Lecture. Mrs. Unruh, president of the State W. C. T. U. of McMinnville lectured to a fair audience at the court house Sunday at 3 p. m. Social purity was the chief topic of her lecture. She claimed that the standard of morals for men should be as high as that for women. Until that standard is set up, holding men as rigidly to its requirements as the social evil will flourish. Society now allows boys to "sow wild oats," while girls are required to be models of purity refinement and moral perfection. Conventionalities are undermining the social fabric.

In the Circuit Court.

The circuit court convened at 10 o'clock this morning. Present, Hon. J. C. Fallerton, Judge; F. W. Benson, clerk; C. F. Catbert, sheriff, with the usual number of deputies, bailiffs, etc.

The drawing of the grand jury resulted as follows: Jan. Meiler, foreman, Thos. Nicholson, John Banks, J. A. Gunter, S. J. Choenwerth, Jas. Milliken and W. P. Totten. The docket is the highest for several terms.

The case of Jane Davis vs. S. P. R. R. Co., the first to be tried, is one of great importance as it will effect and probably settle the liability of common carriers under the laws of this state. The plaintiff is represented by E. B. Probst and the S. P. Co. by Brougham, McArthur, Fenton, Bronough & Willis. A decessor was to have been argued this morning but was withdrawn and the case set for trial at 1 o'clock. Up to 2 p. m. our jury had been accepted.

THE DOCKET. Thos. Hirst et al. vs. Emma Nasberg et al.; partition. Continued. Maria Schroten vs. A. C. Cummings; confirmation. Confirmed. A. G. Young et al. vs. Chenoweth Park Fruit Association; foreclosure. Dismissed.

Federal Sutherland vs. W. G. B. Dixon et al.; confirmation. Confirmed. J. P. Martin vs. Perry Duncan; to recover money. Settled and dismissed. G. Grubbe, executor, vs. Nolen Grubbe; to recover money. Default and judgment, and order of sale of attached property.

Reminiscence. The Oregonian of the 14th inst., under the head of reminiscence refers to a little affair between the Gale brothers, Tommy and Henry, and Bud Thompson and says that Thompson came out without a scratch. It may not be an error to correct this statement. In the early seventies the Gale brothers were publishing a republican paper in Roseburg. Bud Thompson started the PLAINDEALER, democratic, double-dyed at that time.

Hot words in print stirred bad blood, and one very pleasant Sunday morning between 10 and 11 o'clock, the Gale brothers came walking up Main street and met Thompson at the crossing of Douglas street. Hot words immediately ensued. There were several shots fired, Tommy Gale received a bullet between the chest and abdomen. Thompson received a shot well back in the lower jaw, and all of them were prostrate after the melee was over. Henry Gale appeared to be the least hurt. Tommy was carried to the drug store of Dr. Hamilton, supposed to be fatally wounded. Thompson was led into the portico bleeding profusely and minus two or three teeth. They all finally recovered, Tommy Gale carried the lead to his grave however, and it is quite probable his days were shortened by the effects of the shot.

Bud Thompson afterwards went to Prineville, and after his murderous affair in that place, he, by the advice of friends went to California. An Era Wireless.

Church Services. Rev. N. S. Buckner preached Sunday morning from 1st Cor. vs. 58, Chap. 15. Mr. Buckner dwelt upon the importance of labor in support of the church. He said we should be fitted to do God's work, not our own. As disciples of Christ we should forsake everything—not to "hunt and fish." We should, as Christ said to the rich young man, "Sell that thou hast and give to the poor." This the Christian will do if he has the love of God in his heart by the Holy Ghost. None, he thought, could map out the proper way of life but Christians who are well grounded in the faith. Faith was the indispensable article for salvation—faith in Christ who suffered and died to have humanity. Some people in the church he said work for pay. None but active, earnest workers for God were efficient in his cause. He thought that if the churches of Roseburg would join in harmonious, active and determined work for the cause of Christ the city would soon be ablaze with Christianity and resulting benefits.

Mrs. Reed was buried in the Scottsburg cemetery a large circle of relatives and friends accompanying the remains to their last resting place. The sympathies of the community are with the mother and sisters and other relatives, in the sad bereavement.

From Olalla. Ed. PLAINDEALER: I read Mr. Kester's letter in the PLAINDEALER stating that he took no part in dances whatever, and that "Thankful" had better confine herself to the truth in the future. I think that Mr. Kester will look in the Review dated sometime before the last dance was given in the school house, he will find there that the directors were going to give a school dance in the near future. If the dance was not given and Mr. Kester was not one of the school directors, I will take back what I said. Otherwise I will not. I wish to say right here that I do not put any thing in the items that I write that is disrespectful, or that I think is false, or meant for any slur. THANKFUL.

