THE PLAINDALE

JUNE 10, 1895

A ROMANCE OF PRONOUNS. It was evening, it was moonlight, it was late, and it was fair.

HALTED BY A MOUNTAIN LION.

A Night Adventure of Three Girls on a California Road.

We were driving from Oakland over the ridge that divides Alameda and Contra Costa counties, three girls bound for a country dance at Moraga valley, a little settlement on the Contra Costa side.

The driver had succeeded in pulling the frightened horses to their feet and righting the wagon. He ordered us to get into our seats, and handing the lines to the girl on the front seat he told her to hang on for dear life.

In Want of Milk.

A small story of a French woman who had never thoroughly mastered any of the languages commonly spoken on the continent and was particularly weak in their French.

Two Sides to the Medal.

Everybody knows the woman who says society is such a bore. Few of us know her intimately, for, in point of fact, she does not go about much.

A Big Fine.

A woman in Birmingham, England, was recently fined the British equivalent of $500,000 for selling stale fish.

At the Botanical Gardens.

Professor—Here, young ladies, you observe a tobacco plant. One of the Young Ladies—Ah, how very interesting! Professor, pray, how long will it be before the cigars are ripe?

In 1629 silk stockings sold in Paris for 90.

The Dalles, Or., June 16—A prominent sheepman was offered 10 cents a pound for a clip of 90,000 pounds yesterday, but refused.

BRIEF MENTION.

From Tuesday's Daily. J. Hodges of Green Station is in the city today.

Call on Miss L. A. Baird for good millinery goods.

S. C. Miller of Willard came down to day on business.

Jones Flouring of Flouring Valley is in the city today.

John Price of Oak Creek came down to the city Tuesday.

W. C. Winston and wife of Winston were shopping here Tuesday.

Mrs. A. F. Catching of Portland is the guest of Mrs. W. F. Benjamin.

D. Clements has a contract to build a house for John Price on Oak Creek.

Mrs. J. R. Seckman and son will leave tomorrow morning for Nebraska.

Tom Wait, son of J. H. Wait is visiting his father, on his way to Sacramento, Cal.

Nort Edlins, a knight of the whip in the fifties, came up from Winchester Tuesday.

G. W. Rapp has a new soda fountain at his grocery store. Don't pass without sampling it.

G. W. Protzman is holding down the bench at Thos. Stubblefield's shoe shop during his lameness.

Advertising pays. If it did not Dr. Jaynes, Ayers and Price are fools. They pay thousands of dollars each every year for advertising.

Mrs. L. B. Riddle, who has been visiting relatives in Portland, returned Thursday, and Bob's culinary department has been rearranged.

The people of Roseburg and vicinity, irrespective of party, are unanimous in wishing to tender Congressman Hermann a public reception.

Mrs. Will Benson of Merlu, Josephine county, is visiting relatives in the city, her brother, F. W. Benson, and her sister, Mrs. George Carpy.

Owing to the tired feelings prevailing around the sheriff's office, our reporter could not ascertain the exact amount of taxes collected last week.

Three teams passed through town Tuesday, from Missouri. So you see the tail end of the pioneer procession of last Saturday has at last love in sight.

E. P. Thorp, editor of the Echo-Leader, called on the PLAINDALE Friday looking rather grippy, but that's nothing. Bachelors often get the grippie. He'll be O. K. soon.

A one-acre garden planted to proper crops and properly attended will produce a large amount of crops at a good profit—much more than any one family would need or could consume.

No new freight house at the depot this year unless a bigger fire occurs than that of a few days ago—a new roof of new shingles is going on—that 50,000 tons of freight must be protected.

I would not keep a cow on my farm that would not earn me $50 a year with butter at 20c a pound. Some of my cows the past year have earned over $60 at the creamery.—Governor Hoard.

The Roseburg Educational Club continues to meet Monday evenings to discuss important matters, but from the meager attendance it is thought the matter is of little concern or considered too momentous for them to tackle.

Lieutenants Henry Loerensen and S. K. Sykes deserve high commendation for their untiring efforts Saturday in the rain for the purpose of furnishing a rich entertainment for the thousands who witnessed it, without one cent of pay.

In the Coos Bay mail sack which was split open and robbed of its contents last Thursday by the lone highwayman on Hoover Hill, there were pension drafts for E. F. Walsh, Elizabeth Rider, Jas. Wells and John Cooper. They are valueless to the robber, but he may be fool enough to try and cash them or offer them for sale.

The kangaroo court has had a protracted session. Several important cases have been argued before it. The judge, Mickey Fullerton, has taken them under advisement and will hand down his decision in the case of S. Minard vs. Helio Gabalus upon the right of priority of discovery immediately upon convening after dog days. It is conceded that Minard is guilty of trespass.

Yesterday, June the 17th, Mat Ruckles and wife received intelligence that they were the first time in their lives grandfather and grandmother. Their daughter, Mrs. Charles Price living in Missoula, Montana, has given birth to a fine, fat ten pound boy. Although Mr. and Mrs. Ruckles are pretty well advanced in years, yet the joyful news that they had assumed a new relation in life, made them look ten years younger and caused their countenances to wreath in smiles.

Owing to many pioneers who were not in the procession Saturday arranged under the banner leaving the year in which they came to Oregon, our reporter failed to get their names. We give today the names of several parties thus omitted:

James Wright, 1852, age 69.

Mrs. James Wright, 1852, 57.

