AS WE SEE THINGS.

INFLUENCE OF THE INNER LIFE ON THE EXTERNAL WORLD.

How an Individual or a Scene May Have an Entirely Different Appearance to Two Persons—Happiness and Sorrow Made by Ourselves.

There have been philosophers who declared that the earth on which we stand and the stars on which we gaze have no real existence, but are merely the outcomes of our inner selves. Perhaps the best answer to this is that the mind itself, at least that of most people, refuses to receive the idea. The difference between the me and the not me is too sharply defined in the inner consciousness to permit Bishop Berkeley's notion from taking root within us.

Yet we cannot afford to overlook the germ of truth which this idea contains. Though not literally the creation of our thought, the outer world is to each one of us largely that which we make it. Nature herself, in all her varied scenes, whatever she may be in reality, shows herself to us in the light which we throw upon her. One man looks at a landscape and sees land and water, grass and trees, hills and plains, and nothing more. Another, a farmer, sees the growing crops, the fallow land, the noxious weeds, the prospect for future tillage and the obstacles to be overcome. Another, with a painter's eye, sees every variety of form and color, proportion and perspective, harmony and contrast, beauty and sublimity. To the melancholy man all is tinctured with gloom—a leaden pall covers even the gayest scenes—while to the joyous everything seems bright and glad, and even the dreariest of November days only suggests the radiant sunlight that is sure later on to struggle through the clouds.

So with the sights of a city. For each of us as they take on the aspect of our own mental condition. How differently they impress the citizen who has spent his life among them from the foreigner who views them for the first time! What a different message the stately and magnificent buildings bear to the absorbed man of business and to the architect who appreciates every detail of their construction!

If there is so wide a divergence in the aspect which inanimate things have for us, the difference is still greater in the way we regard the men and women by whom we are surrounded. Character is a complex thing, difficult to detect, impossible to fathom, yet we presumptuously venture to gauge and pronounce upon it with the smallest modicum of knowledge. It is curious to notice how differently the same person will impress various individuals. His friend will perhaps see no fault in him, his enemy no virtue. One will put faith in him; another will suspect his every action. One will deem him cold hearted; another will think him affectionate and kind. It must be that their own personalities are reflected in him, and that to a certain extent he does thus become for a time, while under their influence, what they suppose him to be always. It is certainly true that the good and gentle find far more goodness and gentleness in the world than those who are deficient in such qualities. It is the selfish man who is the keenest to detect selfishness in others; it is the overbearing who complain most of the arrogance and pride with which they are met, and the unjust who murmur at the injustice they receive. On the other hand, the loving and sympathetic discover love and sympathy everywhere; the noble and true bring to light nobility and truth which might otherwise be hidden. Thus to a large extent we develop the character of those we meet. By a subtle magnetism we draw like to like and evolve out of other personalities the characteristics of our own.

Even the outward circumstances of life are largely what we ourselves make them. We are accustomed to consider prosperity a blessing and adversity a curse, but quite frequently they change places. It is the spirit in which they are received that determines their result. The rich and self indulgent man, surrounded by luxury and opportunity, may be far less happy than his poorer neighbor who brings industry, fidelity and generosity into constant exercise. The same privileges that raise one young man to honor and usefulness are a snare and temptation to another. The same recreation that invigorates one enfeebles another. The same sorrow that softens one and leads him out of self to works of kindness and helpfulness prostrates another and renders him valueless. It is that which is within a man that so acts upon the externals of life as to decide their results to him, and through him to others.

If this be so, then happiness or wretchedness is largely in our power, and most of our complaints only bear witness to our own remissness. We may rightly recognize the futility of struggling against outward events which we cannot control, but we can always bring to bear upon them such a spirit and influence as shall turn evil into good and bitter into sweet.—Philadelphia Ledger.

A Startling Announcement.

An English literary man who was on the verge of bringing out a book at the Pitt Press ordered his proofs to be sent to him at a house where he was engaged to dine out, intending to look them over in the half hour after dinner. The printer's boy however, was late in bringing them, and the gentlemen had already rejoined the ladies in the drawing room when the company was electrified by hearing the sonorous voice of the butler announcing, "The devil from the Pitt has come for Mr. Jones!"—San Francisco Argonaut.