Farmers will please bear in mind that stable room for baiting teams of patrons is free at the Depot hotel. Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder Forty Years the Standard.

Governor Lord was for many years chief justice of the supreme court of Oregon, and does anyone for a moment suppose he would have signed the branch asylum bill had it not been constitutional? There is no better constitutional lawyer in the state than the governor, and as the question was in the courts before he retired from the bench, the fact that he signed the bill as soon as it reached him is a pretty good indication as to what will be the decision of the supreme court no matter in what shape the question comes up before it. The wishes of the people of the state will be carried out in spite of the narrow selfishness of the Salem engineers.—Union Republican.

An agreeable variety has been introduced into the stories of aged persons who milk all the cows, clean all the barns, cook cords of wood, etc., before breakfast. From Warrenburg, Mo., comes a relation of one William Logg, aged 66, who seeing a racoon run up a 60 foot tree, shinned up after the emblem of the Old Line Whigs, caught him in the top, and brought him down in triumph. Missourians have been known to lie in hope Champ Clark has gone home, and will never see this. But assuming that the story is true, it would seem that Logg's family were awfully hard up for meat, and not particular as to the kind.—Ex.

A report of the inspection of the several branches of the National Home for Disabled Volunteer Soldiers, made by Gen. J. C. Breckinridge, Inspector-General of the Army, has been sent to congress. The duty of inspecting the several branches of the Home related to over 15,000 men, and disbursements amounting to $4,753,173. There is probably nothing, the report says, which more deserves consideration than the decorous and comfortable housing of the soldiers. The men who have by their conduct in war and by their present disability earned a perfect title to all the consideration now shown them, deserve something better than sleeping on floors or overcrowding in basements.

It has been said that there are more young men in the penitentiary in this country learning trades than there are outside of them. The principal cause of this, we are educating our young men for gentlemen; trying to make lawyers, doctors and clerks out of the material that nature intended for blacksmiths, carpenters and "hewers of the wood."

It is a mistake, and a big one, to teach boys and girls by insinuations that to labor is disgraceful, or if labor is necessary for a livelihood to follow a genteel occupation, and that to do nothing for a living is more becoming the society in which they expect to move and have respect. Hang such society! It is rotten to the core, and there are many men's sons and daughters who are now being educated to play the part of "leading lady" and "walking gentlemen" in the great drama of life, who will light out for a poor house or penitentiary before they have played their part and the curtain drops. Go to work!—Riddle Enterprise.

The Continental Insurance Company of New York has refused to join the new Compact entitled the board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, believing that the board is not a benefit for the people but for the insurance companies in keeping up rates. This company has the best financial standing and loss paying record. It was tested in the great Chicago fire in 1871, paying every dollar of its losses amounting to over two million of dollars. Its record of almost fifty years is prompt and liberal in the settlement of all honest claims. Its motto is for the interest of the people as well as the company. You owe your patronage to this company and should see Wayne Jones, Agent, when you take insurance.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report

Royal Baking Powder ABSOLUTELY PURE

LITTLE WILL BE DONE. Lego Still in the Swim. Until Republicans Have Full Control of the Government. Senator Platt, of Connecticut says that very little can be accomplished in the way of legislation to relieve the distressed condition of the country until after 1896, when he hoped the republicans would be in power in all branches of the government. He said: "If measures, consideration of which has been blocked, should be brought forward at the next congress, they doubtless would come in a shapeless mass, calculated to do mischief. The financial situation may improve; we hope for bimetalism, and we hope for improved business conditions. If we should succeed in securing bimetalism that would settle the trouble and diminish the friction which now prevails with reference to the silver question."

The World's Fair Tests showed no baking powder so pure or so great in leavening power as the Royal. Postal Order. WASHINGTON, March 14.—The postmaster-general has issued an order that hand-stamped alterations or additions to price lists, invoices, catalogues, or other forms of the same nature, as well as like changes in circulars or other printed matter, converting the same into orders for goods or making any announcement of the character of a personal communication, are held to be equivalent to writing or typewriting and will therefore be subject matter upon which they may be impressed, when mailed, to letter rate postage.

More business cards, however, or other hand-stamped editions, clearly of an advertising character, may be impressed upon a third-class matter without subjecting it to a higher rate of postage. Marvelous Results. From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderson of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the result were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last her with little intermission and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at A. C. Marsters & Co.'s Drug Store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.
