TELEGRAPH NEWS.
May Act Jointly.
New York, Oct. 7.—A special to the Herald, from Washington, says:
There is discussion in political circles here over the possibility that all the American countries may, in the near future, act jointly in the recognition of the belligerency of the Cuban insurgents.
Pan-American representatives have been anxiously waiting to see what Secretary Olney will do and the suggestion has been informally to the department that it would be a good plan for the United States and all South and Central American countries to act in concert as to the recognition of the insurgents and as to the independence of Cuba whenever the proper time arrives. It has already been reported that Mexico and Venezuela have declined to grant belligerent rights. If this be the case, the representatives of the respective countries in this city have not been advised of it. It is admitted by those concerned, however, that the insurgents must make greater headway before it will be entirely safe for the United States or any other power to recognize them. The proposition for joint action is based on the possibility of insurgent victory in engagements which are likely soon to occur.

MAKING FLORE PROMISES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 7.—In discussing the Durrant trial, Attorney Deuprey said the defense intended to put in its most effective evidence at once, and would undoubtedly close on Thursday of this week. He said he did not intend to spring any sensations, but he expected to convince the jury by means of powerful evidence that all of the suspicious circumstances developed in the case did not point to Theodore Durrant as the murderer of Blanche Lamont. Although he did not say so in so many words, he intimated that Rev. J. George Gibson and his handwriting would receive more attention.

PENSION PAYMENTS.

The crusade against the pensioners made under Hoke Smith's direction, by virtue of orders from the White House, is beginning to bear fruit. An official statement from the pension office says the number of pensioners has fallen from 1,011,794 last year to 987,815 in 1895. Judge Lochren has prepared the following table to show the future diminution of the pension list through death and democratic opposition:

Year.	Pensioners.
1900	854,461
1905	701,403
1910	535,255
1915	307,180
1920	215,172
1925	99,116
1930	31,545

THE THIRD ADDITION

BROOKSIDE.
The Home Farm, east of town, has been plated and is now on the market in Lots and Blocks containing 3, 20, 30, and 40 acres, ranging in price from $25 to $100 per acre.
Any one wanting a fruit, vegetable or chicken farm or a suburban home can now be accommodated on easy terms.
All lots sold in First Brookside addition have more than doubled in value. The prospect is much better for the future. More fortunes are made in lands near a growing town or city than any other way. Seize the opportunity.
