MONDAY, APRIL 1, 1895.

Habeas corpus has been restored in Hawaii.

The United States grand jury indicted C. P. Huntington at San Francisco March 26 for a violation of the interstate commerce law for issuing a pass outside the state.

Governor McConnell of Idaho says Senator Shoup who has been elected U. S. senator, is a staunch friend of silver and an ardent supporter of the republican theory of protection.

Why don't our democratic papers when referring to the Maine statesman, call him Tom Reed when prior to the 53rd congress they called him Czar Reed? Echo answer why?

It is a historical fact that early in the twelfth century, about A. D. 1120, the relative value of gold and silver was 9 of silver to 1 of gold. This relation has been changing till to day it is 16 of silver to 1 of gold, coin value; but of bullion value they stand 29 of silver to 1 of gold.

The Attorney-general is of the opinion that the railroad commissioners elected two years ago can legally hold office and that the governor cannot appoint a new set to fill a vacancy because there is no vacancy. The three pilot commissioners, fish and game warden will hold over.

A religious war is imminent in Manitoba, Canada. It appears the Dominion government has taken steps to re-establish separate schools which were taken from Catholics in Manitoba in 1890. This movement by the government has called out strong opposition by the protestant element. What the outcome will be is hard to predict.

When Governor Lord was elected he gave out that Marion county would not be given all the plums in gubernatorial pudding. But how is it? Why, look at the list. A. Bush, John Mintz, S. B. Armsby, A. N. Gilbert, B. F. Meredith, Henry Brophy and A. Hope, Jr., are all cared for. The asylum and reform school have Salem men. That's why Salem is called "Salem hog."

"Grocers," the last bonds sold by Cleveland for $1.04 are now selling on the New York market at $1.20, a profit of 16 cents on every dollar of the $62,400,000, an even profit of $10,000,000 on the whole amount. And the people of the United States must pay interest on the ten million dollar profit for thirty years. That's the way the people get it in the neck. A democratic administration comes high, but the people would have it.—Ogden Standard.

The governor of Washington vetoed the state text book publication bill. But state text book publishing has got to come. We print books for the fruit grower and farmer, but it is objected to when we propose to print a spelling book, a grammar, or a reader. The objection is not good. The common schools have a dangerous enemy in the book trust that keeps thousands of poor children out of school.—Capital Journal.

We found one good old democrat in town last week. "Yes," he says, "I am a democrat and always have been, but I don't know what has become of the party. It seems to be lost in the wilderness with no leader able to bring it out." Never mind, good friend, when you are found in the ranks of the republican party you will be brought out of the wilderness and led to the light of prosperity once more illumine the land.

A valley paper says: It has been a good many years since the Willamette valley has had as favorable outlooks for an overwhelming crop at this season of the year, both in grain and fruit as this year advances. The winter season has been so delightfully mild that no man can possibly find an excuse for not having his grain crop all in, his orchard well entreated, and his berry crop looked after, and there are few cultivators of the soil who are in need of an excuse. The work is practically all done. Everything seems to have worked harmoniously this year.

The "rosewater" policy is commended by the Cottage Grove Leader with the pertinent remark that it can be studied with profit. The Leader might have added that it has been studied with profit during the last two months has now been adopted by most of the progressive papers of the state. There is very little of the old snap-and-snarl spirit manifest in the editorials of today in any section, and as a result there is more harmony in the state than ever before. Rosewater is to be the winning policy of the next decade, and papers like the Leader that are doing so much to spread it, are going to find a profit in it in more ways than one.—S. F. Call.

UNCLE SAM—Well, now, that there Autoharp music's got into my legs; I can't keep still. It's like everything else my boys have invented, it's got the "git there" in it, strong. MISS COLUMBIA—"Your boys?" What do you mean by that? UNCLE SAM—Why don't you know that the Autoharp is an American invention?

Like the Chickering, Hardman and A. B. Chase Pianos, they will stand the test for Tone and Durability. Just received a new stock of Guitars and other Musical Goods. We keep in stock the ro-cent Music and also the latest and most popular Songs and Instrumental Music. T. K. RICHARDSON, Roseburg.

BEFORE FREE TRADE.

The following advertisement was found in the Oregonian of July 5, 1876, which is now before us: FOR SALE. We the undersigned offer for sale 50,000 pounds of wool, more or less, spring clip. Also 5000 pounds of lamb's wool. Said wool to be delivered at Roseburg depot ten days after sale. We will receive sealed bids at Roseburg up to 2 o'clock on the 10th day of July, 1876. Said wool to be sold to the highest responsible bidder in United States gold coin. We reserve the right to reject any or all bids if not satisfactory. Address Nat Webb, Roseburg, July 1, 1876.

THE ITALY OF AMERICA.

The Douglas county folk are frequently ridiculed for being so egotistical as to think our climate will equal or approximate that of the peninsula lying between the Adriatic and Mediterranean seas. But it is a fact, nevertheless that all things considered, the evenness of temperature, the freedom from cyclones and blizzards, the annual amount of rainfall, the variety of grain, grass, fruits and vegetables, the invariable certainty of a fair crop, the almost unlimited natural resources and the future prospects in store for Douglas, all combine to make it the grandest spot for a home that can be found on this green earth.

