OAKLAND.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chenoweth were in town from Wilbur Saturday.
 Mrs. Minnie Chenoweth made a visit to Roseburg last week.
 Dr. Page was called to Roseburg last week to attend upon the sick.
 Ralph Stearns was running a steam wood-saw last week.
 We have again organized a brass band of 11 pieces. They had their first practice last Saturday evening.
 As we were passing the Depot hotel the other evening, we listened to some excellent music discoursed by our local orchestra.
 Mrs. George Stearns returned last Thursday from Eugene where she has been to place her son and daughter, Roy and May, and her niece Winnie Young, in the university at that place.
 Lee Armstrong is carrying his injured hand in a sling and is around town again. His hand pains him a great deal but is doing as well as could be expected.
 Miss Beckley of Elkton is in town visiting friends and relatives.
 Ralph Stearns is running a steam engine for E. G. Young & Co., who are chipping a large quantity of grain to feed stock this winter.
 Mrs. Ambrose Young returned Friday from quite an extended visit in Eastern Oregon.
 A Presbyterian dime social will be held at the residence of V. L. Bogard next Friday evening. All are invited.
 Roy Moses delivered his farewell sermon Sunday evening at the Presbyterian church. He will soon go to Portland, Me., to reside.
 Mr. T. K. Richardson and several other parties of Roseburg came over and returned on bicycles last Friday.
 Our county superintendent, James Underwood, has returned to our town after an extended tour visiting schools. He reports good attendance for schools that have begun.
 Mr. and Mrs. P. B. Beckley have gone to Salem to attend the state fair and visit relatives. Mrs. Beckley went the early part of last week. Mr. Beckley went Sunday morning.
 Mrs. Bainbridge in company with her sister, Mrs. Whitaker, left last week en route for England to visit friends and relatives, after an absence of many years. They expect to be gone several months.
 Mr. P. B. Beckley is having his residence and yard fence improved by re-painting. Messrs. Vail & Bishop are doing the work. Mr. Vail came near meeting with a serious accident one day while they were putting up their swinging scaffold. One of the large hooks that is used on the scaffold to support the scaffold, slipped and came down striking him a glancing blow on the head that caused him to faint. He revived soon under good care and is at his work as usual. Had it struck him full force, no doubt would have been fatal.

Another Advertising Triumph.

"I love your daughter, sir," said he.
 "My love will never falter,
 And with your kind permission I
 Will lead her to the altar."
 "Not quite so fast, aspiring youth:
 Before the knot is tied
 On certain most important points
 I must be satisfied.
 You do not smoke, nor drink, nor chew."
 "Quite right—and quite surprising.
 But now, young man, I want your views
 On modern advertising."
 The suitor blushed—"O! honored sir,
 I trust there'll be no friction;
 But that good advertising pays
 Is my most firm conviction."
 "From boyhood, sir, I've noticed that
 From seasons dull and trying,
 The man who advertises with skill
 Comes out with colors flying.
 "My business, too, at first so small,
 Now rapidly is growing,
 And well I know to printer's ink
 All my success is owing."
 "Enough, enough, O, wise young sir;
 You need no sage advising;
 Get married, sir, but don't forget
 To keep on advertising."
 Elda Woods, the Camas mountain stage robber, is now behind the bars. Sheriff Cathcart brought him in from Grants Pass Sunday morning. He is being held at Hotel de Cathcart and Douglas county pays the bill. He will have a preliminary trial tomorrow at 9 a. m.
 That the people of this place appreciate good work is evidenced by the fact that since his return Dr. Strange has been kept more busy than ever before. He has the latest appliances, which combined with an extended experience and skillful work enables him to do the best of dental work.

At the residence of Mrs. A. M. Harness, September 29th, 1895, Winfred Wright and Miss Nannie Harness were united in Marriage by R. J. Bovington, J. P. Miss Nannie is now Wright and Wright is Harness, and when last seen were pulling together without balking at the matrimonial wagon.

TELEGRAPH NEWS

A County Judge Indicted.
 GRANTS PASS, Or., Sept. 28.—Quite a sensation was sprung today in court circles by an indictment being returned by the grand jury, charging County Judge J. M. Chiles with malfeasance in office. The indictment was based on an information that the judge had been engaged in speculating in county warrants. He pleaded not guilty when arraigned, and intends to make a fight. He does not deny having bought the warrants, but claims to have done so with money left with him. He claims to have bought the warrants for 90 cents on the dollar, and to have turned them over to the persons who furnished the money, and to have made nothing out of the transaction himself. On the other hand, it is claimed that he has bought warrants extensively, and has been deriving a handsome profit out of it himself. The affair has stirred up considerable feeling here, and the end is not yet.

Harrison No Candidate.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 28.—Colonel John C. New, in an authorized interview in the Indianapolis News today, said:
 "General Harrison does not desire to run for the presidency, and is in no sense a candidate, and the stories that he has withdrawn in the interest of any one are without foundation. In fact, were his advice solicited, he would select neither Mr. McKinley nor Mr. Reed as the republican candidate for the presidency."
 The News editorially considers Mr. New's statement highly significant, owing to New's known close political relations with Mr. Harrison, and sums up as follows:
 "The situation is, then, just this: Mr. Harrison is not a candidate for the nomination, and so, of course, has not withdrawn in the interest of any other candidate. He would not advise the nomination of either Reed or McKinley. He stands himself just precisely where he always stood. If the party demands his services, it can have them."
 A republican officeholder, who held responsible positions in Washington during the Harrison administration, said today that he had known for several months the ex-president's preference for the republican nomination is Senator Allison, of Iowa.

Struck by an Engine.

EUGENE, Or., Sept. 28.—Henry Walker who resides 25 miles east of Eugene, met with a serious accident this morning. He had been in town drinking all night, and was trying to make his way to the river bottom near town, where his family was camping. He was just crossing the Southern Pacific track when the 3:05 California express came along, and he was struck by the engine and knocked from the track, receiving a broken arm, two ribs, a severe wound on the head, and internal injuries.

On the Retired List.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 28.—Tomorrow Lieutenant-General John H. Schofield goes on the retired list after an eventful career in war and peace. For more than seven years he has been in command of the army, and since February 8 last, has held the exalted rank of lieutenant-general by a special act of congress.

Miles His Successor.

NEW YORK, Sept. 28.—Major-General Miles has been definitely learned, has been formally told by President Cleveland that he has been chosen as successor to General Schofield, in command of the army.

Steamer Humboldt Ashore.

ETREKA, Cal., Sept. 28.—The steamer Humboldt is on the rocks off Point Gorda, and will be a total loss. The passengers were all safely landed in boats before 11 o'clock this morning, with their small baggage. The porter saved the express treasure bag, but the mails are still aboard, and will probably be lost. The vessel has pounded up to within 100 feet of shore, and is going to pieces. The captain and crew are on the beach, but the passengers have been sent to Petrolia, and will arrive here tomorrow morning. No fatalities or accidents are reported.

Another Fatal Parachute Jump.

MONROVIA, Cal., Sept. 28.—A most horrible accident occurred here this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, which resulted in the immediate death of Nellie W. Hagel, wife of F. G. Hagel, the aeronaut. The couple had been traveling throughout the state making balloon ascensions and parachute jumps. This afternoon Mrs. Hagel made an ascension, and when at a height of 1000 feet she pulled the rope which cut the parachute loose. She shot down about 100 feet like a flash. The air caught the parachute, and it commenced to open, but suddenly it became apparent that she was falling. She came down like a cannon ball. She struck on her back, her head coming in contact with the ground first, and her skull was crushed. The deceased was 33 years old, and a native of Illinois.
