

The New Northwest.

PORTLAND, OREGON, THURSDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1881.

LOCAL EPITOME.

The Villard party returned to San Francisco by the Oregon.

Hon. Thos. Brents and family, of Walla Walla, are in the city.

Mr. Villard has donated $250 to the Ladies' Relief Society.

The breakwater at Oregon City has been repaired and is in good condition.

The O. R. & N. Co. received three new locomotives by the barkentine Tam O'Shanter.

The Northwestern District Agricultural Association has declared its Fall meeting "off."

Jim Turk's house has been the scene of another brutal fight, in which a sailor was badly hurt.

Dr. Avery's office during the Winter will be at his residence, No. 183 North Thirteenth street.

Miss Cora Packard was a passenger on the Oregon. She goes East to pursue her musical studies.

Hon. F. E. Hodgkin, Assistant Secretary of State, gave the NEW NORTHWEST office a call yesterday.

Col. T. E. Hogg arrived from San Francisco on Tuesday evening and left yesterday morning for Corvallis.

J. Van Beurden announces new arrivals of elegant designs of fine jewelry. Call and examine his display.

A general row occurred in a Chinese gambling-house on last Sunday night, and several celestials were injured.

Rev. D. J. Pierce, of Walla Walla, on last Sunday filled his old pulpit in the First Baptist Church of this city.

Mr. Clarence M. White and Miss Nellie Warren were married on Tuesday evening, Rev. Dr. Atkinson officiating.

A new lodge of the Ancient Order of United Workmen has been instituted in Tibbetts' Addition to East Portland.

The Oregonian issues six-page editions frequently now, to accommodate the pressure of advertisements and reading matter.

And still Governor Thayer continues his merciful work of liberating convicts. Five more have been the recipients of his clemency.

Mr. G. W. Lawson, a well-known lawyer, has removed from Salem to this city, where he will practice his profession in the future.

James Welch and Henry Stockhorst, who badly beat Wm. Kreimert, are under bonds to answer the charge of assault with intent to kill.

Mrs. M. M. Keller, wife of Councilman Keller, died on Saturday night, after a long illness. The funeral on Monday was largely attended.

Invitations have been issued for the second party of the Columbia Social Club, to be given at Masonic Hall on Tuesday evening, November 1st.

No traces have been found of George E. Strong, formerly connected with the Oregonian, who was lost in the mountains in Lake county two weeks since, and it is almost certain that he perished.

In the four-oared race last Saturday for the Grant cup, the crew of the Portland Rowing Association defeated the Salem four. This result was expected, as the latter were not in condition for the contest.

The Chinaman who was charged with committing an outrage on a little German girl at Watkins' fruit ranch, a few miles west of the city, on the 30th of July, has been found guilty of the heinous crime.

General John Eaton, U. S. Commissioner of Education, arrived in the city on Thursday last and visited the public schools on Friday. He was well pleased with the schools, not expecting to find tuition so perfect.

The North Pacific Manufacturing Company has been incorporated. It will make and repair agricultural implements of all kinds. The company will erect its works in Watson's Addition, where two acres of land have been purchased.

Mr. Villard has endowed a chair of English Literature in the State University until the next meeting of the Legislature, when he will make propositions to that body in regard to mutual aid for the institution. He has given $2000 for books and scientific apparatus for the school.

During the Christmas holidays, the ladies of the Unitarian Church will give a "Doll's Fete" on the principle of an "Author's Carnival," each doll representing some character from history, fiction or poetry. The costumes will be well made and in strict keeping with the characters represented.

Judge Sawyer has granted a perpetual injunction restraining the Willamette Iron Bridge Company from completing its structure across the river. The piers already built are ordered removed, as they are obstructions to navigation. The case will be carried to the United States Supreme Court.

The elegant and nice-fitting uniforms worn by the members of the Indian training school were furnished by Fishel & Roberts, the well-known tailors and clothiers, on comparatively short notice, and speak well for the firm's manufacturing facilities. Mr. Roberts took the measures for the entire school in less than two hours.

The Willamette Street Railway Company has been incorporated, with a capital of $250,000. Its object is to establish horse-car lines through the principal streets of Portland. An ordinance granting right of way, and detailing regulations under which work shall be done, was introduced in the Council last evening. At least one mile of road is to be in operation by the close of 1882.

