
PORTLAND, OREGON. THURADAY, DECEMBER 8, 1SSI. ANNOUNCEMENT.
Mr. W. .C. Chattin has bren emgaged as Route Agent for the New Northures, and is authorized to soticit and pollect for the same, evty patrond who fait to receive ot may notify either him or the publishers.

LOCAL EPITOME

The new dred

The laties' fair for the completed and sent to Cathedral netted $$ 3350$,
The Mayor of New Tacoma states that there is no more smail-pox at that place.
Jennings McCarver, a well-known pioneer, died at Oregon City on Sunday night. at Oregon City on Sunday night.
A case of small-pox wasdiscovered in the northwestern part of the city last week. Miss Ada Coburn, of East, Portiand, who has been seriously ilt with pleurisy, is improving. The jury has awarded Bridget Nihen but $$ 180$ damages for being put out of the Mechanics' Fair. A shameful verdict.
Hon. I. W. Case, of Astoria, has been presented by the A. O. U. W., with a very handsome Past Grand Master's jewel. The Board of Trade will hereafter keep a daily record of all products of the soil received at this port and of all exports. A mambing den on A gambling den on Second and Alder streets was raided on sunday night. Four Chinamen were arrested and fined $$ 25$ each. were arrested and fined $$ 25$ each. Four Chinamen Judge Stoft has granted a ten days' extension of time in the case of John Powers, to enable his time in the case of John Powers, counsel to prepare a bill of exceptions.
The Oracle drew 22 feet 6 inches, the Trafalgar
21 feet 11 inches, and the Steinvora 22 feet, when they crossed out over the bar on Sunday Rev. A. H. Bradford, of Mont Clair, N. J., will probably not accept the call to the pastorate of the probably not accept the cali to the pastor, The O. R. \& N. Co. will not hereafter carry powder on regular passenger steamers, but wif powder on regular passenger steamers, but wilh run a special boat when the traffic justifies it. Robert W. Lambert, who killed Julia Clark in September September last, has pleaded not guilty in the State Cirreuit Court to the charge of manklaughter. W. A. Hart was elected Chief Engineer of the Portiand Fire Department on Monday last; John Kearney, First Assistant; W. C. MeKean, Second Kearney, $\mathbf{F}$
Assistant.
The mystery surrounding the death of the man whose body was found in the river below Weidler'se mill, with a 98 -pound stone to his neck, relind Onee again the Onee again the Turks, father and son, are under arrest for brutally beating sailors. There should arrest for brutally beating sailors. There should be some way of ridding the community of this pair and their atrocities, pair and their atrocities.
Mr. C. B. Hopkins, of Mr. C. B. Hopkins, of the Colfax Gazette, has been in the city for several days, making arrang ments to commence the publication in his jourgal of 1 llustrations of prominent places and scenes of the Northwest. O. S. Meikel.
O. S. Meikel, a brakeman on the narrow-gauge Toad, while endeavoriag on Monday to prevent collision between a collision between a baggage car and some freight cars at Browngyl cars at Brownsville, was caught bet ween them and crukhed to death. Geo. Maxwell, a man, died at St. Vincent's man, died at st. Vincent's Houpital on- the 3d entire Fire. Dupartm.
Lone Fir Cemetery.
The committee appointed to report on the advisability of eatablishing a reform achool under the organization of 1872 hayefisad two meetings, and will probably recommend that ste diately taken to atart the institution.
Mrs. Dr. Blaney, living on Second and Jefferson streets, cappured a ChInese burglar on Sunday night. On leavingethe house, he slipped and fell, and Mrs. B, rushed out, seized him by the queue planted her foot on his back, and held him until an oficer arrived. an officer arrived.
Lr P. W. Quimby, Robert D. Inman and N.
Verateeg have Incorporated the North Pacific ject is to manufacture all kinds of lumber, doors sash and blinds, and build steamboats and other water craft. Capital stock; $\$ 50,000$, in 200 shares. Dr. Harvey's lecture at Nonpareil Hall last Sunday evening (the first of the course) was well attended. His subject for next Bunday evening is "The Advent of Man-in America." The lec is "The Advent of Man in America." The lectures commence at $7: 30 \mathrm{o}$, clock. Music is fur nished each evening. The nominal admisaion of ten cents is charged.
Mayor Thompson, as a representative of the Board of Trade, will start after the holidays for Washington, whither he goes to aid the Senato Washington, whither he goes to aid the Senator propriations for the fimprovement of the Willamette and Columbia Rivers, and especially for securing a deep ship channel through the Columbia curing a deep ship channel through the Columbia bar.
Timothy Whelan, a young man lately from San Francisco, bady Blashed a Yamhilli-street Freneh woman named Louise DeBar with a razor on last Thursday named night. He claims that she refused to return a $$ 100$ gold note which he placed in her care, while she asserts that he attempted to rob her. He has been held to await the action of the Mr. R. Kehler, manager of the Oregon and California Railioad, states that within a few weets weeks the company will adopt one of the survey tension of the road. Work will be commenened in the Spring, and the road will be completed to Ashland by the close of 1882 , if men can be secured No better evid No better evidence of the near approaeh of the holidays may be looked for than the magnificent display in the show window of J. Van Beurden's jewelryhtore, No. 107 First street, where diamonds, jewelry tore, No. 107 First street, where diamonds, styles and rarest workmanship tempt the lover of the beautiful Into honest covetousness, Noveltien in gold bracelets, watches, chains, charms and lockets; plain rings, rings with settings of ame hyst, pearis garnets, rubies, emerald, cameos designo and everythang ese in the jeweler'sithe the purchaser. of moderate means, and atyles to ccommodate customers as rich as Crosus.

