Dissolution of Partnership.

Notice is hereby given that the partnership heretofore existing between C. Y. Benjamin and F. P. Cronmiller, under the firm name and style of The Plaindealer Publishing Company is this day dissolved by mutual consent...

Dated this 26th day of February 1895. C. Y. BENJAMIN, F. P. CRONMILLER.

TO OUR PATRONS.

Through the changeable events of life I again come before you as a co-laborer on the PLAINDEALER. Having become interested in this paper, I shall try and add to its efficiency as a good county newspaper, and to maintain its reputation for fairness and reliability in all its utterances...

W. F. BENJAMIN.

The dead in Boise, Idaho, and Dover, Del. continues.

Martial law has been proclaimed in Cuba. That revolt-cursed island is again in the throes of rebellion.

The legislature has adjourned and the people may rest assured that no further obnoxious laws will be passed till A. D. 1897.

The election of G. W. McBride Senator of the United States for Oregon gives general satisfaction to the people of Douglas county.

The democrats in congress have made a new departure.

Bland, Bryan, Sibley and Coffey are at the bottom of it. It is an effort to free-silverize the party.

The Soldier's Home has got a black eye.

The managers have been kicked out for maladministration. The Lord knows, possibly, what will follow the new management.

The dying democratic congress console itself with the reflection that it leaves no surplus in the treasury to be misappropriated by the wicked republicans in the congress to follow.

The democratic congress within the two years of its control has repealed the silver purchase act, the Federal election law, the McKinley tariff act, caused a deficit of about $70,000,000 and increased the bonded debt $150,000,000, and seems bent in doing much more mischief.

The duty of the hour, says Senator Chandler, is economy, individual, state and national.

Instances of individual economy are frequently to be met with, but as to state and national we have only to refer you to our defunct legislature and to the expiring congress, to show the folly of hope for relief from this source.

The subscription list of the PLAINDEALER is rapidly growing.

It is a desirable medium for extensive advertising. Remember it is a twice-a-week paper, full of interesting fresh reading, gotten up by able and wide-awake correspondents in all parts of the county, and well selected latest news from a long list of exchanges.

The Republican party of the state are compelled at this juncture to bear the odium of extravagance in the last legislature, on account of its majority in that body.

But upon analyzing the cause of failure to come up to the full measure of retrenchment promised, we find that our delegation redeemed their pledges. They secured in the house the passage of the bill exempting indebtedness from taxation, and had we had wide awake a senator, the same might have become a law.

Now that Senator Dolph has been turned down by G. W. McBride, Secretary of state, the PLAINDEALER will indulge in no unkind criticism of Senator Dolph.

We wish to let the dead past bury its dead. Indulging in condemnation of this, that or the other parties who are responsible for the result will not heal the gaping wounds. G. W. McBride will be our next United States senator. Neither Dolph's defeat nor McBride's election to succeed him best against sound republicanism with sufficient force to kill it. The principles of the republican party are true or false. If true they will, as they ought to, succeed. If, however, the principles of the party are false, they will, as they ought to, die the death of the damned, and the people, the intelligent voters, will duly attend to the funeral.

East Oregonian: The city of Pendleton will not receive any of its scrip for dues to the city.

In fact it is "demonetized" its own paper. We were told when this was done that it would soon bring scrip to par, but instead, city scrip is selling below county scrip now while it ought to sell above it, because county scrip remains out more than four years while city scrip is out barely two years. If scrip were issued in denominational amounts, bearing only six per cent interest, it would soon circulate par by passing into local currency and be absorbed by local people who would draw the interest borne by it, instead of its going into the pockets of outsiders as now. In order to make this a practical matter let the council give it a trial and see to it, as this body is doing at present, that the city's expenses are kept within the receipts while it is being tried, and good results would follow, to the benefit of all and not done to suit buyers, as the present plan allows.

Glendale Items.

Wm. Hamersley of the Hamersley mine at Gold Hill spent ten days at Glendale as the guest of his brother, A. Miller. He was accompanied by Mack McKinney, a mining expert. The gentlemen spent some days prospecting in the ravines running into this place. They sank several prospect holes and in each got plenty of color to justify them in the belief that this town and the country around it are rich in gold. They started on Tuesday to White Horse where they will open up the claim of W. H. Redfield. They were all equipped with supplies and mining tools, and we expect to hear of rare developments in this important mining camp.

