THE WEBBLING SISTERS

Will Appear at the Roseburg Theatre Tonight.

The audience at Reed's opera house Friday evening, while liberal and select, was not what the merits of the entertainment deserves, as it was, from beginning to end, pleasing to the extreme. The Webbling sisters are truly artists in their respective lines and every person in the hall appeared delighted with all they saw and heard. Little Miss Lucy fairly danced, sung and acted her way into the hearts of the audience. She was simply charming, and at once made herself a favorite. The "Dance of the Summer Flowers" by herself and Miss Rosalind took the house by storm and was repeatedly encored. The ballad "May I have the Pleasure," by Miss Lucy, was the gem of the evening, it affording the little lady an opportunity for displaying the exquisite grace of her movement. "An April Jest" was a clever bit of comedy that was well rendered, and was filled with amusing incidents. "The Patriotic Sketch," in which the three sisters each sustained a part, was a pleasing rendition. The performance of Mrs. Kenrick on the piano showed the highest order of artistic skill, her renditions being encored several times. Taken altogether the entertainment was one of the best given in Salem for many a day, and the ladies of the Episcopal church are to be congratulated on its social success, while the troupe bear with them on the balance of their tour the best wishes of a delighted Salem audience.—Statesman.

Resolutions.

Death has again entered our portals, and we mourn the loss of one whose worth we appreciated and whose demise is cause for sorrow; for

WHEREAS, Brother Gildersleeve has been blessed with a life longer than the allotted life of man his sudden demise brings forcibly to our minds the uncertainty of life, and

WHEREAS, Brother John Gildersleeve has for years past been an honored, beloved and respected member of Laurel Lodge, No. 13, A. F. & A. M. and his absence will be bailed with sorrow. Therefore be it

Resolved, that in the death of Brother Gildersleeve this lodge has lost an honored member, an upright friend and a faithful brother. Be it further

Resolved, that out of respect to the memory of our deceased brother the Charter of this Lodge be draped mourning for 30 days, that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of this Lodge and that a copy of the same be given to the Roseburg papers for publication.

Dated at Roseburg, Or., Sept. 9, 1895.
Geo. M. BROWN,
L. B. HENDRICKS,
C. E. CATCHART,
Committee.

Base Ball.

At the Oaks yesterday a large crowd assembled to indulge in yelling and blowing tin horns during the progress of a game of ball between the Coos Bay nine and the home club. Up to the sixth inning pretty good ball was played by both nines and the score was about even, though the indications were unmistakable that Coos Bay would win. In the last three innings Coos Bay batted our boys out of the field and made 12 runs to the Roseburgs 2, winning the game with a score of 19 to 9.

Populist County Committee Meeting. Notice is hereby given that the next county quarterly meeting will be held in Roseburg at ten o'clock a. m., Saturday, the 7th day of October, 1895. Precinct committee please take notice.

John Mitchell, editor and proprietor of the Times Mountaineer of The Dalles, has sold his interest in that paper to J. A. Douthit. The Mountaineer has been a staunch republican paper but in changing hands it also changes its politics. Mr. Douthit is a democrat who endorses the "platform of 1892." The people of The Dalles must be retrograding instead of advancing.

The Second District Oregon Agricultural fair begins Tuesday, September 17th, and continues to the 1st. The energetic managers are doing their best to have a grand exhibit. Come every body and help make this the best fair ever held in the district. Remember every little helps. Bring your horses, cattle, hogs, sheep, poultry and every thing else you have worthy of notice. If nothing else bring your self and babies and have a grand, good time. Your relaxation a few days from business cares will do you good—better than a dose of patent medicine. Don't be thrifish, come and enjoy yourself.

In the Oregon Observer of last week that paper took it upon itself to make mention of the fact that the Roseburg boys were bluffed down on several occasions by having $100 shook under their noses. Now the fact of the matter is, the Roseburg boys had their money out of their pockets and were anxious and willing to back their home team, but the Grants Pass boys were afraid to come to the scratch. Now we have $100 here and more if that home team wants to call it. There will be a challenge sent from here tonight to Grants Pass, and if they think that is a bluff, let them accept the challenge.
