Bad Financial History.

Secretary Carlisle is only lacking in the practical wisdom essential to the makeup of a financial statesman, but he justifies the adverse comments of his severest critics when he goes astray on primary facts of history. In his speech at "The first great mistake in our currency legislation was made in the act of March 17, 1862, which authorized the secretary of the treasury to issue United States notes to the amount of $150,000,009, and made them legal tender and interest on the public debt. The treasury department, for the first time in our history, was invested with authority to issue notes to circulate as money. The government of the United States ought not to be engaged in the business of issuing notes to circulate as money; it is not a proper function of that government, and the sooner this truth is realized by the people the better it will be for the coun-

SPECIAL MEETING

Of Indian War Veterans of Umpqua

At a meeting of Indian War Veterans of Umpqua Camp, held at Roseburg, Oregon, November 16, 1895. Captain W. F. Briggs presided, and the following proceedings were had, to wit.: The meeting was called to order by the captain, and the minutes of the last meeting were read. All the following resolutions were adopted unanimously: First-That the election of officers be deferred until the time of the regular annual meeting in May next, when notice of date will be given.

Second-That the thanks of this meeting be extended to the editors of the local press for the many favors granted from time to time to this camp in printing notices, etc. Third-Whereas the pioneers of the Pacific northwest opened up roads through a vast region to reach Oregon, then an unknown and unexplored wilderness, traveling by ox teams, and on foot. and some came around Cape Horn, an experience unknown in the opening up of any other part of these United States,

Whereas, said pioneers entering this, then a wild country, were forced by the savage Indians to take up arms defend their homes and this northwest from the butchering tomshawk and scalping knife of the native tribes, who disputed their right to this fair land, feel that they deserve recognition from the general government, now, therefore,

Resolved, That we most respectfully petition the United States government to grant pensions to the Indian War Veterans, and their dependent widows on this Pacific northwest, and ia consideraion of the above facts, and the services we thus rendered, we hereby petition the congress of the United States to grant to yeterans of the Indian wars of Oregon and Washington, now not to exceed one thousand in number, the same rights and privileges that are now or may hereafter be accorded to veterans of our civil war and that the senators and representatives of the Pacific northwest be earnestly requested to urge the claims of the Indian War Veterans of the Pacific northwest. many of whom have not had a cent for their services or their equipments which they furnished .
