DRIVER VALLEY.

What has become of all our correspondents? Got the grip I suppose.

George Hall was the guest of Will Longbrake a short time ago.

Charley Humphrey of Woodburn passed through our valley last week.

King Hogain of Nonpariel was seen in our midst last week.

Miss Lillian Hall and Miss Mary Thomas of Oakland were visiting relatives here yesterday.

Dr. Little was called to wait upon Uncle George Hall one day this week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Quant and daughter made Roseburg a visit the first of the week.

Alfred Davidson of English Settlement is working for George Hall.

James Medley has been down on the Calapooia this week buying sheep. It looks like Mr. M. was going to herd sheep and run a sawmill too.

Since a certain young man, who resides near Oakland, has been making frequent visits in this section of the country, some of our young men as well as a certain young lady, are beginning to look quite eager.

Mr. R. T. King has rented the Thomas ranch and has moved his family hither, and expects to reside with us for quite a while.

Since last we wrote the wedding bells have sounded, and another of Driver Valley's fair damsels has been taken from our midst. Mr. W. W. Wright of Roseburg, and Miss Nannie Harness were united in marriage at the residence of the bride's mother, Mrs. A. M. Harness, Sept. 28, 1895. May their journey upon the sea of life be calm and peaceful dream of happiness, is the wish of WAVERLY.

Funeral.

Sunday at 2:30 p. m. the funeral rites of Dr. N. P. Bunnell was held at the Masonic Hall in this city. The hall was nicely draped for the occasion. The services were conducted by J. R. Webb, W. M., and Asher Marks, M. The hall was crowded to its utmost capacity by members of the order here and of sister lodges of Canyonville and Oakland, and the sorrowing friends and neighbors of this city. The members of the O. E. S., Odd Fellows, Daughters of Bebekah and A. O. U. W., attended in a body with regalia to designate the order to which each belonged. The K. of P. band played solemn funeral dirges and marches.

After the solemn and impressive rites were over in the hall, a procession was formed in the street and moved to the Masonic cemetery, where the final rites of burial were had by the brethren. And thus closed the eventful career of N. P. Bunnell, one of the prominent citizens of Roseburg, an able physician and an exemplary Mason, whose departure leaves a void in the Order which no remaining member can so well fill. He will be sadly missed by the surviving brethren. The funeral was the most largely attended of any ever held in this city. There were forty carriages in the procession preceded by the several Orders which were headed by the K. of P. band. Upon the whole it was one of the most solemn and imposing processions ever witnessed in this city.

BRIEF MENTION.

Wood taken on subscription at this office.

James Beckley of Oakland is in the city today.

Don't miss seeing the New Woman at the Baptist church Thursday night.

Ed. Settle and mother and Miss Houser of Oakland are in the city today.

C. H. Cummings, a tonsorialist of Oakland, is in the city today on business.

Mrs. Fred. Page-Tustin left this morning to visit friends in Portland and Seattle.

G. W. Wannacott of Myrtle Creek came down to attend the funeral of Dr. N. P. Bunnell yesterday.

F. B. Hamlin has been appointed guardian of Chas. Williams, minor heir of P. W. Williams, deceased.

Miss Gertrude Benjamin leaves tomorrow morning for San Francisco and thence to Woodland to remain perhaps a year.

It is reported that Mrs. D. Griffith has fallen heir to a nice little fortune. Lucky Mrs. Griffith, may you live long and prosper.

J. L. Arzner, B. Munter and Charles Kimmell of Canyonville came down yesterday to attend the funeral of N. P. Bunnell.

The New Woman may tell you something new about the good people of Roseburg next Thursday night at the Baptist church.

A. F. Brown, Z. L. Dimmick, Al Dear and Prof. G. T. Russell of Oakland came up Sunday to attend the funeral of Dr. N. P. Bunnell.

Fred Jones, who has been at Albany for a few weeks on a visit to his grandpa, Peter McKinney, returned Friday, having had a good time.

B. F. Ramp, long of Douglas county now of Albany, is in the city looking hale and hearty as when he stomped the county for prohibition years ago.

A competent dressmaker would like a position to sew by the day, or would cut and fit at home. Inquire of Miss Alice Beedle at residence of Jay Brooks.

Peter Loggie of Bandon passed through Roseburg Saturday night on his way home from Salem where he had been in attendance at the grand lodge K. of P.

Miss Lucy Wannacott of Myrtle Creek held the lucky number that drew the bicycle at Drain Saturday. Mr. Wannacott took the wheel home with him last night.