The Value of a Hyphen.

I recall an advertisement which actually appeared, sans hyphen, recently in a London daily, to wit: "Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Levi, having cast off clothing of every description, invite an early inspection."—Chap Book.

BALD HEADS!

What is the condition of yours? Is your hair dry, harsh, brittie? Does it split at the ends? Has it a lifeless appearance? Does it fall out when combed or brushed? Is it full of dandruff? Does your scalp itch? Is it dry or in a heated condition? If these are some of your symptoms be warned in time or you will become bald.

Skookum Root Hair Grower is what you need. Its production is not an accident, but the result of scientific research. Knowledge of the diseases of the hair and scalp led to the discovery of how to treat them. "Skookum" contains neither minerals nor oils. It is not a Dye, but a delightfully cooling and refreshing Tonic. By stimulating the follicles, it stops falling hair, cures dandruff and grows hair on bald heads.

☞ Keep the scalp clean, healthy, and free from irritating eruptions, by the use of Skookum Skin Soap. It destroys parasitic insects, which feed on and destroy the hair.

If your druggist cannot supply you send direct to us, and we will forward prepaid, on receipt of price. Grower, $1.00 per bottle; 6 for $5.00. Soap, 50c. per jar; 6 for $2.50.

AMERICAN AGRICULTURIST WEEKLY.

Original, Progressive, Practical.

Changed to a Weekly!

To extend its usefulness and make it a practical necessity to every progressive Farmer and his family, the American Agriculturalist is now published weekly (instead of monthly), at

Only $1.00 a Year!

All the Leading Features that have made the monthly so popular are retained and many New Features added, such as General and Local Market Prices, Crop Reports in their season, Condensed Farm News, and Letters Among the Farmers.

Its Farm Features.

Live Stock, Dairying, Horticulture, Poultry, Market Gardening, and other topics, written by Practical and Successful Farmers, supplemented with Illustrations by able artists, combine to make it invaluable to those who "farm it for a living."

☞ The Latest Markets and Commercial Agriculture are Leading Features, in which the Agriculturist is not excelled. Reliable Special Correspondents at the General and Local Market Centers all over the United States enable us to report the latest prices on everything the Farmer has to sell. This Department alone is worth many times the cost of a year's subscription to any Farmer.

Five Editions!

To better adapt the Agriculturalist to the special interests of each section, five editions are issued for five different sections of the country, Eastern, Middle, Central, Western, Southern.

Each Edition contains special Local Features characteristic of its section, perfectly adapting it to the wants of the farmers of the different states in that section. Thus each edition becomes to the Farmers as much their home agricultural paper, as though published at their own state capital.

The Family Features,

Short Stories, Latest Fashions, Fancy Work, The Good Cook, Talks with the Doctor, Puzzle Contests and Young Folks' Page, combine to make this Department of as much value and interest as most of the Special Family Papers.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE of Oregon, for the County of Douglas.

James Pitcher, Plaintiff.
Annnie Consolidated Mining Co., Defendant.

STATE OF OREGON, } ss
County of Douglas. }

Whereas at the regular December term, 1894, of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Douglas County, to-wit: on December 4th, 1894, James Pitcher recovered a judgment against the above named defendant for the sum of $614.39 and $61.25 costs and disbursments herein taxed, and against the following described attached property, to-wit:

The Emma Mining Claim extending 1500 feet north 24 degrees east, said claim being located on the north east slope of Grouse Mountain, about 400 feet from the main tunnel on the Anna Mining Claim in a northeasterly course. Horse Haven Creek on the north east, Grouse Mountain on the south west, a rockey bluff on the east, distant about 700 feet from end, centers and corners being distinctly marked by stakes; also the Maggie Mining Claim, described as follows. Commencing at the south east corner of Anna Claim, running 1500 feet easterly and parallel with Sarah Claim; thence 600 feet southerly to a fir tree; thence 1500 feet westerly to a fir tree about 2 feet through, blazed on four sides; thence northerly 600 feet to Anna four corners and place of beginning.

