PUBLISHERS' ANNOUNCEMENT

In posting our books for the year 1894 we find there are a number of persons indebted to us in small amounts which aggregate several thousand dollars. Like all other business men, we are really in need of money with which to pay our indebtedness—not for investment or speculation. Our creditors are in the same fix, and are crowding us. Consequently we are compelled to urge upon our friends the necessity of the payment of the small amounts due us. Therefore we will at the earliest possible moment render a statement of account, as appears from our books January 1, 1894, to every person indebted to us. If there are so many small accounts it is next to impossible to keep all of them correctly, hence when you receive a statement and think it is incorrect, even if you have paid it and we failed to give you credit, don't "fly off the handle" and get mad, but write kindly and tell us about it—if you can't write kindly, write any way, for we want to have our books correct. If you can't pay the whole amount of your bill, a portion of it will be thankfully received, and if it is not convenient for you to pay any of it, let us know that fact also. We would be pleased to have every person receiving a statement of account, to acknowledge its receipt at their earliest convenience. PLAINDEALER PUB. CO.

And now some of the "stalwart republicans" who have been warring the party lash wish they had kept their hands off.

The PLAINDEALER is thankful for the many kind words of friends during the past few weeks. A number of new subscribers have been received, and many old ones have made remittances which have been greatly appreciated.

The Niaragna canal passed the senate Friday, notwithstanding that Senator Dolph was here in Oregon 3000 miles away. From the argument used by his adherents hereabouts, we had supposed that it was impossible to pass that bill unless Mr. Dolph should be re-elected.

The number of "political graves" that are now being dug by the members of the legislature is very large, that is if all that is said is true. Dolph's heeler says that those voting against their candidate are sure of an early death, while the anti-Dolph workers say his supporters are sure to come to an untimely end in the immediate future. After the ball is over there will doubtless be a change of opinion.

Mr. Sehlbrede in stating that Douglas county was solid for Dolph doubtless referred to the representatives and not the people. If Mr. Sehlbrede desires to vote for Mr. Dolph he should give as his reason therefor that he believes in canons rule or that he is of the opinion that Mr. Dolph is best suited for the position. It is a fact that few will deny that many republicans of Douglas county are opposed to Mr. Dolph's reelection.

Silver has been a circulating medium of as great antiquity as gold, and has been recognized by all nations and peoples in their commercial dealings, and it will not be eliminated from the money of the world at one blow. The law of necessity will eventually supplant the law of the bankers and the white metal will again take its place in the vaults of the rich and the pockets of the poor.—Oregon City Enterprise.

The readers of the PLAINDEALER are accustomed to getting the truth as we understand it. We have been opposed to the re-election of Senator Dolph because we thought his defeat would be best for the people. During the campaign last spring we urged upon our readers the fact that a vote for the republican representatives did not necessarily mean a vote for Dolph, and we believe that if our representatives really desire to carry out the wishes of the people of this county they will cast their vote for Binger Hermann for United States senator.

"If the anathemas heaped upon the caucus-bolters by the stalwart republicans of Oregon carry their proper moral, the next legislator who betrays his party ought to take the precaution to 'commit hari-kari first,' wails a Dolph organ. And then it goes on to say: "There will be another senatorial election in this state two years hence. The gentlemen who are now deserting republicanism and establishing republican precedents may have reason to regret their present makeshift methods." Consistency is evidently a rare jewel in that shop.

The Oregonian's "practical illustration" of a citizen of Portland sending to San Francisco for a bag of Mexican silver dollars and getting his money back by selling them at 50 cents apiece was a corker. As a "practical illustration" it was all right, but as a business venture it was a losing proposition. For some time past Mexican silver dollars have been quoted in the San Francisco markets at from 51 cents to 51 1/2 cents each. A few more "practical illustrations" of that kind will prove conclusively that there is something of a decaying nature in a foreign country,

THE SENATORIAL ELECTION.

