THE MUNICIPAL ELECTION

The matter of who shall constitute the city's government for the next ensuing year is in the hands of the legal voters, and it behooves them to look well to it.

THINKING IN ENGLAND

Are cheap goods a boon to the producer? In other words, is free trade a blessing or a curse to a nation of manufacturers?

THE GREAT DESTROYER

The Wilson law is not a protective law. It is not a free trade law, though it looks more toward free trade principles than any other.

UNDERTAKER WAITING

Speaking of the populist movement, John J. Ingals of Kansas said: Not wholly defunct, but on its deathbed.

BARKIS IS WILLIS

John J. Ingals is willing to again be sacrificed on the altar of Liberty, for the good of the dear people.

We furnish today a diagram showing the division lines of the four wards into which the city has been divided by the new charter.

If Secretary Kincaid will now eliminate his unconstitutional perquisites with an unsparring hand as he has tried to do with others, the PLAINDEALER will give him credit for being sincere in refusing to draw warrants for others who he alleges are not entitled to the pay they claimed.

Senator Quay of Pennsylvania is again running the republican party machine in that state.

EATING AND EATERS.

IT IS NOT GOOD FORM TO DO MORE THAN TASTE AND SIP.

It invited to a Smart Dinner, Dine Before You Go—How Dinners and Banquets of Fabulous Cost Are Got Up and Served by Caterers.

An American author and musician told a queer little story the other day that ran like this:

"I invariably eat my dinner at home before going out to dine. Nobody thinks of eating at a public dinner nowadays. It is the height of ill breeding! At private dinners with ladies he who eats is voted a bore."

Senator Brice of Ohio will run the democratic party machine of that state, or he will fly the track.

THE REASON WHY.

PLAINDEALER: In your Wednesday paper over the non de plumbe of Protestant, the question was asked: "Why should Catholics be denied the privilege accorded to Protestants in their aspirations for political preferment?"

The writer then proceeds to comment upon the patriotism of Catholics. That let the cat out of the bag. The writer is either a Catholic in disguise, or a sycophant Protestant who wishes to curry favor with his superstitious and superstitious nation.

Development in the South.

A few years ago there was hardly a mill in the south. Today there are 500, representing an invested capital of $100,000,000, and the number is on the steady increase.

Central Pacific Lands.

The Central Pacific Railroad Company has decided to accept the proposition of the California Miner's Association to settle the dispute over the patenting of mineral lands by the appointment of a commission of experts to decide as to the character of the lands.

Boston Wool Market.

The American Wool and Cotton Reporter says: "The wool markets have been generally quiet during the past week, and in some instances inferior lots of wool have been taken at slight concessions, but on desirable wools prices as a rule are very steady."

Knights of the Maccabees.

The State Commander writes us from Lincoln, Neb., as follows: "After trying other medicines for what seemed to be a very obstinate cough in our two children we tried Dr. King's New Discovery and at the end of two days the cough entirely left them."