The Bupreme Court has rendered a decision in the Mayoralty case, holding that ander &ection 22 of the Charter of the City of Portland, the decision of the Conimon Council was final and conclusive, and that D. P. Thompson is therefore Mayor. The section deciares the Council to be the "hanal judge of the qualifications and election of the Mayor and its members," The squabble over the City Surveyor's oflice, which binged on the Mayoraily contest, is also settled, and Taylor suceeeds Chapman.
Company have had willamette Street Railway Company have had two conferences with the hance has beenoutlined that will be mutually satisfactory. The eity requires that the company isfactory. The eity requires that the company shall build at least two miles cast and west before January 1, 1883, and five miles in all within five years, and that five cents be the maximum fare; failure to comply with these provisions to work a forfeiture of the charter. To this the company has, of course, consented, Several routes were Mr. Wapped out and agreed upon.
Mr. Wm. Gray, a ploneer of this eity, committed suicide on last Sunday mornigg at denee, cornerof of Third and Jeffersong streets. Deceased had long been a sufferer from nervous prosration, and was quite despondent of mornings.
He could not sleep after 2 or 3 oclock, and his paroxysms of pain were unusually severe after arising. It is evident that the fatal step we taken during one of these spasms, which over threw his reason. He was the head of the firm of Wm. Gray & Sons, boot and shoe dealers, and leaves an estate valued at $$ 40,000$, free from incumbrance. He was a man of strict integrity and cumbrance. He was a man of strict integrity and universally respected. A wife and six childrenthree sons and three daughters-and a large num ber of friends mourn his sad death. The funeral on Tuesday afternoon, was verylarge. on Tuesday afternoon, was very large.

BPRCIAL BUSINESS NOTICES.
As will be seen by his card under "New This Week," Dr. J. Wing Oliver has removed his office and residence to the corner of Alder and Fourth treets.
Rou-may rely & King's holiday announcement are of "Intrinsic value" and are sold at "lowent Olds & Sum Olds & Summers have filled their store with a varied and hasdsome stock of crockery, plated ware, toilet gets, vases, etc., for the holiday. See advertisement.
J. K. Gill & Co. have this year imported a large stock of books, stationery and fancy goods Tor the holidays than ever before. Read their characteristic and istic announcement.
Attention is asked to the peculiar but neat ha vertisement of Himes the Printer, who is vertisement of Himes a job printer, and whose who is unsurcome almost a household word in Oregon.
Morse's Palace shows elegant goods for the holidays. It is a veritable gallery of art, and displaym Idays. It is a veritable gallery of art, and displays everything beantiful imaginable." Read it attractive ndvertisement. Remember the place, 163 First atreet.
John A. Beck, the Front-street jeweler, recelved on the last steamer a fine stock of goods for the on the last steamer a fine stock of goods for the and prices with those of other dealers before pur chasing your presents,
This is an excellent and approuriate time-o Prentice & Co., the reliable dealers at No. 107 Sit Firat street, are the proper persons to call on;
They are agents for the "Weber" and "Nugent" pianos and "Estey" organs, and carry a complete stock of all musical merchandise. Note theirnew advertisement.

DR. J. WIMC OLIVER, Homapathic Physician and Surgeon
 THENTHAKITH Confectionery and Oyster Parlors. the finest candies in the city.
 FOR THE HOLTDAYS! Crockery, Plated Ware, Class Ware, Vases, Toilet Sets, Etc.
OHDS & SUMMERS, No. 183 First 8 treet.

JOHIN A, BECK.
The Front-street Jeweler, oppoatice the Eamend,
Has juat beceived from the eart a lakgie IEOIIDAT GOODE, Thich will be sold at REMARKABLY LOW FIGURES.
Gall and wee him before purchasing your presenta.
UBEROSE PILLS.
D. W. PRENTICE & CO.,
 No, 107 First Street, Portland, Oregon.

C.

Largest Stook of Musical Merchandise on the Northwest Coast.

HOLIDAY COODS

IITTRINSIC VALUE.

Buyers of Holiday Articles will and our stock of
DRY & FURIISHING GOODS
Unisually Completa,
With the most desirable atyles and qualities of everything in our line, and at LOWEST LIVING PRICES.

OLDS & KING,

 186 First 8treet. between yambill and / tayiot

J. E. GIII et OO. No. 93 FIRst stnet, Aro offering at Wholenale and Retail tine minent mtock

B00Ks.

STATIONERY,
AND FANCX GOODS
For the Holidays !
EVER IMPORTED TO THIS MARKET.

Our Entire Stock was selected in the Eastern market, bought for cash, and is offered at the Lowest Rates.

MORSE'S PALACE.

Everything Beantiful Imaginable!

 MORBE'S PALACE.Gold Ornamenting and Re-gllding! MOREE'S PALACE.

Only First-Clase Gilder in Oregon ! MOREE'S PALACE.

Largest Stook of Christmas Carde, Fancy Goods and Engravingat MORBE'S PALACE.

Piotures Framed for Lees Money than Flsewhere in Oregon!

MORSE'S PALACE,

 163 First 8t., oor. Morrison.B. HARTMAN & CO.,

1es mhira mtxoot 108
ZEPHYR WORSTEDS.
Larger Stook and Bettor Asportment than any House in Portland.

Shetland Wools and Flosees, Cerman Yarns, Cermantown Yarns, Filling Flose,

Embroidery suk,
Saxony woole,
Macrame Material, Honitan and Polnt-Lace Material,
Applique Work. Cardboarde (all kinde), Stampling Pattorne,

Folte,
Canvaseep,
EMBROIDERY CHENILLES.
The Largest and Beat Assortment on the Coast.

COUNTKY ORDERA GOLICITED, AND PROMPTLY

the Only Plece in Portend