The store of Hall & Andrews was burned some time since, and Andrews decamped with the insurance money and some of his partner's funds. He was suspected of burning the premises, and has been captured in British Columbia by Constable Simmons after a long chase and brought back. He is now under confinement to answer the charge of arson. George Wiseman, book-keeper for the firm, was also arrested and is under bonds for complicity in the crime.

Mr. Henry Villard, in a speech to the Board of Trade and business men of Portland on last Saturday afternoon, gave a clear outline of improvements and enterprises contemplated by companies with which he is connected. He said Portland was to be the "terminus of 6000 miles of railroads—the center, the focus, of an immense railway system" that "what has already been done can never be undone by any human power." Through railroad connection with Puget Sound is to be had within a year, by way of Kalama. The Columbia will not be bridged at that place at present, but transfer boats will be used. The projected systems of roads of the O. R. & N. Co. in Eastern Oregon and Washington are to be completed next year. The gap between the two ends of the N. P. R. R. will be closed in 1883. The O. & C. R. R. is to be eventually extended south to connect with the California and Oregon road.

GENERAL NEWS.

Guiteau's trial is postponed to November 14th. All classes of household necessaries promise to be dear this Winter.

Boston is taking active measures toward the proposed World's Fair in 1883.

Captain Howgate has been indicted for embezzling $90,000 of government bonds.

Henry Ward Beecher has retired from the editorial chair of the Christian Union.

Judge Cox has assigned Leigh Robinson as assistant counsel to Scoville in Guiteau's defense.

An open channel to the southeast of Wrangell Land has been discovered, and it is supposed the Jeannette passed through.

The high water in the Mississippi has caused breakages in the levee at several points, and heavy damages are reported.

New York's water supply is very short, and the Mayor has issued a proclamation, asking the people to practice the utmost economy in its use.

An Iowa City landlord threatened to hold the corpse of a member of a poor family for rent and sell it for dissecting purposes; but a mob changed his mind.

It is pretty well settled that a bill to provide Alaska with a government will pass the next Congress. It will provide for a simple organization, with a court of record and an executive.

Professor King's balloon, which ascended in Chicago several days ago, and about which there has been so much anxiety, descended in a swamp in Wisconsin, and the aeronauts were rescued.

Mrs. Garfield has written a letter to Colonel Rockwell, asking that the "literary remains of General Garfield shall be published, after that careful consideration and preparation so manifestly necessary."

Southern Republicans have asked representation in President Arthur's Cabinet, but are much opposed to the retention of Hunt, who has made himself exceedingly unpopular. It is said that both he and his wife have personally sought his retention.

A "multicharge" cannon has been invented by Lyman Haskell, a Pennsylvanian. There are four pockets along the bore, and the powder charges will be exploded as the ball passes, giving it sufficient velocity, it is claimed, to force it through two solid feet of wrought-iron.

It is universally acknowledged that nowhere in the city can a neater, better-fitting or more durable suit of clothes be procured than at the Bon Ton Tailoring Establishment, Shipper & Rybke proprietors. They will supply you with any kind of a suit you want, ranging in price from $25 upward. New goods are received by every steamer, and the latest and best grades of cloths are always on hand.

Owing to the superior finish and excellence of work, Abell stands preëminent as a photographer. Give him a call.

NEW THIS WEEK.

BLOOD IS THE LIFE!

IT HAS A MARKED EFFECT wherever there is an atonic effect of the Visceral Muscular Coat, such as Dyspepsia, Headache, Neuralgia, Vomiting, Bilious Attacks, Rheumatism, Pains in the Stomach and Bowels, Irregularity of the Bowels, Costiveness and Constipation, which are so obstinate and yet so common in cities, where people of necessity must live a sedentary life most of the year.

A Lady in This City who had been a sufferer for years from obstinate Constipation of the Bowels, and had been unable to obtain relief from other medicines, was relieved after one week by the use of the celebrated "OREGON BLOOD PURIFIER" and subsequently was PERMANENTLY CURED by its use, and is now using it occasionally to prevent a relapse.

In this case it is apparent that the "Oregon Blood Purifier" was THE REMEDY much needed. It corrected the torpidity of the Liver, overcame the inaction of the Bowels, and restored to them their wonted functions. Your Druggist keeps it; insist upon getting it; take no other remedy instead.

Price, per Bottle, $1 00; or Six Bottles for $5 00. mab7