THE TIDE HAS TURNED.

A large number of car loads of potatoes have been shipped from the Willamette Valley lately, over the S. P. railroad for New Orleans and St. Louis and intermediate points. This turn in the movement of produce is cheering. We have been too long shipping to this state the products of California and the East. Let our farmers be prepared to furnish hereafter, not only potatoes but other farm products that may be produced here in abundance. Let us keep the tide rolling eastward.

WHO ARE CRANKS?

If the definition of a "crank" as given by Mrs. Urub, president of the W. C. T. U., is correct; viz: "The person who does his own thinking." Then many who differ with her are cranks as well as herself. The shoe fits the PLAINDEALER, which does its own thinking. That one is the most cranky which does the most thinking.

"Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty," and the same vigilance is the price of success in the next election in Oregon. What are republicans doing towards that success? Our populist friends are busily at work. Silently and without the sounding of trumpets they are organizing clubs throughout the state, and seem animated with an assurance of success. A state convention of republican clubs is to be held in Portland in May. Are the republicans of Douglas county taking the necessary steps to be represented in that convention? In those times of political turmoil and strife republicans should be alive to the requirements of the situation and not live their hold on the voters of Oregon, and thus suffer defeat by a failure of vigorous co-operation. Republicans take a thought of your duty as it presents itself to you.

We would like to ask if there is not a law on the statutes of the state of Oregon, wherein the sale of cigarettes to minors, under eighteen years of age, is prohibited? If so, why is it not enforced? Boys who are under that age can be seen on our streets smoking them every day.—New Era.

ISSUE IN MANITOBA.

Shall the Separate Schools System Be Restored. WINNIPEG, March 27.—The remedial order on separate schools does not come up in the legislature until tomorrow night, but nevertheless it was the topic of the day. Both the government and opposition are holding frequent caucuses, and what the outcome will be is difficult to predict. One thing is certain—that the Manitoba government will resist interference by Ottawa in educational matters. The newspaper organ of the government has the official statement, under the heading, "Manitoba Answer."

GOLD QUARTZ.

A Rich Find Near Oakland, Douglas County. OAKLAND, Ore., March 29.—The report has just reached here that a rich strike in quartz has been made east of this place on a spur of the Calaveras mountains. The exact location of same has not been ascertained further than that it is in the direction of the Bohemia country and this side of or west of the new line. Messrs. Gardner and McHenry are the parties making the lucky find.

Oregon's Women Convicts.

SALEM, March 26.—In a medium-sized room comfortably furnished, on the second floor of the Oregon penitentiary are confined the only two female convicts of the state—Emma Rice and Lottie Sinclair. Both were reared from Multnomah county for terms of two years each. Though thrown in close relations by being confined to the same narrow limits these characters are widely different. They are not required to wear stripes nor labor. Both have a common school education, and the only means of diversion they have is reading books furnished from the prison library. Emma Rice is 26 years old. She is beseized her incarceration with apparent ease, showing evidences of a conquered spirit. She is frayed with the hope that she has a friend on the outside, and that, within twenty-four hours after receiving the prison threshold, she will become a second wife. Lottie is only 22 years old, of a different temperament, and prison life is wearing heavily upon her. She frequently is heard to mutter, "Oh, if I only had work to do to keep my mind engaged and be prepared to earn something when I get out. Confined to this room with nothing to do but think, think, the mind can but wander here."

J. J. Webb has opened a second hand store in the old Elber building at the corner of Main and Washington streets. Second hand goods of all kinds will be bought and sold, and the patronage of the public is respectfully solicited.

DEED.

BEELFIS.—In this city, Saturday, March 29th, Sculler Beeliff, son of L. E. and Myrtle Beeliff, aged 11 months and 16 days.

Oh! how sad the mournful tidings, "All is over, baby's dead," And one by one the silent watchers Weeping gather 'round the bed. Gently close the baby eyelids, Over eyes once dewy bright, 'Round the little form, most lightly Fold the softest robes of white. Clasp the tiny waxen fingers, O'er the still and pulseless breast, Once they were so warm and clinging, Clasp them now in silent rest.

COLD COMFORT RANGE.

Farmers Who Signed Notes in Payment for Stoves Want Satisfaction. From the Daily Oregonian, Portland, Or., Nov. 11, 1894. OREGON CITY, Nov. 10.—Victims of the home-comfort-wrought-iron-cooking-range swindle are numerous in this vicinity. Eighteen farmers at Molalla bought the ranges at $72 each, giving notes due November 1, with the understanding and verbal agreement that any length of time to suit the convenience of the makers of the notes would be granted by the company—even to six or eight years—for the company had plenty of capital and never disposed of its paper. But the notes turned up in the hands of third persons, and must be paid, and there is trouble. Half a dozen farmers were in town today to see if the grand jury would afford them relief or satisfaction. There were numerous purchasers of these wonderful ranges through the Molalla, Marquam and the Scott's Mills country. The same kind of a range can be bought here for $50.