The PLAINDEALER has been opposed to the re-election of Senator Dolph upon general principles, but was averse to making any fight against him, believing that whoever secured the caucus nomination it was the duty of the party to elect. But it now appears that it is impossible to elect the caucus nominee, and therefore the PLAINDEALER does not wish to see the fight protracted indefinitely and the legislature finally adjourn without electing a senator. We therefore think it advisable for the best interests of the party as well as the people to elect a new man—one who has not sought for not labored to secure the high honor—a man upon whom all members of the legislature could unite without submitting themselves to any disagreeable charges. Such a man is Binger Hermann, our present able representative in congress. He has been elected to the lower house of congress five times, and every time with an increased majority, and today if he were placed before the people of Oregon as a candidate for United States senator he would receive such a vote that Governor Lord's 15,000 plurality would pale into insignificance. Knowing Mr. Hermann's views on this question we know he is not a candidate for United States senator, but that if the position were tendered him he would accept it—the office must seek him, not he the office. He was elected to congress by the people and is willing to serve them in that capacity and ask for nothing more. Mr. Hermann is able and competent, faithful, zealous and persistent in his past services, and the legislature could, and as we believe, under the present condition of things, should unite upon Mr. Hermann.

As to a free standing by Mr. Dolph, the caucus nominee, after a fair trial and find that for various causes, among them being his determined stand against free silver and of his being, as is affirmed without dispute, a corporation attorney, which, if true, whether right or wrong perse, are regarded by the people as valid objections to his re-election to the United States senate. It is apparent to the most casual observer that Mr. Dolph does not represent the popular wishes of the people, and therefore should not be returned.

In thus closing up the strife now on, every member could do so without the suspicion of bargain and sale and would receive the approbation of a large majority of the people.

If the people are going to win the senatorial fight, they must be up and at work. Dolph's friends and hirelings are at work in every section of the state. Sign the petition printed elsewhere and mail it at once to our delegation at Salem.

The last state republican convention and the present senatorial election are similar, inasmuch as the old-time party leaders don't seem to be exactly in the band wagon.

Tyee Items.
No fly on Tyee.
Scott Henry has lost his famous dog. The Cole Brothers are fencing their new barn.

J. A. Cole leads us in seedling, and his grain looks well.

P. W. Gossett has a fine lot of fat hogs he intends to slaughter soon.

Uncle John Stevens is suffering with rheumatic pains about the heart.

Fred Stevens has recovered from the injuries received from a falling tree.

Chancy Spencer is grading a road to his farm land on the "second" story.

Mr. S. P. White is suffering with his arm that was injured in the civil war.

No grass grows in the foot paths leading to White's. That's right, boys; nothing like trying.

Dan Hall, wife and son, accompanied by Fred Bateman, were visiting on Tyee several days this week.

Mr. Smith is making great improvements on the "Old Fred" ranch. He has a fine prune orchard.

Ed Stevens is the boss hand to file. He put in 500 in three days for W. C. Burke. Mr. B. has been tiling his new orchard.

We have a healthy locality but the matrimony fever is bad here at present. Bob Lehman, Steve Stevens and Frank Gorrell are down with it; recovery doubtful.

H. H. Nyeman with a force of six men has just finished the road leading from Nyeman Flat and intersecting the Bork lane. Jack risk River.

Normal School Notes.
Lewis Thomas of Oregon City, a brother of the Misses Ora and Olive Thomas, entered school Monday.

Miss Maude Hardy, who has been teaching the Bandon schools, attended chapel exercises Monday.

A Portland paper says the people "demand" that Governor Lord explain whether he has directly or by implication promised desirable offices to certain legislators on condition that they withdraw their support from Dolph. The people don't demand any such explanation. The people know the governor to be a man of strict honor and integrity, and that is sufficient. That Portland paper is like a drowning man, and is grasping at straws.

Horace Boies wants a Western man for president, and we will gamble on it that Horace could put his finger on the very man.—Memphis Avalanche.

The Silver Lake Fire.

