W. STEPHENS, Joe. Farnsworth, Robt. Winiford, Ed. Stearns, Fred Bishop, Mesdames Dwight Reed, G. W. Stephens, Miss Kittie Farnsworth. The above is a list of the Calapoopia people who attended the Mechanics Fair at Portland, last week. Anyone acquainted with the above, know them to be a fair representation of the business interests of this place, as well as a fair social representation. O. K. accompanied the party as a kind of balance wheel to control the exclamations of surprise of the parties on viewing the metropolitan city.

On the night of the 18th, at about 12 o'clock, the hop dryer and store house of G. W. Stephens, was discovered to be on fire. A number of neighbors rushed to the scene, but to no avail, as the entire structure, hops and all were consumed by the flames. The origin of the fire is unknown as there had been no fire about the premises since the hops were dried, over a month ago. Everything seems to have been partly covered with insurance.

L. Perdue, proprietor of the Rochester Flouring Mill, is running his mill to its utmost capacity on custom work, and will manufacture a large amount of wheat he has purchased into flour as soon as possible. By fair dealing and good work, Mr. Perdue has built up his mill trade far beyond his expectation.

J. P. Starr, our road supervisor, has done a good lot of work in the shape of graveling. To the satisfaction of all concerned, the old feeling of a division in this district has died out under Jim's good management, and the county board should be given credit for so efficient a selection for road supervisor.

T. P. Gossip shipped his bacon to the Portland market. Foggy mornings and smothering afternoons. Church at the Calapoopia school house on the 20th, by Rev. John L. Jones. Dwight Reed is fattening about one hundred head of hogs. Jesse Shambrook of Coles valley passed through this valley, last week, with a band of hogs he purchased in the vicinity of Elkton. Jess will feed his entire corn crop to hogs this season.

County Commissioner Maupin passed through this valley, last week, after the Dearborn herd of cattle that he purchased.

Robert Wilcox and Edward Ellison of Roseburg paid us a flying visit on their wheels on the 20th.

Mrs. E. G. and J. E. Young were visiting on the Calapoopia, last week, the guests of Mrs. C. A. McNabb.

John Ellison has leased one hundred acres of N. T. Day's Little Tennessee farm and will plant the same to wheat.

A farewell party was given to the numerous friends of Mr. John Kerley and family at their residence, on the night of the 12th inst., and the numerous friends of the family bid them farewell ere their departure for Grants Pass, of which we made mention before. Mrs. E. G. Baughn will accompany the Kerley family as far as Jump-off-Joe.

U. P. JACK.

Rev. Jones of Roseburg was on our streets Saturday.

George Shambrook of Umpqua Ferry was in town several days last week.

Mrs. E. H. Henderson went to Albany Friday to visit relatives.

Miss Lillian Hall leaves soon to visit relatives in Portland.

Mrs. Dave Clements of Roseburg was visiting relatives here last week.

We are pleased to note that Mrs. C. H. Medley is able to get out and enjoy some of the sunshine.

E. G. Young & Co shipped a fine lot of veal to Portland last Thursday morning.

Messrs. S. Kelley and P. Parker went into the mountains on a hunting and camping outing last week.

Reverend Ward, the Advent minister, left with his family Tuesday last week for Walla Walla. They will stop in Portland a short time.

Mr. McFarland, our undertaker, made a trip to Portland recently to have his eyes examined for the removal of cataracts that are growing over them, but found it too soon to have the operation performed.

Rob Medley returned on Sunday's local from the Portland excursion.

Miss Mand Beckley was the recipient of a new piano last week, and judging from the melodies that emanate from that source, Miss Mand is enjoying her present very much.

Rev. Shangle's youngest child, whom we mentioned last week, has been suffering untold agonies from the burn. At last accounts the child was resting quite easy, but it will be several weeks before it can recover its usual health.

We wish to correct our last week's statement as to Sunday services in addition to those given. Rev. Jones of Roseburg, Southern Methodist minister, holds service on the first Sunday of each month, morning and evening.

Mr. T. J. Wilson, attorney at law and notary public, has lately located here. We wish him success.

It was quite a lively time at the depot the morning of the excursion last Wednesday. There were about 40 excursionists from here and vicinity. The train came in from Roseburg with three cars well filled with excursionists, the Oakland car making four coaches of passengers from Douglas county. We saw quite a number of familiar faces from Roseburg. Mr. Estes, the S. P. agent, was out in all his glory. Everybody seemed to be well pleased and glad they were going to see the sights. No doubt they will feel well paid for time and money spent on the trip.

OLALLA. The health of this valley is excellent. The farmers are all making the best of this fine weather by hauling in their winter supplies, preparing ground for the plow, fixing fences, etc. Bill Reynolds has his horse pretty well advanced towards completion. John Byron has been making some improvements on the Wells' place. Mr. Newland's new house is beginning to loom up like "six bits in a fog" and looks as though Tom does not intend to be left behind in the way of improvement. James McCulloch has just completed an extension to the stage-barn. James Byron, the Olalla sturmer, is creating quite a smoke on his farm just now. He too is making some substantial improvements. Mr. Ollivant's new house is nearly complete. I am informed that Hamilton Bushnell will occupy the same when it is finished. In the Plaindealer of the 17th inst in the Olalla items, "Occasional" accuses me of smothering over and making unjustified assertions. I will simply say, inasmuch as I am to be held by the shoulder while Billy and Occasional slaps me in the face that my stamps cost Occasional nothing, and while it is a fact that stamps are greatly needed at home, I have not drunk up nor gambled off nor had our home sold under mortgage and if Occasional could truthfully say the same, I would ask him for the loan of a postage stamp. ALLEN.

Oregon and Happy Homes. Oregon climate is simply getting in and showing Eastern visitors how fair the sun can shine in October, the season of the "sugar and yellow leaf." Our climate incomparable, the old myth about the perennial rainy seasons is no longer seriously spoken of in the East. Oregon climate has its distinct seasons—spring, summer, autumn and winter, but the weather is seldom extreme heat, wet or cold. Come and see us and you will be satisfied that Oregon, and especially Douglas county, excels all other lands in beautiful climate, fertile soil, and everything to make happy homes, and to the industrious toiler that competence so hardy gained in other lands. Come, visit Douglas county and test the truth of the above.

Notice to Delinquent Tax Payers. The warrant for the collection of delinquent taxes for the year 1894 has been placed in the hands of the sheriff. In order to make legal return of the warrant, the sheriff will necessarily be compelled to commence levying upon property for delinquent taxes by October 21st, 1895. To avoid the costs of levying and mileage, delinquent taxes must be paid before that time. The law in regard to delinquent poll taxes will be strictly enforced and costs and mileage added. A. F. STEARNS, C. H. MAUPIN, W. L. WILSON.

What Will the Harvest Be? The above is an important question, and one the solution of which involves the well or woe of the Oregon farmer. Another question of equal importance is, where shall we go to lay in our supplies of clothing and dry goods? The answer to the latter question might be readily answered by saying, "Go to the Square Deal store of Wollenberg & Abraham, where are kept large supplies suitable for the wants of all, and which they will dispose of for greenbacks, gold or silver, at very reasonable rates."