Judge W. R. Willis, 1853, 69.

I. F. Rice, 1848, 60.

It was impossible in the limited time our reporter had on that occasion to get every data exact. Hence other errors not yet known to us are quite probable. We wish also to state, the year given in our report is for date the parties came to the state instead of the county.

Notice of Dissolution.

Notice is hereby given that the partnership lately existing between J. A. De Laney and G. C. Meyer, of the city of Roseburg, Douglas county, Oregon, under the firm name of De Laney & Meyer, was dissolved by mutual consent, on the 17th day of June, 1895. All debts owing to the said partnership, are to be received by the said G. C. Meyer, and all claimants on said partnership are to be presented to him for payment.

J. A. DELANEY, G. C. MEYER.

Dated, Roseburg, June 17, 1895.

The Pelton Water Motor.

Of capacities varying from 1 to 25 horse power affords the most convenient, economical and reliable power for all light service. One of these may be seen running at this office. Send for circulars. The Pelton Water Wheel Co., 121 Main St., San Francisco, Cal.

That Flag.

There was a great mistake in presenting that Yakima battle flag to Mrs. Tustin on the day of the pioneer reunion. That flag was presented to Capt. A. J. Hambree of Company E, Yamhill county volunteers, by the ladies of Yamhill county in 1855.

Capt. Hambree carried that flag with him in the Yakima war, and on his start to return home, they were surrounded by Indians, and in the conflict that ensued, Capt. Hambree was killed. The flag was found rolled up in his pocket, he having put it there on his start for home.

Mrs. A. J. Hambree presented the flag to her daughter, Mrs. Fred Page-Tustin, and it has never been out of the family. It has been carried in every State Pioneer procession and frequently on Decoration days.

Mr. Wilson was with Capt. Hambree in the Yakima war. He was an intimate friend of the family, and on meeting Mrs. Tustin on the 15th he was surprised and pleased, and in the conversation that took place between them, she exclaimed, "I have that old flag with me." This was the first time that Mr. Wilson and Mrs. Tustin had met since her father's death, 40 years ago. Well might the old pioneers have been rejoiced to meet again. The writer of this note was an intimate acquaintance of Capt. Hambree, 40 years ago, and he is pleased to give this statement regarding the flag of his deceased friend, as also his bravery, his integrity, and his unbounded patriotism in defense of the frontiersman. Let that flag be transmitted from generation to generation.

The Labor Movement.

ST. LOUIS, June 17.—Samuel Gompers, the labor leader, addressed an audience of several hundred at Arsenal island upon the topics of interest to workingmen. The meeting was arranged by a committee of members of the Trade and Labor Union. Mr. Gompers spoke on behalf of organized labor, stating that 2,000,000 people were out of employment against their will. He said: "Trusts, privileged classes and idle capitalists are increasing their power at a wonderful rate. Our national, State and municipal councils vie with one another and with the courts in conferring special privileges. If things go on as they have been for thirty years, the historian of the future will be able to write the histories of the Roman and American republics in the same words. The labor movement in this country was intended to bring about a better condition of affairs."

Grand Army Veterans.

OREGON CITY, June 17.—The 14th State Grand Army encampment began here this afternoon, and there will be a big parade, to be participated in by 200 veterans and several militia companies. Commander-in-Chief Lawler, Adjutant-General C. C. Jones and Colonel George A. Seal of Rockford, Ill., are present. Most of the afternoon was consumed by a reception in the Baptist Church, at which Mayor Straight and President E. E. Charman of the Board of Trade, and other members of the board of trades, that were warmly welcomed. The encampment will last through to-morrow.

Mail Pouch Robbed.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., June 17.—Josiah Morris & Co., bankers, on Saturday, sent a $10,000 package to a New York bank, insuring it as usual. The postal agent received to the Montgomery postoffice for the package. Shortly afterwards the mail pouch was found cut open. Postmaster Sears telegraphed to Inspector Barrett, at Chattanooga, to investigate. A postoffice employe named Armstrong returned it Sunday, claiming that he found it in the street. Armstrong was arrested this morning.

Visited by a Tornado.

DENSON, Ia., June 17.—At about 3 o'clock this morning Denson and vicinity was visited by a tornado, which did damage estimated at $15,000. One frame country schoolhouse was blown away. The farmhouse of John Roe was demolished. His wife was killed, and other members of the family were severely injured. Bars and windmills were demolished. More than a hundred trees were destroyed.

Nick Day.

Don't you fail to comply with your promise to furnish me a history of your connection with the Indian troubles in Douglas county many years ago. You are the only man now living that can give that history of the time when you were in charge of the Indians under General Palmer, then superintendent of Indian affairs. Give me some sketches at your earliest convenience, or a little earlier, or you shall never rest in your grave in peace. Come to the front row friend, relieve our anxiety, and thus secure your present and future welfare. S. E.

Celebration at Millwood.

The glorious 4th will be celebrated at the grove on the river near Millwood. A most able speaker, Hon. Geo. M. Brown of Roseburg, will orate. A dinner will be served on the ground in picnic style. The afternoon will be spent in various amusements. No pains will be spared in making this a pleasant day at Millwood.

The Best Wheel.

The Columbia bicycle leads them all. All that human ingenuity can do to make a bicycle perfect is represented in the Columbia. Wayne Jones is the Roseburg agent for this famous wheel, and will take pleasure in showing and explaining its many merits. If you want the best wheel for your money, call on Wayne Jones.