G. G. Eliff of Quindana has made a rich mining strike in his mining claim, having taken out $12 in one day last week, and since that time his usual day's work has paid from $50 to $60 per day. The miners in this valley are doing well, and large amounts of gold dust is being shipped from this place.

Mrs. W. J. Pymale, who has been at Salem during the legislative session, when she has been employed in the senate chamber, in returning to her home spent Friday at Glendale as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Miller. She was accompanied by her daughters, Misses Mary and Emma, whom the young people of Glendale entertained at a sociable at the Redfield hall on Friday evening.

Miss Kate Pymale, who holds a position at the State insane asylum, was the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Miller on Tuesday, where she was entertained by a pleasant birthday party, it being the 25th birthday of J. L. Roberts. The invited guests were Miss M. Hamilton of Glendale, Mr. E. C. Hamilton, Miss Nettie Redfield and Redfield Bros. of Baskville, Nathan with of Scitfield and Will Hamersley of Gold Hill.

John Pandy of the local mines was in town on Sunday. He brings good news from the mines and brought a nice lot of gold dust.

J. L. Dwyer of the lower store and Andrew Ramsey were called to Glendale to appear as witnesses in the case of Williams vs. Jones, which is now on trial there.

W. H. Redfield of the T. X. L. store is receiving a fine lot of new goods which he is always pleased to show his customers. Mr. Redfield keeps the best goods in all lines, and is general and obliging and is building up a good trade. He is attentive to all his customers, especially to the ladies. Give him a call.

C. T. Nall, the genial P. M. of Wolf Creek, made a pleasant call on Sunday evening. Mr. Nall is also the manager of the mercantile house of Telf & Booth at this place.

Riddle Items.

Dr. C. E. Boggs reports Mr. Frank Cain improving slowly.

Rev. Jones preached a very interesting sermon here Monday night. Bro. Jones is always gladly welcomed by every one in Riddle.

Miss Jennie Bestman will stay with Mrs. Will Adams for a few nights.

Mr. Iva Dean is just home from a visit to Roseburg.

Mrs. Mary Brown of Cannonville is visiting her sister here, Mrs. Thomas Dyer.

Dr. Bradley of Roseburg was called to see Mrs. William Sauerborn a few days ago. She is improving now.

Mrs. Lucy Silver and children have been visiting her mother, Mrs. Dyer, for the past few days.

Miss Minnie Spauldick of Days creek, has been visiting Uncle Noah Cornett's family.

Mrs. Minnie Frazer went to Roseburg to spend several weeks with her husband's parents.

Mrs. Walter Simmons of Grants Pass, came down the 29th, to visit with her daughter, Mrs. Geo. R. Riddle.

A Riddle and son are preparing their orchard this week.

Mr. William Harrison of Portland is back in this vicinity, attending to business matters.

Miss Alma Boggs will teach a spring term of school at Roberts creek.

Mrs. Elizabeth Quinn and Mrs. Billy Riddle have been on the sick list, but are better at the present writing.

Scottsburg Items.

W. G. Grubbe and Miss Lucy Ingham finished the month for the Glendale paper on the 22nd. They returned home Saturday, and reported the affair a success.

A. L. Butler and wife were in town a few days since.

Jimmie Graham is more smiling than usual. A little daughter arrived at his home last night.

A subscription is being organized for the benefit of the family of the late D. Wagoner. We hope they will receive a goodly amount.

The petition asking for a reduction of freight rates to San Francisco, is being signed by everyone in any way interested. It will be presented to the tariffner Mill Company for their consideration in the near future.

Upper Ollala Items.

Beautiful little flowers are in bloom through the woods here. So much for the fine climate in the "paradise of Oregon."

Our new county road is filled in with several miles, thus making work for the mountaineers.

Mrs. L. Cooper was the guest of Mrs. Alfred East Fugate.

Mr. H. Bushnell is having grain sown on the Sweeney farm.

C. H. Cooper prolongs his stay well over in Camas valley. Some attraction, eh?

Mr. George Hoover was up one day last week looking after his mining interests.

We would like to see all parties interested put forth plans for the building of a new school house.

Our esteemed friend Mrs. Tevelough is having ill health this winter.

All here and attend the school meeting and have the school house question settled.