Ed. N. Deady, a prominent attorney of Portland, is in the city the guest of McClallen House. Mr. Deady is a son of Judge M. P. Deady, an old pioneer of Douglas county.

The latest novelties from Europe, in the shape of a shooting gallery. Music Mimics. The music goes, the tiger roars and the lady plays the drum. No. 225 Jackson street.

The final settlement of J. W. Wright, guardian of Lee Archambeau, minor heir of Francis and Joseph Archambeau has been made, the guardian discharged and bondsmen exonerated.

The supreme court has confirmed the decision of the circuit court in the case of State of Oregon vs. Samuel G. Brown for the murder of Alfred Kincaid. The case will again come up in the December term.

Mrs. Marion B. Baxter of Chicago, Ill., will lecture next Tuesday evening instead of Monday, in the Baptist church, on the subject, "Reason for the Hard Times." Laboring men especially invited.

Company A of this city will give a dance in their armory next Saturday night. As this will be their anniversary ball it will doubtless be largely attended. Music will be furnished by the Roseburg orchestra.

There are more piano's in Roseburg than in any other city of its size in Oregon. Roseburg people are a musical and music loving people and as a consequence they are the most humane and sociable people on this coast.

The man who cheats his paper
Out of a single cent,
Will never reach that heavenly land
Where old Elijah went;
But when his race is run—
This life of toil and woe—
He'll straightway go to the fiery land
Where they never shovels snow.

News comes to us that Mr. George Cox, a young man of Drain, accidentally shot himself at Gardiner last Thursday, resulting in his instant death. The report states that he had his hand over the muzzle of the gun which rested on the edge of the sidewalk, while in this position the gun slipped off, the hammer striking on the walk discharging the gun. The ball passed through his hand, ranged up, entered his mouth and came out at the top of his head, causing death in a few minutes. His body was taken to Drain for burial Saturday. George was the adopted son of John Cox near Drain. He was a bright young man of about 19 years and much esteemed by his friends and neighbors.

The Great Excursion

Leaving Roseburg at 8 o'clock next Wednesday morning for the Oregon Industrial Exposition is succeeding beyond the most sanguine expectations of George Estes, the excursion manager here.

Mr. Estes says that enough tickets for the excursion have been sold at Myrtle Creek, Dillard, Roseburg, Wilbur, Oakland, Yoncalla, Drain and Cottage Grove to more than fill two passenger coaches which have already been ordered for the excursion and Mr. Estes with his able corps of assistants in the towns mentioned is booming the excursion in the hopes of securing two more coach loads of excursionists, making four in all.

Orders from all parts of the county including interior towns, villages and cross road post offices are being constantly received requesting tickets reserved for them in the chartered coaches, and Mr. Estes is somewhat fearful that those who intend going and have not yet purchased their special tickets, will postpone it until too late to enable him to procure additional coaches enough to carry them all as there is every indication now of a very large number purchasing tickets just before departure of the excursion train Wednesday morning.

The first coach for the excursion (O. & C. 1017) came into Roseburg on the local last evening and was forwarded from here to Myrtle Creek on the overland this morning. It will leave Myrtle Creek on the northbound overland tomorrow evening and come to Roseburg bringing in the excursionists from the Southern end of the county and will remain overnight here, starting with the grand excursion Wednesday morning.

The second coach will arrive here on the local this evening and remain here until Wednesday morning. All who have any doubts of good coaches being furnished are cordially invited by Mr. Estes to go down to the railroad yards this evening or tomorrow and see the coaches for themselves.

Mr. McKechnie at Oakland is working up the excursion there and reports selling 18 tickets Saturday. He expects to sell enough more today and tomorrow to make 50 from Oakland alone, securing the third coach to be picked up at that point.

Special arrangements have been made with the Albany eating house to have an extra fine dinner for the excursionists at a rate of 35 cents each to all wearing the Douglas county badges which will be on sale excursion day at 15 cents each.

Mr. Estes told our reporter in confidence that the Oregon Industrial Exposition and especially the excursion for next Wednesday will be "The Biggest Show on Earth."

Entertainment.

The Junior Endeavor of the Christian church will give an entertainment at the church on Sunday evening, October 20th, 1895, for the benefit of the Home Missions. Following is the programme:

Notice to Delinquent Tax Payers.

The warrant for the collection of delinquent taxes for the year 1894 has been placed in the hands of the sheriff. In order to make legal return of the warrant, the sheriff will necessarily be compelled to commence levying upon property for delinquent taxes by October 21st, 1895. To avoid the costs of levying and mileage, delinquent taxes must be paid before that time. The law in regard to delinquent poll taxes will be strictly enforced and costs and mileage added.