Also Lucy Mining Claim described as follows: Said claim, 750 feet 34 degrees north of east and 750 feet 34 degrees south of west, from center of said claim, which claim is situated on the headwaters of Horse Haven Creek, Grouse Mountain on the south west, distance about one-half mile from said center; a rocky bluff on the east, distant about two and one-half miles; west end center a lone pine tree marked W. C. L.; east end center a lonegfir tree marked E. C. L., end line running 34 degrees west of west and 34 degrees east of south. Corners distinctly marked by stakes, also the timber and water rights and privileges belonging to said claims being situated in Bohemia Mining District, Douglas County, State of Oregon.

Also the following named mining claims situated in the Bohemia Mining District, Douglas County, State of Oregon, to-wit: Anna Quartz Mining Claim, Little Joe Quartz Mining Claim, Henry Quartz Mining Claim, Mystery Quartz Mining Claim, Grey Eagle Quartz Mining Claim, and more particularly described as follows, to-wit: Anna Mining Claim, being situated in Bohemia Mining District, exterior boundaries Fairview Mountain west two and one-half miles, Johnson Meadows east seven miles, Rocky Butte north one mile, Old Knott Mill south one and one-half miles; Henry Mining Claim being located in Bohemia Mining District near Grouse Mountain, exterior boundaries a lone flat ridge north east one and one-half miles, south west by a lone fir tree with top cut out, north by Rocky Butte, south by the Knott Mill. Mystery Mining Claim being located in the Bohemia Mining District, exterior boundaries on the south by the Johnson Claim, north by low divide between Bohemia and Grouse Mountains one-half mile away, east by south end of Grouse Mountain, west by Bohemia Mountain. Grey Eagle Mining Claim being located on the east side of Grouse Mountain and about one-half mile south east of the shaft on the Excelsior Mine, also the mill and mill site which are of record in the office of the County Clerk of Douglas County, Oregon, in Vol. 3 of miscelaneous mining records of said County, together with all the dips, spurs and angles, also all the metals, ores, gold and silver bearing quartz rock and earth therein, and all the rights and privileges and franchises thereto incident, appendant and appurtenant or therewith usually had; also the following described attached personal property to-wit: One stationery engine, one boiler, two concentrators, one 5 stamp battery, one iron vice, one set pipe dies, one Jeancamp pump, about 50 cords of wood more or less being all the wood at the mill, one cable tramway and appurtenances running from mill to mine, 15 picks at mine, 6 shovels, 1 sledge, 15 drills, 3 jacks, 2 pumps, 2 ore cars, 400 feet ore track, 25 sacks ore, 2 anvils, 1 vice, 1 bellows, 1 grind stone, 18 sacks concentrates, 7 wrenches, 1 giant, 1 water wheel, 9 chains, and whereas all of the said property, both real and personal, was duly attached on the 17th day of September, 1894, and an order of sale of all of said property was duly made and entered at said regular December term, 1894, of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Douglas County, to-wit; on the 4th day of December, 1894.

Now therefore in the name of the State of Oregon, I will on Thursday the 4th day of April, 1895, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon of said day on the premises of said Anna Mining Co., sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand, all the right, title and interest which the said defendant had in or to the said personal property on the 17th day of September, 1894, or at any time thereafter, and if a sufficient sum be not realized from the sale of said personal property to satisfy the judgment of said James Pitcher, costs and accruing costs.

I will on Thursday the 18th day of April, 1895, at the Court House door in Roseburg, Douglas County, Oregon, sell at public auction for cash in hand, all the right title and interest the said defendant had in or to the above described real property on the 17th day of September, 1894, or at any time thereafter, and will apply the proceeds of such sales, first to the costs and expenses of such sale and to the costs and disbursments herein taxed at $61.25; second to the payment to the plaintiff the sum of $614.39 with interest thereon at the rate of 8 per cent. per annum from December 4th, 1894, and the overplus if any there be I will pay over to the defendant or its legal representative.

C. F. CATHCART
Sheriff Douglas County, Oregon.