A Silver Lake correspondent of the Lakeview Examiner, under date of January 13th, writes as follows: We are not at all exterminated in Silver Lake. Three weeks before the holocaust I took the census of a found 25 people, all told, in our little valley. We have 1 at 40 out of that number, and 1 something near 30 burned more or less. Those who were badly burned are George Payne, Bob Snelling and his 11-year-old sister, Mrs. Tommy Labrie, Mrs. Ward, Roy Ward, and Mrs. Charley Hamilton. They are all in bed yet and it will be sometime before they are all out. Miss Annie Anderson is rapidly improving and I think will soon be all right, though her left arm is considerably burned and her face is somewhat scorched. It takes a great deal of attention to care for the sufferers. The people from Paisley north to Silver Lake have come nobly to the front, with assistance and kindness. There have been several dollars contributed, and a petition is being circulated at Paisley to raise money for the relief of the burned. It takes quite an army of waiters to care for the afflicted. John Blair is general superintendent, and is going almost night and day. He receives his instructions from the doctor. We have no paupers yet, although it takes from $15 to $20 per day. Several have to board at the hotel. Mrs. C. P. Marshall is on crutches. She had one leg badly bruised by falling and being trampled on. Ed Brown, Mrs. Annie Blair and Tracy Blair are doing the hotel work. Jesse D. Carr's foreman, Mr. Cook, is furnishing two men to wait on the burned. Forty of our neighbors and relatives lie buried in one grave eight feet square. It will take the people of Silver Lake one generation to forget it. How can we give them up? We will let the curtain fall and try to forget and hide forever one of the most heart rending tragedies that ever befell a little isolated community like ours. But we have born our attention to our every day business and care for the living. If I could write or say any thing that would soothe one pain I would say, Cause of Cause, pity us; it takes time and circumstance. Be this to try men and women, and 'tis not always the smoothest face that conceals the best heart.

Glendale Items.

Mrs. M. M. Scott of Glendale will go to Woodville to reside permanently on account of the continued ill health of her little daughter, Alva. Mr. Scott will remain here for the winter in the employ of the S. P. Co. Mr. and Mrs. Scott have a host of friends here who sympathize with them in the serious affliction of their sweet little girl.

Miss Edith Dewey, who has been quite sick with malaria fever, is recovering under the skillful treatment of Dr. Kremer of Grant's Pass.

Mrs. E. J. Garrison, who has spent some time visiting her daughter, a Miss Grant Levens, passed through Glendale Sunday enroute to her home at Roseburg.

Miss Anna Dewey and Miss T. J. Roberts entertained their numerous friends with a very pleasant sociable at the Dewey hotel, on Tuesday evening.

Joe Bowers, the superintendent of the railroad bridge men, was at Glendale last week looking in the smiles of his many fair admirers. Mr. Bowers is a genial gentleman and we are convinced that his only excuse for not joining the ranks of the benedict is because he has such a wide circle of fair maidens to select from he is puzzled in making a choice.

Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Hamilton of Galesville visited Glendale on Saturday.

Nathan Smith of Smithfield gave a party at his beautiful home on the 19th, which was well attended and very much enjoyed by all present. Miss Minna Hamilton did the honors as hostess in receiving the guests, and as a host Mr. Smith has no superior. A splendid supper was served at 11 o'clock when all dispersed to their homes; hoping that the next party Mr. Smith gives will be a wedding party.

Fluribus Star of Binger came to Glendale on Friday last for a load of freight for his supply store.

Tyler & Ingram have fitted up a shop where they are ready to do painting and decorating at reasonable rates. Send in your orders at once.

Mrs. Clarke of Hotel Glendale is improving her property and is adding many attractions to her splendidly kept hotel.

Lafayette Jones is having some substantial improvements made on his property in the south part of town.

Mrs. T. C. Neil and family of Greenpoint spent two days at Glendale visiting Mr. and Mrs. Miller.

Don't forget the masquerade ball to be given by Miss Hamilton the 16th of February. Costumes and masks will be on sale at the store of J. L. Dewey.

Reston Notes.

Pleasant weather.
We welcome the PLAINDEALER.
Mrs. W. Laird is visiting friends and relatives at this place.

Ethel Duncan of Reston has gone to Ten Mile, to attend a private school, Miss Winnie Newland teacher.

Mr. John Wilson of Knapton, B. C., who has been visiting friends and relatives at this place for the past month, returned home not long ago.

Our deepest snow of this winter has only been eight inches. We are in hopes the winter is over.

While Mr. and Mrs. Hardman were returning home from Looking Glass this evening, their team became unmanageable throwing Mrs. Hardman and little daughter from the conveyance.

They are glad to say they escaped uninjured.

Johnny Nelson of this vicinity has received a very fine present in the shape of a pair of hounds. They were valued at $100 a piece when five days old.

Miss Rose Fisher of Roseburg made Reston a pleasant call not long ago.

The M. E. church of Ten Mile is holding a protracted meeting.
