresentation to mislead our patrons. The fact that every day articles ranging in value from $1.00 to $125 have been secured by the investment of

One Single Dollar!

SHOWS FOR ITSELF THAT EVERY REPRESENTATION MADE BY US IS TRUE TO THE LETTER.

EVERY DEPARTMENT

Will to-day contain new and choice selections of articles received by last steamer direct from the East, in response to our telegraphic order to rush our Fall lot of goods, in order to supply the great demand now being made on our Stock. CALL TO-DAY at
